Managing Scarcity Priority Setting :

Managing Scarcity Rudolf Klein, Patricia Day, Sharon Redmayne, 1996 Managing Scarcity Rudolf Klein, 1996 The rationing of health care has become one of the most emotive issues of the 1990s in the UK causing much public confusion political controversy This book provides a critical comprehensive introduction to this debate Managing Clinical Processes Roslyn Sorensen, Rick Iedema, 2008-10-08 This book will provide clinicians clinical managers and corporate managers with a practical guide to managing clinical processes and managing change in health services It also provides the theory behind the practice Setting priorities in health: a study of English primary care trusts Suzanne Robinson and others, 2011

Healthcare Management Walshe, Kieran, Smith, Judith, 2011-09-01 This provides a comprehensive research based introduction to healthcare management The book takes an international perspective and draws links between the theory and practice of healthcare management and how best practice might be achieved within healthcare systems Institutional and Financial Incentives for Social Insurance Claude d'Aspremont, Victor A. Ginsburgh, Henri R. Sneessens, Frans Spinnewyn, 2011-06-28 Institutional and Financial Incentives for Social Insurance provides both an empirical and a theoretical account of the main difficulties presently threatening social insurance systems in most industrialized countries It analyzes the remedies that have been discussed and sometimes introduced and addresses many questions still left largely unresolved Are newly implemented or proposed reforms providing the correct incentives to all participants in the system Is the quality of service improving and if not what can be done How should the budgetary problems be solved considering both intra generational and inter generational redistributive policies The volume describes a number of studies of social security systems in various countries and assesses the effect of various policies including welfare or unemployment benefits training and other active labour market policies the provision of pension and competition and budget devolution in health care It applies empirical tests to individual preferences concerning unemployment compensation and it analyzes nonfunded and funded social security systems the transition from one system to the other and the willingness to pay for pensions Health Policy and Politics Alison Hann, 2016-04-22 What is the relationship between politics and health policy in the UK How are the interests of the medical profession civil society and the state weighed and balanced in the making of health policy Health Policy and Politics offers a sophisticated critical analysis of policy making in the National Health Service The team of contributors comprises established academics who have been actively involved in both research and policy making in this field They examine the macro level of policy making at governmental level and then consider professional institutional relationships and struggles and interpersonal decision making and power relations within small organizations and departments Unique in the variety of perspectives and topics covered the volume will be required reading for those teaching and studying on a range of courses in health social care and public policy and for health professionals within the NHS

Commissioning for Health and Well-Being Jon Glasby, 2012-01-18 Commissioning is now a key task for health and social care and yet policy aspirations often outstrip the infrastructure needed to support commissioners as they take difficult decisions about future services and to make commissioning a career of choice for future leaders While commissioning was important under New Labour it seems set to be even more fundamental now as commissioners think about future services in an era of austerity Against this background this is the first comprehensive text on a key area of management practice exploring what commissioning is where it has come from and where it might be taking us With a wide range of leading contributors from fields including health care social care local government the book takes students practitioners and managers through key stages of the commissioning cycle as well as addressing cross cutting themes such as the economics of commissioning user involvement and commissioning in an era of personalisation It is essential reading for everyone involved in the planning and delivery of health and social care for social policy students health and social care practitioners managers and policy makers alike

Shaping Health Policy Mark Exworthy, 2012 This collection written by leading health policy researchers examines the role that case studies play in British health policy covering key health policy literatures in the policy process analytical frameworks and seminal moments of the NHS

Making Health Policy, 2016-08-29 What shapes health policy Current thinking dictates that scientific evidence should be the basis for policy making in healthcare but is this a new approach and how has it developed Making Health Policy shows how networks in science and the media have established a dialogue for policy making since 1945 Surprisingly many of the networks influencing health policy are not political ones central to public discussion Instead scientific networks have shaped policies on public health based upon findings of chronic disease epidemiology For policies on illicit drugs the clinical experience of a small group of psychiatrists held sway And ironically in an ever cost conscious world high technology areas such as renal dialysis saw economic considerations diminish as time passed Health pressure groups entered the equation and the last half of the twentieth century witnessed the rise of the media as the defining agency in the science policy relationship Making Health Policy is the first historical study to explore the unspoken links between science and recent health policy

Who Cares? Gareth Mallon, 2018-04-19 First Published in 2018 CRC Press is an imprint of Taylor Francis an Informa company This book looks behind the headlines and explains in a simple straightforward way what has happened to our NHS and what future waits in store

Integrated Water Resources Management in Water-scarce Regions Stefan Liehr, Johanna Kramm, Alexander Jokisch, Katharina Müller, 2018-03-15 The research project CuveWaters developed and implemented adapted technologies and accompanying measures to support the national process towards an Integrated Water Resources Management IWRM The aim is to give people in the Cuvelai Etosha Basin reliable access to clean water over the long term thus enhancing their livelihood and health and to create job opportunities IWRM relies on solutions that use various sources types and qualities of water for different purposes CuveWaters implemented pilot plants for rain and floodwater harvesting groundwater desalination as well as facilities for sanitation and water reuse Technical components of the project were framed by societal and scientific components Integrated Water Resources Management in Water scarce Regions provides a comprehensive view on the complexity and interconnectedness of findings and conclusions regarding the principle strategic approach within the CuveWaters project s concept The book aims to present the work of technical social and natural scientists but also of media professionals It gives thematically focussed details on the three technology based solutions which go beyond mere technical considerations and embed this into the overarching process towards IWRM in Namibia Finally it critically addresses lessons learnt and limits of projects in the context of research for implementation This book is of great value to experts professionals and also students and academics in the areas of water management technology development and implementation and transdisciplinary science

Pharmaceutical Ethics Sam Salek, Andrew Edgar, 2003-04-04 Pharmaceutical Ethics is an important text which aims to provide the ethical guidelines much needed by the pharmaceutical industry By focusing on many of the central issues such as the ethical aspects of clinical trials informed consent physician or patient choice and pharmaceutical advertising this text will provide very good coverage of an area which perhaps still lacks coherent instruction Covers ethical issues involved in the testing and use of pharmaceuticals on human beings Investigates issues such as whether choice of drug should lie with the physician or the patient Looks at a wide variety of subjects connected with pharmaceutical ethics Focuses specifically on the issues surrounding the pharmaceutical industry not medicine in general Fulfils an important need in the Pharmaceutical Industry

Unmet Need in Psychiatry Gavin Andrews, Scott Henderson, 2000-01-06 This book considers ways to resolve the imbalance between the demand and supply of mental health services Treatment services in most countries reach only a minority of people identified as suffering from a mental disorder Few countries can provide adequate health services for all the mentally ill yet none has developed a rational system to decide who should be treated The questions are clear Could we develop a staged treatment process to reach all in need If not how do we decide who to treat What should the criteria be for deployment of scarce treatment resources How do we determine such criteria What are the ethical implications of applying such criteria In this pioneering work an international team of eminent psychiatrists epidemiologists health administrators

economists and health planners examine these questions The result will inform and encourage all concerned with the equitable provision of mental health care The New Politics of the NHS, Seventh Edition Rudolf Klein, 2019-05-20 The New Politics of the NHS has become established over 30 years as the key overview of the NHS its processes and paths of influence The seventh edition remains a clear easy to read guide to often complex debates It encompasses both the background of the evolution of the NHS since its foundation and a completely up to date picture of its present NICE Paul Atkinson, Sally Sheard, 2025-03-31 It may seem as if the National Institute of Health and Care Excellence NICE has always been part of the UK's health and social care landscape But this fascinating book charts the evolution of NICE from its origins 25 years ago as well as how this development illustrates many of the key themes effecting health care today In a period of rapid medical and technological advance NICE has been both a gatekeeper to ensure that health care resources are spent where they are needed most and a promoter of patient access to the best new technologies Through a detailed history the authors show how NICE's remit grew from health care to public health to social care advancing the use of evidence based policy making and health economics as it did so Playing a key role in ethical debates which often made the news NICE also realigned the relationship between patients politicians and the pharmaceutical industry Written by two of the leading scholars in the field this fascinating history also situates NICE in an international context where it is often seen as a model to follow It will be key reading for students and researchers in the fields of health and social care and health policy as well as professionals and interested general readers The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
