Negotiating the Modern Amit Ray, 2007-01-22 This book explicates long standing literary celebrations of India and Indian ness by charting a cultural history of Indianness in the Anglophone world locating moments in intellectual religious and cultural history where India and Indianness are offered up as solutions to modern moral ethical and political questions in the West Beginning in the early 1800s South Asians actively seek to occupy and modify spaces created by the scholarly discourses of Orientalism the study of the East Orient via Western European epistemological frameworks Tracing the varying fortunes of Orientalist scholars from the inception of British rule this study charts the work of key Indologists in the colonial era The rhetorical constructions of East and West deployed by both colonizer and colonized as well as attempts to synthesize or transcend such constructions became crucial to conceptions of the modern Eventually Indian desire for political sovereignty together with the deeply racialized formations of imperialism produced a shift in the dialogic relationship between South Asia and Europe that had been initiated and sustained by orientalists This impetus pushed scholarly discourse about India in Europe North America and elsewhere out of what had been a direct role in politics and theology and into high Literary culture

Catalogue ... Francis Edwards, Francis Edwards (Firm), 1921 Sadhana Rabindranath Tagore, 2022-11-13 In Sadhana The Realisation of Life Rabindranath Tagore masterfully explores the intricate relationship between self realization and the broader universe through a blend of poetic prose and philosophical musings Written during a period of significant cultural and spiritual awakening in India the text is imbued with Tagore s characteristic lyrical style presenting a harmonious fusion of Eastern wisdom and Western thought He delves into the essence of spirituality emphasizing the importance of inner awakening and the quest for a deeper understanding of existence making it not merely a self help guide but a guiding light for the spiritual seeker Rabindranath Tagore the first non European Nobel laureate in Literature was profoundly influenced by his upbringing in a family steeped in scholarly traditions and creativity His experiences with various philosophical teachings along with the socio political climate of early 20th century India instilled in him a strong desire to bridge the gap between the material and spiritual realms This pursuit culminated in Sadhana where he articulates his quest for finding meaning in human life through a union with the cosmos I recommend Sadhana for readers seeking a profound exploration of spirituality and a reflection on life s purpose Tagore s graceful prose invites introspection and challenges individuals to embark on their own journeys of self discovery making it an essential read for anyone eager to understand their place in the universe

Sadhana Rabindranath Tagore,2021-10-12 Sadhana The Realisation of Life 1916 is a collection of essays by Rabindranath Tagore Published after Tagore received the 1913 Nobel Prize in Literature Sadhana The Realisation of Life contains the author s thoughts on selfhood the universe morality and beauty Inspired by the Upanishads the sacred foundational texts of Hinduism Tagore s collection bridges the gap between East and West ancient and modern in its search for universal truth The west seems to take a pride in thinking that it is subduing nature This sentiment is the product of the city wall habit and training of mind For in the city life man naturally directs the concentrated light of his mental vision upon his own life and works and this creates an artificial dissociation between himself and the Universal Nature within whose bosom he lies In this collection of essays Tagore is at his philosophical poetic best reflecting earnestly and with ease on matters public and private Grounded in the teachings of the Upanishads Sadhana The Realisation of Life is a text engaged with the role of tradition in an increasingly alienated and individualistic modern world With a beautifully designed cover and professionally typeset manuscript this edition of Rabindranath Tagore s Sadhana The Realisation of Life is a classic of Indian literature reimagined for modern readers
