Manette Salomon Introuvables

Barbara Wright

Manette Salomon Introuvables:

Japan, France, and East-West Aesthetics Jan Hokenson, 2004 Japan France is the first comprehensive history of the idea of Japan in France as tracked through close readings of canonical French writers and thinkers from the 1860s to the present The focus is literary and intellectual the context cultural The discovery of Japanese woodblock prints in Paris following the opening of Japan to the West in 1854 was a startling aesthetic encounter that played a crucial role in the Impressionists and Post Impressionists invention of Modernism French writers also experimented with Japanese aesthetics in their own work in ways that similarly thread into the foundations of literary Modernism Japonisme the practice of adapting Japanese aesthetics to creative work in the West became a sustained French tradition in texts by such writers as Zola and Proust through Barthes and Bonnefoy Each generation discovered new Japanese arts and genres commented on the work of their predecessors in this vein and broke still more ground in East West aesthetics to innovate in the forms of Western literature and thought To read literary history in this way unsettles Eurocentric assumptions about many of the French writers who are commonly considered the

Eugène Fromentin Barbara Wright, 2000 This the first biography in English of Eugène Fromentin seeks to follow on earlier publications focusing on the literary works the visual art and the correspondence of the nineteenth century French painter novelist traveller and art critic It gives an overview of the complex relationship between word and image in his writing and in his painting In particular Fromentin's correspondence emerges as the power house of his creative imagination the addressee frequently prefiguring the viewer or the reader of the finished work of art in a blend of inter disciplinary or inter textual analogies which sometimes reveal a surprising generative evolution from letters to literature and beyond
