Anthony, 1981 Managing for Success Morgen Witzel, 2015-04-23 The damage that incompetent managers do is incalculable Every year they wipe tens of billions off the value of companies around the world But the routinely incompetent behaviour that leads to failure is often covered up incompetent managers are paid off and the causes of failure are swept under the carpet Yet most of these failures could have been avoided if only we knew how to spot the signs of incompetence in advance and take steps to prevent it happening Prevention is always better and cheaper than cure Morgen Witzel tackles the problem of incompetence in the round by exploring the political cultural psychological and personal factors that lead to incompetency at every level of business Arrogance excessive reliance on formal plans and metrics lack of professional pride and poor and misguided business education and training are among the problems that drag businesses down Using international case studies from Ford Motor Company Royal Ahold and Lehman Brothers practical solutions are provided for avoiding incompetence by changing the culture within organizations and the ways in which managers are trained and developed to truly manage for success and minimise failure Managing People for the First Time Julie Lewthwaite, 2006 Absolutely everybody in all types of organizations business professional governmental academic has to make the critical leap to managing people for the first time There are countless books on managing people but very little written from the perspective of the novice someone faced with the daunting task of changing from following instructions to giving them First published by Pitman the book instantly caught on and was widely adopted in businesses and in particular the public sector It has now been fully updated and revise to reflect recent changes theory and practice Managing the Incompetent Teacher Edwin M. Bridges, 1990 Featuring the same practical guidelines for ridding schools of incompetent teachers as the 1984 edition this new edition incorporates substantially revised material on three topics criteria and information sources for evaluating teaching effectiveness remediation procedures and grounds for dismissal The book presents an eight step systematic organizational approach to resolving several interrelated problems 1 the legal barriers to dismissing tenured teachers for classroom incompetence 2 the technical problems of evaluating teacher effectiveness and 3 the human obstacles chiefly supervisors unwillingness to discharge teacher evaluation remediation and dismissal responsibilities The eight steps are 1 establishing teaching excellence as a high district priority 2 adopting and publishing reasonable teacher evaluation criteria 3 adopting sound procedures for determining whether teachers satisfy these criteria 4 providing unsatisfactory teachers with remediation and a reasonable time to improve 5 ensuring that appraisers have the requisite competencies 6 providing appraisers with necessary resources 7 holding appraisers accountable for evaluating and dealing with incompetent teachers and 8 providing incompetent teachers with a fair hearing prior to making the dismissal decision The final chapter recommends strategies for creating environmental conditions conducive to success A commitment to ongoing leadership is essential An appendix contains the District Evaluation Practices Inventory designed to be used in conjunction with this handbook 143 references MLH
