Lukang Commerce And Community In A Chinese City:

Lukang Donald R. DeGlopper,1995-10-12 An anthropological study of the social organization and local history in Lukang a city in Taiwan Lukang Donald Robert DeGlopper,1995-01-01 An anthropological study of the social organization and local history in Lukang a city in Taiwan Globalization and the Making of Religious Modernity in China Thomas Jansen,Thoralf Klein,Christian Meyer,2014-03-20 Globalization and the Making of Religious Modernity in China co edited by Thomas Jansen Thoralf Klein and Christian Meyer investigates the transformation of China s religious landscape under the impact of global influences since 1800 The interdisciplinary case studies analyze the ways in which processes of globalization are interlinked with localizing tendencies thereby forging transnational relationships between individuals the state and religious as well as non religious groups at the same time that the global concept religion embeds itself in the emerging Chinese religious field and within the new academic disciplines of Religious Studies and Theology The contributions unravel the intellectual social political and economic forces that shaped and were themselves shaped by the emergence of what has remained a highly contested category The contributors are Hildegard Diemberger Vincent Goossaert Esther Maria Guggenmos Thomas Jansen Thoralf Klein Dirk Kuhlmann LAI Pan chiu Joseph Tse Hei Lee Christian Meyer Lauren Pfister Chlo Starr Xiaobing Wang Riese and Robert P Weller Commerce and Capitalism in Chinese Societies Gary G. Hamilton,2006-05-24 Consisting of sixteen articles which together provide historical comparative and theoretically informed perspectives on the spread of Chinese capitalism this collection emphasizes the difference between Western and Chinese forms of capitalism Religion and Charity Robert P. Weller,2018 This book challenges our assumptions about morality by explaining how industrialized philanthropy and universalized goodness came to dominate Chinese religious engagement Commodifying Communism David L. Wank,1999 Commodifying Communism is an ethnographically grounded account of the institutional organization and political consequences of China s historically unprecedented market growth Drawing upon almost two years of ethnographic fieldwork this book challenges conventional views of post communist emerging markets being tied to the retreat of the state David Wank shows how entrepreneurs running private trading companies in Xiamen City Fujian Province one of China s five special economic zones maximize profit and security through patron client networks with local state agents The book examines how processes of opportunity exchange expectations and advantage are constrained by both statist and popular institutions in market clientelism It also considers the implications of market clientelism for the dynamism of China s emerging market economy relative to Eastern European post communist economies and its political consequences for state society and center local relations Rules and Networks Richard Appelbaum,William Felstiner,Volkmar Gessner,2001-12-31 This book explores how business people and their legal advisers try to minimise the effect of the difficulties imposed by different cultures The Globalisation of Chinese Business Firms H. Yeung,K. Olds,1999-11-23 Chinese business firms and their networks of personal and business relationships are becoming increasingly important players in the global economy This book examines the global and regional operations of Chinese business firms and considers their implications for the management and organisation of these firms aided by specific case studies Written by leading researchers in this field The Globalisation of Chinese Business Firms is a valuable and timely contribution to the study of Asian business systems Up in Flames Ellen Johnston Laing,Helen Hui-Ling Liu,2004 This comprehensive study of the traditional Chinese craft of paper sculpture documents the ancient craft as it exists today in Taiwan Urban China Reframed Wing-Shing Tang,Kam Wing Chan,2021-06-21 Given China s rapid economic growth and massive urbanization no one in the world can ignore what is happening in urban China This book is a critical review of existing urban China research which is found wanting due to the decontextualized use of theories and concepts developed in the West Urban China Reframed A Critical Appreciation consists of epistemological theoretical and methodological contributions to remedy these limitations by focusing on a number of relevant topics First models are widely employed in any study and China nowadays has invoked models like city system zones and global city in socio economic development How to interpret them in terms of knowledge production in a strong party state Second given the global prevalence of neoliberalism it is an important debate whether neoliberalism is applicable to China Third what is urban ideology in China How to contextualize it Are debates about the differentiation between the city and urbanization relevant to China Fourth massive rural urban migration in China has taken place within its mega rural urban dual system an institution that has persisted since the 1950s How does it manifest nowadays Fifth has the town country divide in China like in the West disappeared If not how can one interpret China s town country relations within the politics and administration of the Chinese state Sixth how to decipher the territorial development in the Pearl River Delta the world s factory under the auspices of the state The collection of essays in this volume contributes to the theoretical understanding of urban China The chapters in this book were originally published in the Eurasian Geography and Economics Taiwanese Pilgrimage to China D. Hatfield,2009-12-21 This book examines the pilgrimages to China from Taiwan in the late 1980s and early 1990s and offers a wide ranging account of urban planning statements arguments about ritual propriety and the material culture of pilgrimage Taiwanese Pilgrimage to China argues that as Taiwanese pilgrims and their Chinese hosts translated values produced in ritual contexts into the terms of economic and political reform they became complicit in a shared project of composing historical truth With its attention to pilgrimages at a possible center of geopolitical conflict Taiwanese Pilgrimage to China provides an account of how shared frameworks for action grow and advances anthropological understandings of conflict resolution The Indigenous Dynamic in Taiwan's Postwar Development: Religious and Historical Roots of Entrepreneurship Ian Skoggard,2016-09-16 Using Taiwan s third largest export industry shoe manufacturing as a case study this work contends that economic development can be tied to Taiwan s own cultural history as well as to the influx of foreign capital or the initiatives of the state government Steps of Perfection Donald S. Sutton,2020-03-23 Despite Taiwan s rise as an economic force in the world modernity has not led to a

Weberian process of disenchantment or curbed religiosity To the contrary other factors social economic political have stimulated religion How and why this has happened are central issues in this book One part of Taiwan s flourishing religious culture is the elaborate and colorful procession of local gods accompanied by troupes of musicians and dancers Among them are performers with outlandishly painted faces portraying underworld generals who serve the gods and punish the living Through their performances these troupes claim to exorcise harmful forces from the community In conducting fieldwork among these troupes Donald Sutton confronted their claims to a long history when all evidence indicated that the troupes had been insignificant until the 1970s and their assertions of devotion to tradition given the diversity of performances Concentrating on the stylistic variations in performances the author describes the troupes as organizations shaped by the market forces of supply and demand in the culture of religious festivals By focusing on performances as the nexus of market and art he shows how bodily performance is the site where religious statements are made and the power of the gods made visible

Muslim Chinese Dru C. Anthropology in the City Italo Pardo,Giuliana B. Prato,2016-05-23 With half of humanity already living in towns and cities and that proportion expected to increase in the coming decades society both Western and non Western is fast becoming urban and even mega urban As such research in urban settings is evidently timely and of great importance Anthropology in the City brings together a leading team of anthropologists to address the complex methodological and theoretical challenges posed by field research in urban settings clearly identifying the significance of the anthropological paradigm in urban research and its centrality both to mainstream academic debates and to society more broadly With essays from experts on wide ranging ethnographic research from fields as diverse as China Europe India Latin and North America and South East Asia this book demonstrates the contribution that empirically based anthropological analysis can make to our understanding of our increasingly urban world Trading Networks in Early Modern East Asia Angela

Schottenhammer,2010 The present volume composed of six contributions by different scholars seeks to show the intensity of exchange relations and trading networks in the early modern to late imperial East Asian Mediterranean arguing that these exchange relations and trading networks already had their roots and origins in the tenth to thirteenth centuries at the latest In this context the first two contributions discuss local society and socio economic changes within local Chinese society during the Song to Ming periods while the other four contributions concentrate on aspects of commercial exchange and administration during the Qing period Two contributions in particular analyze the indirect and direct importance respectively of religion for social life and commercial activities as a basic precondition for success in non religious affairs One chapter investigates Sino Ryukyuan trade relations during the Kangxi reign 1662 1722 another one Sino Taiwanese trade relations in late imperial China while one chapter is in particular dedicated to an analysis of the characteristics and developments within the maritime trade administration of the Manchu Qing 1644 1911 government with emphasis on hitherto rather neglected aspects for example institutional administrative details including questions such as if Manchus or Han Chinese were responsible for the administration of trade A Companion to Chinese History Michael Szonyi,2016-12-12

A Companion to Chinese History presents a collection of essays offering a comprehensive overview of the latest intellectual developments in the study of China s history from the ancient past up until the present day Covers the major trends in the study of Chinese history from antiquity to the present day Considers the latest scholarship of historians working in China and around the world Explores a variety of long range questions and themes which serves to bridge the conventional divide between China s traditional and modern eras Addresses China s connections with other nations and regions and enables non specialists to make comparisons with their own fields Features discussion of traditional topics and chronological approaches as well as newer themes such as Chinese history in relation to sexuality national identity and the environment Entrepreneurs in
