families who raised their children in the midst of the city's hustle and bustle. But as the decades passed the neighborhood faced increasing pressure from modernization and urban renewal. The construction of the World Trade Center in the 1960s and 1970s marked the beginning of the end for this vibrant community. The neighborhood was razed to make way for the towering skyscrapers that now dominate the area and the residents were forced to disperse to other parts of the city. Today only memories remain of the Financial District's Lost Neighborhood. But its legacy lives on in the stories of its former residents in the historical landmarks that still stand and in the hearts of those who cherish the memory of a time when community and diversity thrived in the heart of Manhattan. This book is a tribute to the lost neighborhood and its enduring spirit. Through a combination of historical research, personal anecdotes and evocative imagery we bring this forgotten community back to life offering a glimpse into a world that has vanished but will never be forgotten. neighborhood was named for the Murray family and their contributions to the American Revolution many of New York's most illustrious residents have made Murray Hill their home. The mansions of J.P. Morgan Jr and William Waldorf Astor stood along its streets. Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt lived here as newlyweds as did Admiral Farragut, Commodore Perry and Sinclair Lewis along with Andy Warhol's famous Factory. Not only homes but also many quintessential New York landmarks are located in this historic district: visit the original Tiffany Company building, the Civic Club, the American Academy of Dramatic Arts and a once famous B.
