not what it pleases others to see What other words than these of douard Manet seemingly so different from the sentiments of Monet or Renoir could best define the Impressionist movement Without a doubt this singularity was explained when shortly before his death Claude Monet wrote I remain sorry to have been the cause of the name given to a group the majority of which did not have anything Impressionist In this work Nathalia Brodskaya examines the contradictions of this late 19th century movement through the paradox of a group who while forming a coherent ensemble favoured the affirmation of artistic individuals Between academic art and the birth of modern non figurative painting the road to recognition was long Analysing the founding elements of the movement the author follows through the works of each of the artists how the demand for individuality gave rise to modern painting Manet's Silence and the Poetics of Bouquets James Henry Rubin, Édouard Manet, 1994 Rubin also examines Manet's relationship to three of the leading critics of his day Baudelaire Zola and Mallarmé giving special attention to Mallarmé's appreciation and eventual use in his own poetry of the paradox between immersion and externality in Manet's oeuvre Finally the book uses the image of the bouquet to exemplify Manet's creative poetics through an exploration of his still life Revisiting Renoir, Manet and Degas Lyutsiya Staub, 2019-12-16 This work analyses the relationship between visual art and contemporary art fiction by addressing the problem of the ekphrastic representation and re-interpretation of an Impressionist figure painting through its composition selected details of the painting and allusion to specific techniques used in the process of creating the masterpiece based on the examples of the following novels Luncheon of the Boating Party LOTBP by Susan Vreeland 2007 Mademoiselle Victorine MV by Debra Finerman 2007 With Violets WV by Elizabeth Robards 2008 Dancing for Degas DFD by Kathryn Wagner 2010 and The Painted Girls TPG by Cathy Marie Buchanan 2013 Feminisms/Museums/Surveys Hilary Robinson, Lara Perry, 2025-04-21 The first anthology of feminist art exhibition essays and museum publications providing an exciting and valuable overview of recent developments in feminist curation Feminisms Museums Surveys Exhibition Curating 2005 2022 brings together works from exhibition catalogs and museum publications to provide a comprehensive and timely view of the modern approach to feminist curating Offering insights into how curators from around the world engage with different feminisms and select and exhibit feminist art this one of a kind anthology exemplifies the diversity of feminist thinking and curatorial approaches in the contemporary art museum This important volume comprises articles and essays drawn from publications which accompanied major curatorial projects from different regions around the globe and each essay offers a unique critical interpretation of feminist art Organized chronologically the book presents the essays the majority in print for the first time since their initial publications and some for the first time in English with the dates and venues of the exhibition and a brief introduction by the editors All the artists in the exhibitions and the curators involved are indexed in the supplementary material Making key examples of feminist curating easily accessible to a wider audience of scholars and students this unique anthology Offers a transnational perspective on feminist curating featuring exhibitions from across Europe Asia Australia Africa and the Americas Highlights the diverse ways in which curators have attempted to bring feminist theory into the museum exhibition format Illustrates how feminist ideas have evolved in diverse ways in the international community of museum professionals Includes an index of artists and curators whose work is represented in the volume Offering deep insights into how curators have approached the documentation and representation of art informed by feminist politics and thinking Feminisms Museums Surveys Exhibition Curating 2005 2022 is an ideal resource for courses in feminism and art curation LGBTQ art art and politics museum studies art history cultural studies feminist and gender studies and related courses across fine arts and visual arts programs Performing the Body/Performing the Text Amelia Jones, Andrew Stephenson Nfa, Andrew

Stephenson, 2005-08-12 This book explores the new performativity in art theory and practice examining ways of rethinking interpretive processes in visual culture Since the 1960s visual art practices from body art to minimalism have taken contemporary art outside the museum and gallery by embracing theatricality and performance and exploding the boundaries set by traditional art criticism The contributors argue that interpretation needs to be recognised as much more dynamic and contingent Offering its own performance script and embracing both canonical fine artists such as Manet De Kooning and Jasper Johns and performance artists such as Vito Acconci and Gunter Brus this book offers radical re readings of art works and points confidently towards new models for understanding art
