Managing Money and Discord in the UN Ronny Patz, Klaus H. Goetz, 2019-03-21 How do international organizations in the United Nations system put together their budgets What is the role of complex principals most notably member states and the complex agents in the bureaucracies of international organizations in budgeting processes And what does a focus on budgeting tell us about the changing nature of the system of international organizations This book provides answers to these questions through a detailed examination of budgeting in the UN system The analysis draws on both quantitative and qualitative observations for a total of 22 UN system organizations and detailed case studies for the United Nations ILO UNESCO and WHO The findings demonstrate the importance of three key organizational outcomes proceduralization routinization and budgetary segmentation as international organizations grapple with managing discord over priorities as a result of complex principal agent constellations Contrary to a common view of international bureaucracies as pathological organizations core budget routines are mostly successfully maintained However principal constellations become more complex notably through the rise of voluntary contributions and non state donors budgetary segmentation advances in some cases even leading to the setting up of new international organizations and budgeting and resource mobilization become ever more intertwined As a consequence the capacity of international bureaucracies to fulfil their budgeting responsibilities is stretched to the limits and beyond
