Bird,2010-06-10 The study of educational leadership makes little sense unless it is in relation to who the leaders are how they are leading what is being led and with what effect Based on the premise that learning is at the heart of leadership and that leaders themselves should be learners the Leadership for Learning series explores the connections between educational leadership policy curriculum human resources and accountability Each book in the series approaches its subject matter through a three fold structure of process themes and impact Series Editors Clive Dimmock Mark Brundrett and Les Bell The effects of globalization are evident in education policy around the world Governments from the United States to China are driving their education systems to produce more skilled more flexible more adaptable employees The pressure to perform is all pervasive meaning present day leaders have to go beyond the principles of humane and equitable management practice and look for a competitive advantage through strategies that enhance motivation build capacity for organizational improvement and produce better value added performance Human Resource Management in Education debates the fundamental question of how far effective human resource management policies can enable schools and colleges to transcend the paradoxes of the global reform agenda It analyses the relationship between leadership the classroom and results and uses case studies to explore the extent to which performance is enhanced by distributed leadership and constrained by social political and economic contexts The book is divided into three parts examining the current context of human resource management by critically analysing globalization human capital theory and worldwide trends in government legislation societal values and teacher culture s exploring two pairs of contemporary themes in human resource management by comparing the roles of leaders and followers on the one hand and contrasting learning and greedy organizations on the other looking at how the context and the themes impact on particular contemporary practices in human resource management by analysing the selection and development of professionals the remodelling of school teams and the management of performance The authors carefully blend advocacy with evidence to ensure relevance for both practitioner and academic audiences across the globe The book would be of particular use to students on masters courses in educational leadership

Lankshear,2003      Local Management of Schools Ernie Cave,Cyril Wilkinson,2005-08-05 The provisions of the 1988 Education Reform Act have given many schools the turnover and responsibilities of a medium sized business The Act is certainly the most important educational legislation since 1944 and local management is the key issue requiring schools to undertake specialist functions such as budgeting and marketing never tackled before at the institutional level This book introduces some of the practical issues associated with planning and implementing new functions now being devolved to school level It will enable schools to focus on the implications of the Act and the issues it presents It stresses the need for the whole school to meet the challenge Each chapter looks at a different issue including resource management financial management budgetary preparation performance measurement the uses of information technology marketing and the school the legal context personnel management and staff selection time management and priority setting The book does aim to be a practical manual on local management but to provide a clear thinking and sympathetic discussion of the urgent practical issues now facing all schools It will be invaluable to all involved in educational management whether in schools local authorities training organisations or academic life      Vision and Values in Managing Education Judith Bell,Bernard T. Harrison,2018-05-11 Originally published in 1995 This book argues that in order to fulfil its task of moving schools and colleges forward to meet the demands of the future the management of education must be inspired by both value and vision applied to the actual management of people and resources Part 1 examines key critical issues that should guide principles of school and college management Part 2 identifies key aspects of the management and leadership of people including case studies of effective team leadership Part 3 deals with the management of all educational resources to achieve improvement and success in schools and colleges      Routledge Library Editions: Education Management Various,2021-07-29 Reissuing works originally published between 1975 and 1997 this
