Water Resources and Agricultural Development in the Tropics Christopher J. Barrow,2016-07-01 First published in 1988 There are many excellent texts on water supply and irrigation engineering irrigation economics agricultural development and the problems which often plague such efforts Few syntheses of such writings have been made despite a clear need for them from people interested in water resources and agricultural development students of geography economics development studies and agricultural management administrators planners and aid agency staff This book attempts to provide a broad interdisciplinary introduction for such people Sustainable Development of Water Resources V

P Jauhari,2002 In Indian context Rural Livelihoods and Poverty Reduction Policies Frank Ellis,H. Ade Freeman,2004-08-02 This important new collection of contributions brings together current thinking on poverty reduction and rural livelihoods in developing countries As well as leading economists in the field such as Frank Ellis and Chris Barrett there are a number of contributors from developing countries themselves The book examines both macroeconomic and microeconomic phenomena and contains wide range of case studies Skilfully exposing the gap that exists between the rhetoric of poverty reduction strategies in capital cities and the practice of public sector delivery in rural areas this key text will be essential reading for advanced students and researchers in the fields of rural development rural livelihoods poverty reduction strategies and Sub Saharan Africa development as well as advisors and practitioners in international organizations

Local Organizations For Social Development David M Freeman,2021-11-28 Originally published in 1989 This study is based on field research at the Niazberg site in Pakistan a small tank system in Madhya Pradesh India and two tanks systems located in the Sri Lankan Dry Zone Arid Lands Charles Hutchinson,2019-04-23 The international conference Arid Lands Today and Tomorrow drew more than 400 participants from over 35 countries to Tucson Arizona for one week in October of 1985 The diversity of presenters disciplines and subject matters addressed contributed to an interesting and informative conference The papers presented in this volume represent the efforts of scientists and other individuals who through their various disciplines are addressing the problems of and opportunities presented by the arid lands of the world A committee of five scientists reviewed for substance relevance and their contribution to the conference the 284 abstracts that were submitted They selected 146 for presentation at the conference and of those papers presented 128 were received for inclusion in the proceedings On The Waterfront: Water Distribution, Technology And Agrarian Change In A South Indian Canal Irrigation System Peter P. Mollinga,2003 Series Wageningen University Water Resources Series This book analyses the struggle over water in a large scale irrigation system in Raichur District Karnataka South India It looks at water control as a simultaneously technical managerial and socio political process The triangle of accommodation of different categories of farmers irrigation department officials and local politicians involving water votes money employment credit and harassment is documented The book shows that the physical infrastructure notably the division structures are signposts of struggle expressing the balance of power between farmers and the irrigation department and that between head and tail end farmers It concludes with a discussion of irrigation reform efforts in India reasons for the very slow transformation of the sector and how a more integrated perspective on irrigation could provide directions for the way forward Farmer Participation and Irrigation Organization Bradley W. Parlin, 2019-02-28 This book elaborates a perspective that can be used to democratize decentralize and privatize irrigation organizations It uses case examples to illustrate the interrelationships between project performance irrigation organization and farmer participation
