Managing Special Education:

Managing Special and Inclusive Education Stephen Rayner, 2007-09-18 This book is about putting the theory of effective management and leadership into practice in the constantly changing context of meeting the complex needs of children and young people. It is an excellent resource for those who work in or who aspire to work in children's services, education or multidisciplinary settings at managerial or leadership level. British Journal of Special Education. This book is a guide to special and inclusive education and provides a comprehensive overview of this complex field. The author examines context, policy and practice and shows how to successfully navigate the managerial challenges involved while contributing to the way forward through leadership in a diverse field. The author considers the present inclusion imperative with its implications for strategic leadership planning and provision. He presents an inclusive style of leadership for an integrative management of individual differences in education as well as a critical review of managing inclusive learning and teaching in school contexts. Written for aspiring and practising school leaders, this book is essential for those with responsibility for inclusion: school leaders in special schools, SENCOs, SEN advisors and students on SEN management CPD or NPQH courses.

Managing Special Educational Needs Suanne Gibson, Sonia Blandford, 2005-04-18 This is a most worthwhile book which contributes significantly to the general body of knowledge on managing pupils with special education needs. The book includes a lot of information that SENCOs, inclusion managers and members of school leadership teams should find useful. SENCO Update. The strongest point about this book is that it gives a good overview of the history of special educational needs policy in this country, including recent development on inclusion. TES Extra Special Needs. It is a very practical account and should be a handbook for any newly appointed SENCO, while for experienced SENCOs and organisations where inclusion is not an issue, this book is a reminder of good practice. Special. Written from a practitioner's perspective, this book shows schools how to effectively implement and manage an inclusive school environment. Drawing from their experience in a range of schools, the authors highlight the problems encountered by professionals in both primary and secondary school settings and offer practical solutions and advice. The book offers guidance on the role of the SENCO as a teacher and manager, government policy and legislation, self-evaluation, good practice and monitoring, how to relate SEN to school targets and development plans. Primary and secondary school teachers, headteachers, student teachers, SENCOs, LEA Advisers and professionals involved in the management of Special Educational Needs in schools will find the practical support offered in this book invaluable.
