A Painter's Progress David Dawson,2014-10-07 For nearly twenty years David Dawson was Lucian Freud s assistant companion and model Freud moved in rarefied powerful circles and was tenacious about protecting his privacy He also carefully avoided distraction With few exceptions he wanted only those he knew well like the late Bruce Bernard to photograph him David Dawson however was in a unique position and as Freud became comfortable in the presence of Dawson s camera photographing became part of the daily ritual of the studio These photographs reveal in a most intimate way the subjects and the stages of paintings in progress Few artists if any have had their lives and their work recorded over such a length of time Despite Freud s sense of privacy his circle was wide Among those who regularly visited Freud were figures from the art world including art historian John Richardson and painters David Hockney and Frank Auerbach along with model Kate Moss and friends such as the Duke of Beaufort The book begins in Freud s old studio in Holland Park and then records the artist in his eighteenth century house in Kensington the first floor of which was his final studio Dawson also photographed Freud on his visits to look at masterpieces in various museums in New York Amsterdam and Madrid The book ends with views of the rooms in which Freud s own extraordinary collection of paintings was hung It is the only record of the house itself before the dispersal of the art on his death but ultimately the photographs create an intimate portrait of the man The final images in this book are of the hanging of Freud s work in his posthumous London exhibition at the National Portrait Gallery Haunting and fascinating this is a revelatory document about one of our most important and influential painters

Lucian Freud Starr Figura, Lucian Freud, 2007 Lucian Freud is one of the foremost figurative artists working today This work accompanies an exhibition which presents the full scope of his etchings including some 75 works from the rare early experiments in the 1940s to the increasingly complex compositions that he has created since rediscovering the medium in the early 1980s Loi sur l'enseignement, des 19 janvier, 26 février et 15 mars 1850 ,1850 LUCIAN FREUD ,1987
