

37 He said to my disciples and my rest, that it is I myself: know ye me, and send for a spirit such as this, and ye shall know me as ye have.

38 And when he had thus spoken, he showed them his hands and his feet.

39 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them,
Have ye here any meat?

40 And they gave him a piece of a baked fish, and of an honeycomb.

41 In the city of Jerusalem, enclosed with a wall seven fifty furlongs. And he sat down with them, and he blessed them, and blessed them.

42 And it came to pass, when he had thus said, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.

43 And they worshipped him thenceforth, and were continually praising and blessing him.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. JOHN.

CHAPTER I.

1 The beginning, whereby, and of Jesus Christ. 2 The testimony of John. 3 The coming of the Holy Spirit, etc.

4 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

5 The same was in the beginning with God.

6 All things were made by him: and without him was not any thing made that was made.

7 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

8 And the light shineth in darkness;
and the darkness comprehended it not.

9 There was a man sent from God,
whose name was John.

10 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men
through him might believe.

11 He was not that Light, but came
to bear witness of that Light.

12 That was the true Light,
which enlighteneth every man that cometh
into the world.

13 He was in the world, and the world
was made by him, and the world knew him not.

14 He came unto his own, and his own
receiving him, did not receive him.

15 But as many as received him, unto him gave he power to become of God, even to them that believe in him.

16 Which were born, not of the will of the flesh, nor of men, but of God.

17 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, and we saw the glory as of the only Son of the Father, full of grace.

18 John came for a witness, to
bear witness of the Light, that all men
through him might believe.

19 There was a man sent from God,
whose name was John.

20 The same came for a witness, to
bear witness of the Light, that all men
through him might believe.

21 He was not that Light, but came
to bear witness of that Light.

22 That was the true Light,
which enlighteneth every man that cometh
into the world.

23 He was in the world, and the world
was made by him, and the world knew
him not.

receiving him, did not receive him.

Prayer Book Dictionary George Harford, Morley Stevenson, John Walton Tyrer, 1925 Sacra Scriptura James H. Charlesworth, Lee Martin McDonald, 2014-04-24 Many of the writings deemed apocryphal and pseudepigraphical were in circulation in the early centuries of Judaism and Christianity Their influences and impacts on the development of early communities and the development of Jewish and Christian thoughts have not yet been sufficiently examined While this judgment is especially true for the so called Christian Apocrypha it also applies for other writings that were not included in the Jewish and Christian Bibles and nor in other sacred collections of Scripture like Rabbis and Patristics Most of these ancient writings functioned to some degree as sacred texts or scripture sacra scriptura in the communities in which they were produced and in others to which they circulated This volume focuses on how some of these forgotten voices were heard within numerous early religious communities helping to remove the distressing silence in many areas of the ancient world

Forgotten Scriptures Lee Martin McDonald, 2009-01-01 The early Christian church had a variety of Scriptures and other source material that informed their faith and shaped their thinking But after a few centuries the church decided to keep the twenty seven books of our present New Testament and to treat them as a canonical in faith and practice But what of the other books Many of them have survived and remain valuable for understanding the diversity of the early Christian church and the astounding claims of faith on which it was founded Learning about these ancient documents need not threaten the church's current orthodoxy and authority in fact learning about these texts can help today's Christians form a deeper understanding of the early church Jerome and the Jews William L. Kewson, 2017-05-31 Jerome rocked the boat in which the early church had been comfortably settled for two hundred years He upset Christian tradition by arguing for the priority of the Hebrew Old Testament over the supposedly inspired Greek Septuagint He learned Hebrew from a Jewish teacher and translated the Old Testament directly from Hebrew into Latin Not only did his new Latin translation create turmoil but the inclusion of Jewish interpretations in his commentaries furthered the controversy Unlike his contemporaries Jerome viewed the Jews and their homeland as a source of information and inspiration However at the same time Jerome freely admitted his hatred of the Jews and their religion His caustic rhetoric reinforced the Christian church's displacement of the Jews but it seems to oppose his move toward appreciating Jewish resources This book illuminates Jerome's contradictory personality proposes a solution and explores avenues for current Christian and Jewish relations in light of Jerome's model
