Sacred Profane:

The Sacred and the Profane Mircea Eliade, 1959 Famed historian of religion Mircea Eliade observes that even moderns who proclaim themselves residents of a completely profane world are still unconsciously nourished by the memory of the sacred Eliade traces manifestations of the sacred from primitive to modern times in terms of space time nature and the cosmos In doing so he shows how the total human experience of the religious man compares with that of the nonreligious This book serves as an excellent introduction to the history of religion but its perspective also encompasses philosophical anthropology phenomenology and psychology It will appeal to anyone seeking to discover the potential dimensions of human existence P 4 of cover

Discourse on Sacred and Profane Images Gabriele Paleotti, 2012 In the wake of the Counter Reformation Cardinal Gabriele Paleotti the archbishop of Bologna wrote a remarkable treatise on art during a time when the Church feared rampant abuse in the arts Translated into English here for the first time Paleotti's Discourse on Sacred and Profane Images argues that art should address a broad audience and explains the painter's responsibility to his spectators The Discourse is introduced by historian Paolo Prodi who explains how even if the archbishop did not succeed in reforming the arts Paleotti's treatise constituted one last synthesis of art as a reading of creation and salvation history and sacred art as a vehicle of devotion

Culture and Power David Swartz, 1997 Pierre Bourdieu is one of the world's most important social theorists and is also one of the great empirical researchers in contemporary sociology However reading Bourdieu can be difficult for those not familiar with the French cultural context and until now a comprehensive introduction to Bourdieu's oeuvre has not been available David Swartz focuses on a central theme in Bourdieu's work the complex relationship between culture and power and explains that sociology for Bourdieu is a mode of political intervention Swartz clarifies Bourdieu's difficult concepts noting where they have been misinterpreted by critics and where they have fallen short in resolving important analytical issues The book also shows how Bourdieu has synthesized his theory of practices and symbolic power from Durkheim Marx and Weber and how his work was influenced by Sartre Levi Strauss and Althusser Culture and Power is the first book to offer both a sympathetic and critical examination of Bourdieu's work and it will be invaluable to social scientists as well as to a broader audience in the humanities

Epistemology and Practice Anne Warfield Rawls, 2005-03-03 In this original and controversial book Professor Rawls argues that Durkheim's The

Elementary Forms of Religious Life is the crowning achievement of his sociological endeavour and that since its publication in English in 1915 it has been consistently misunderstood Rather than a work on primitive religion or the sociology of knowledge Rawls asserts that it is an attempt by Durkheim to establish a unique epistemological basis for the study of sociology and moral relations By privileging social practice over beliefs and ideas it avoids the dilemmas inherent in philosophical approaches to knowledge and morality that are based on individualism and the tendency to privilege beliefs and ideas over practices both tendencies that dominate western thought Based on detailed textual analysis of the primary text this book will be an important and original contribution to contemporary debates on social theory and philosophy

This is Not Just a Painting Bernard Lahire, 2019-04-15 In 2008 the Musée des Beaux Arts de Lyon acquired a painting called The Flight into Egypt which was attributed to the French artist Nicolas Poussin Thought to have been painted in 1657 the painting had gone missing for more than three centuries Several versions were rediscovered in the 1980s and one was passed from hand to hand from a family who had no idea of its value to gallery owners and eventually to the museum A painting that had been sold as a decorative object in 1986 for around 12 000 euros was acquired two decades later by the Musée des Beaux Arts de Lyon for 17 million euros What does this remarkable story tell us about the nature of art and the way that it is valued How is it that what seemed to be just an ordinary canvas could be transformed into a masterpiece that a decorative object could become a national treasure This is a story permeated by social magic the social alchemy that transforms lead into gold the ordinary into the extraordinary the profane into the sacred Focusing on this extraordinary case Bernard Lahire lays bare the beliefs and social processes that underpin the creation of a masterpiece Like a detective piecing together the clues in an unsolved mystery he carefully reconstructs the steps that led from the same material object being treated as a copy of insignificant value to being endowed with the status of a highly prized painting commanding a record breaking price He thereby shows that a painting is never just a painting and is always more than a piece of stretched canvass to which brush strokes of paint have been applied this object and the value we attach to it is also the product of a complex array of social processes with its distinctive institutions and experts that lies behind it

And through the history of this painting Lahire uncovers some of the fundamental structures of our social world For the social magic that can transform a painting from a simple copy into a masterpiece is similar to the social magic that is present throughout our societies in economics and politics as much as art and religion a magic that results from the spell cast by power on those who tacitly recognize its authority By following the trail of a single work of art Lahire interrogates the foundations on which our perceptions of value and our belief in institutions rest and exposes the forms of domination which lie hidden behind our admiration of works of art

Para/Inquiry Victor E. Taylor, 2008-02-20 Para Inquiry represents the next generation of postmodern studies Focusing on cultural studies religion and literature Victor E Taylor provides us with a fresh look at the history and main themes of postmodernism both in style and content Central to the book is the status of the sacred in postmodern times Taylor explores the sacred images in art culture and literature We see that the concept of the sacred is uniquely singular and resistant to an easy assimilation into artistic cultural or narrative forms Anyone wishing to gain a new and exciting understanding of postmodernism will read this book with great pleasure

Modernity and Subjectivity Harvie Ferguson, 2000 Few concepts have come to dominate the human sciences as much as modernity yet there is very little agreement over what the term actually means Every aspect of contemporary human reality modern society modern life modern times modern art modern science modern music the modern world has been cited as a part of modernity's distinctive and all embracing presence But what is the exact nature of the reality to which the term modern refers Has not such a promiscuous ill defined concept come to obscure and confuse rather than clarify a genuine understanding of our experience Harvie Ferguson proposes a new view of modernity arguing that although it may variously be associated with the Renaissance the European discovery of the New World the Reformation the Industrial Revolution and many other significant ruptures with primitive or premodern society modernity fails as an idea if it only defines itself against what it replaced Instead he writes modernity finds its clearest definition through an exploration of subjectivity For the modern world there is no higher authority than experience No longer is the human world subordinate to a divine reality beyond the capacity of its own senses This idea finds its greatest expression in the philosophy of doubt originated by Descartes Doubt seemed the radical starting point from which to found a wholly modern philosophy that makes the distinction between subject and object but those who came after Descartes soon reached the limits of self discovery and became trapped in deepening levels of despair This despair in turn found expression in the concepts of self and other and eventually in a dialectic of ego and world which distinguishes and links together the most important social cultural and psychological aspects of modernity Moving beyond these dualities of subject and object mind and body ego and world and replacing them with the triad of body soul and spirit Ferguson redraws the map of contemporary experience finding links with the premodern world that modernity's self founding concealed
