Manhattan's Public Spaces Ana Morcillo Pallarés,2021-11-29 Manhattan's Public Spaces Production Revitalization Commodification analyzes a series of architectural works and their contribution to New York's public space over the past few decades By exploring a mix of urban mechanisms supportive frameworks legal systems and planning guidelines for the transformation of the city's collective realm the text frames Manhattan as a controversial landscape of interests and concerns to authorities communities and very importantly developers The production revitalization and commodification of Manhattan's public spaces as a phenomenon and as a subject of study also highlights the vicissitudes of the reconciliation of the many different agents which are part of the process The challenge of the book does not only lie in the analysis of good design but more importantly in how to understand the functional mechanisms for the current trends in the production of space for public use A complex framework of actors governance and market monopolies which invites the reader to participate in the debate of how these interventions contribute or not to an inclusive environment anchored in the existing built fabric Manhattan's Public Spaces invites reflection on the revitalization of the city's shared space from all dimensions Beautifully illustrated in black and white with over 50 images this book will be of interest to scholars and students in architecture planning and urban design

The Art Museum as Educator Council on Museums and Education in the Visual Arts, Barbara Y. Newsom, Adele Z. Silver, 1978 The New Religious Intolerance Martha C. Nussbaum, 2012-04-24 What impulse prompted some newspapers to attribute the murder of 77 Norwegians to Islamic extremists until it became evident that a right wing Norwegian terrorist was the perpetrator Why did Switzerland a country of four minarets vote to ban those structures How did a proposed Muslim cultural center in lower Manhattan ignite a fevered political debate across the United States In The New Religious Intolerance Martha C Nussbaum surveys such developments and identifies the fear behind these reactions Drawing inspiration from philosophy history and literature she suggests a route past this limiting response and toward a more equitable imaginative and free society Fear Nussbaum writes is more narcissistic than other emotions Legitimate anxieties become distorted and displaced driving laws and policies biased against those different from us Overcoming intolerance requires consistent application of universal principles of respect for conscience Just as important it requires greater understanding Nussbaum challenges us to embrace freedom of religious observance for all extending to others what we demand for ourselves She encourages us to expand our capacity for empathetic imagination by cultivating our curiosity seeking friendship across religious lines and establishing a consistent ethic of decency and civility With this greater understanding and respect Nussbaum argues we can rise above the politics of fear and toward a more open and inclusive future Permanent WTC PATH Terminal ,2007 New York Magazine ,1982-01-25 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Construction Delays at the Social Security Building in Jamaica, NY United States.
