Managing Public Services Innovation Walker, Richard M., Jeanes, Emma L., 2001-04-18 Innovation is promoted to improve performance and increase the quality of services provided by public service organisations Managing public services innovation provides the first in depth exploration of innovation and the management of innovation in the housing association sector Drawing on longitudinal case studies and data sets including the Housing Corporation s Innovation and Good Practice database Managing public services innovation indicates that housing associations have innovative capacity and classifies innovation in the sect identifies the innovative housing association and its key characteristics explores the way innovation has been managed in housing associations making recommendations for best practice develops techniques to develop evidence based policy in the housing association sect discusses the implications of innovating in regulated public service industries Managing public services innovation is essential reading for housing industry and public management professionals policy makers and academics in housing business and public management departments Public Service Improvement Rachel E. Ashworth, George A. Boyne, Tom Entwistle, 2010-04-29 The performance of the public services from education and policing to health and recycling is a matter of concern in many countries Issues of public service efficiency cost and effectiveness have moved to the forefront of political debate This book applies the latest thinking from Management and Organization Studies to the performance of public organizations in order to evaluate the merits of different mechanisms for driving improvement in the public sector Research in Management and Organization Studies on the private sector has identified a number of drivers of improved performance including innovation organizational culture leadership and strategic planning Many of these private sector characteristics have emerged within public sector organisations in recent years However public managers face additional pressures whether from regulators constrained resources or political interference This book takes each of these drivers in turn and assesses whether they lead to improvement in public services Written for students and researchers of Public Management this book will also be of interest to public managers and consultants Alternative Dispute Resolution of Shareholder Disputes in Hong Kong Ida Kwan Lun Mak, 2019-12-19 The landscape of shareholder dispute resolution in Hong Kong has changed vastly since the launch of the Civil Justice Reform in 2009 Key initiatives the voluntary court connected scheme and reform of the statutory unfair prejudice provisions were employed to promote the greater use of alternative dispute resolution ADR in shareholder disputes While the Hong Kong government and judiciary introduced such schemes to prove the legitimacy of extra judicial over court based litigation processes their success is still uncertain In this book socio legal theory and sociological institutionalism are used to develop a theoretical framework for analyzing the key stages of institutionalization The author analyzes how procedural innovations could acquire legitimacy through different types of legal and non legal inducement mechanisms within the institutionalization process Recommendations on codifying and innovating ADR policy in Hong Kong shareholder disputes are also made with comparison to similar policies in the United Kingdom South Africa and New Zealand The New Managerialism and Public Service Professions I. Kirkpatrick,S. Ackroyd,R. Walker,2004-11-23 The New Managerialism and Public Service Professionals is a fresh and insightful analysis of the changes that have taken place in the UK public sector over the past twenty years Unlike many other recent accounts it is not assumed that these policy goals were always implemented or that new approaches to the management of services are necessarily effective Drawing on an extensive review of major published research it considers developments in three areas the National Health Service social services and housing This analysis reveals marked differences in the way the professions responded to change and draws attention to some significant costs associated with restructuring

The Third Sector in Europe Stephen P. Osborne,2008-03-10 The role of the Third Sector within European society is an extremely topical subject as both governments and the EU continue to consider the role these organizations can play in providing essential public services This book presents contemporary research into this emerging area exploring the contribution of this important sector to European soci

Housing ,2003 New Public Governance, the Third Sector, and Co-Production Victor Pestoff,Taco Brandsen,Bram Verschuere,2013-06-19 In recent years public management research in a variety of disciplines has paid increasing attention to the role of citizens and the third sector in the provision of public services Several of these efforts have employed the concept of co production to better understand and explain this trend This book aims to go further by systematizing the growing body of academic papers and reports that focus on various aspects of co production and its potential contribution to new public governance It has an interdisciplinary focus that makes a unique contribution to the body of knowledge in this field at the cross roads of a number of disciplines including business administration policy studies political science public management sociology third sector studies etc The unique presentation of them together in this volume both allows for comparing and contrasting these different perspectives and for potential theoretical collaboration and development More particularly this volume addresses the following concerns What is the nature of co production and what challenges does it face How can we conceptualize the concept of co production How does co production works in practice How does co production unfold in reality What can be the effects of co production And more specific firstly how can co production contribute to service quality and service management in public services and secondly what is the input of co production on growing citizen involvement and development of participative democracy

Managing Educational Tourism Christopher P. Cooper,2003-01-09 Increasingly tourists are seeking learning and educational holidays This interest has led to the provision of tourism product with some form of learning or education as an integral component including cultural heritage tourism and ecotourism The growth of offshore education and lifelong learning has stimulated cross border movement for language learning school excursions and university student travel Reflecting this growth in educational tourism types the author outlines the main forms of educational tourism their demand and supply characteristics their impacts and the management issues associated with them taking a holistic systems based perspective The book argues that without adequate research and appropriate management of educational forms of tourism the potential regional development impacts and personal learning benefits will not be maximised The book highlights the need for collaboration and networking between both the tourism and education industries to adequately manage the issues surrounding the growth in educational tourism      Public Administration Review Leonard Dupee White,2001 Includes section Reviews of books and documents      Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004
