Manhood A Journey From Childhood Into The Fierce Order Of Virility:

Manhood Michel Leiris, 1992-06-15 Not only one of the frankest of autobiographies but also a brilliantly written book Leiris Manhood mingles memories philosophic reflections sexual revelation meditations on bullfighting and the life long progress of self discovery Washington Post Book World Leiris writes to appall and thereby to receive from his readers the gift of a strong emotion the emotion needed to defend himself against the indignation and disgust he expects to arouse in his readers Susan Sontag New York Review of Books

Affect and Realism in Contemporary Brazilian Fiction Karl Erik Schollhammer, 2020-12-15 This book is about contemporary Brazilian fiction from the past two decades and concerned with the possibilities of literary intervention in the reality of the historical moment Thus an understanding of the actual role of literature is strategic in the definition of the contemporary and the book shows an optimism among current writers and artists with respect to the aesthetic ethical and political role of literature and art in the twentieth century In contemporary Brazilian prose two simultaneous ambitions are often reconciled The commitment to individual or social reality is a challenge that is assumed without thereby necessarily accepting and following the molds of the traditional search for national or cultural identities This foundation is one of the constants of contemporary prose without thereby eliminating the continuous existence of a formal experimentalism that is the clearest heir of the modernist project

Dance in the Cemetery William W. Stein, 1997 This is a biographical study of Jose Carlos Mariategui one of Latin America's greatest literary figures which is organized around the Lima scandal of 1917 At the time he was a young journalist of 23 an autodidact intellectual with an insurrectionary character The scandal erupted when he led a small group to the General Cemetery where a dancer gave her interpretation of Chopin's Funeral March Although the participants wished to have an artistic experience the reaction of the Lima elite was negative the performance was viewed in terms of lewdness and desecration the participants were arrested placed in prison their case was forwarded for criminal prosecution and the daily newspapers made the most out of the incident This study focuses on the scandal in the context of Peruvian society in 1917 It examines the roots of Mariategui's rebellion by exploring his manner of dealing with lameness and physical mutilation the desertion of his family by his father and Mariategui's search for a father figure his humble Andean roots on his mother's side and his ambivalence half yearning half hostility toward his father's elite social sector Throughout the work Mariategui's writings are quoted as illustrations and supplements to points made in the text The object is to answer the questions Why a dance Why a cemetery And why a dance in a cemetery by looking at patterns of repetition in Mariategui's life The study becomes a psychobiography as well as a literary one

Male Confessions Björn Krondorfer, 2009-12-03 Male Confessions examines how men open their intimate lives and thoughts to the public through confessional writing This book examines writings by St Augustine a Jewish ghetto policeman an imprisoned Nazi perpetrator and a gay American theologian that reflect sincere attempts at introspective and retrospective self investigation often triggered by some wounding or rupture and followed by a transformative experience

Krondorfer takes seriously the vulnerability exposed in male self disclosure while offering a critique of the religious and gendered rhetoric employed in such discourse The religious imagination he argues allows men to talk about their intimate flawed and sinful selves without having to condemn themselves or to fear self erasure Herein lies the greatest promise of these confessions by baring their souls to judgment these writers may also transcend their self imprisonment     Staging the Third Reich Anson Rabinbach,2020-07-08 A widely celebrated intellectual historian of twentieth century Europe Anson Rabinbach is one of the most important scholars of National Socialism working over the last forty years This volume collects for the first time his pathbreaking work on Nazi culture antifascism and the after effects of Nazism on postwar German and European culture Historically detailed and theoretically sophisticated his essays span the aesthetics of production messianic and popular claims the ethos that Nazism demanded of its adherents the brilliant and sometimes successful efforts of antifascist intellectuals to counter Hitler s rise the most significant concepts to emerge out of the 1930s and 1940s for understanding European authoritarianism the major controversies around Nazism that took place after the regime s demise the philosophical claims of postwar philosophers sociologists and psychoanalysts from Theodor Adorno to Hannah Arendt and from Alexander Kluge to Klaus Theweleit and the role of Auschwitz in European history     Ethics and Trauma in Contemporary British Fiction Susana Onega,Jean-Michel Ganteau,2011 Preliminary material Editors Ethics and Trauma in Contemporary British Fiction INTRODUCTION JEAN MICHEL GANTEAU and SUSANA ONEGA READING TRAUMA IN PAT BARKER S REGENERATION TRILOGY LENA STEVEKER THE ETHICAL CLOCK OF TRAUMA IN EVA FIGES WINTER JOURNEY SILVIA PELLICER ORT N NOBODY S MEAT REVISITING RAPE AND SEXUAL TRAUMA THROUGH ANGELA CARTER CHARLEY BAKER A NEW ALGEBRA THE POETICS AND ETHICS OF TRAUMA IN J G BALLARD S THE ATROCITY EXHIBITION JAKOB WINNBERG TRAUMA AS THE NEGATION OF AUTONOMY MICHAEL MOORCOCK S MOTHER LONDON JEAN MICHEL GANTEAU WHERE MADNESS LIES HOLOCAUST REPRESENTATION AND THE ETHICS OF FORM IN MARTIN AMIS TIME S ARROW MAR A JES S MART NEZ ALFARO WORLDWAR II FICTION AND THE ETHICS OF TRAUMA GERD BAYER A TERRIBLE BEAUTY ETHICS AESTHETICS AND THE TRAUMA OF GAYNESS IN ALAN HOLLINGHURST S THE LINE OF BEAUTY JOS M YEBRA THE ETERNAL LOOP OF SELF TORTURE ETHICS AND TRAUMA IN IAN MCEWAN S ATONEMENT GEORGES LETISSIER CONJUNCTURES OF UNEASINESS TRAUMA IN FAY WELDON S THE HEART OF THE COUNTRY AND IN IAN MCEWAN S ON CHESIL BEACH ANGELA LOCATELLI REPRESENTING THE CHILD SOLDIER TRAUMA POSTCOLONIALISM AND ETHICS IN DELIA JARRETT MACAULEY SMOSES CITIZEN AND ME ANNE WHITEHEAD THE TRAUMA PARADIGM AND THE ETHICS OF AFFECT IN JEANETTE WINTERSON S THE STONE GODS SUSANA ONEGA NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS Editors Ethics and Trauma in Contemporary British Fiction INDEX Editors Ethics and Trauma in Contemporary British Fiction     Making Jazz French Jeffrey H. Practical Aesthetics Bernd Herzogenrath, 2020-10-15 This collection brings together artists and theoreticians to provide the first anthology of a new field Practical Aesthetics A work of art already contains its own criticism a knowledge of its own which need not be conceptual or propositional Yet today there are many approaches to different forms of art that work on the brink between science and art sensible cognition and proposition aesthetic knowledge and rational knowledge while thinking with art or the artistic material rather than about it This volume presents ways of thinking with different forms of art film sound dance literature etc as well as new forms of aesthetic research and presentation such as Media Philosophy the audiovisual essay fictocriticism the audio paper and Artistic Research It reveals how writing about art can become artistic or poetic in its own right not only writing about artistic effects but producing them in the first place This takes art not as an object of external analysis but as a subject with a knowledge in its own right creating a co composing conceptual interference pattern between theory and practice A practical aesthetics thus understood can be described as thinking with art in order to find new ways to create worlds and thus to make the world perceivable in different ways Reinventing Love Mona

Chollet, 2024-07-02 A new work by the author of In Defense of Witches that seeks to redefine heterosexual relationships and give women back their voice As feminist principles have taken wider hold in society and basic ideas about equality for women can seem a given many women still struggle in one of the most important areas of life love Whether it's finding a partner seeking a commitment from one or struggling in a relationship that is unfulfilling or even potentially abusive women still find that deeply engrained notions of gender and behavior can be obstacles to a healthy loving relationship In her new book acclaimed French feminist Mona Chollet tackles some of these long held and pervasive ideas that remain stumbling blocks for many women in heterosexual relationships Drawing from popular culture politics and literature Reinventing Love provides a provocative accessible look at how heterosexual relationships can improve and evolve under a feminist lens

Some of These Days James Donald, 2015 With portraits of actors dancers architects poets directors and musicians Some of These Days highlights how the so called New Negro Movement of the 1920s reverberated far beyond Harlem to cities such as London Paris Berlin and Vienna to ignite the global renaissance of modernist culture Muhammad Iqbal Javed Majeed, 2020-11-29 Bringing together Islamic studies a postcolonial literary perspective and a focus on the interaction between aesthetics and politics this book analyses Iqbal's Islamism through his poetry It argues that his notion of an Islamist selfhood was expressed in his verse through the interplay between poetic tradition and creative innovation It also considers how Iqbal expressed an Islamist geopolitical imagination in his work and examines his exploration of the relationship between the modern West and a reconstructed Islam For the first time Iqbal's personal letters have been drawn upon to provide an insight into his inner conflicts as articulated in his poetry Concentrating on the complexity of his work in its own right the book eschews the standard appropriation of Iqbal into any one political agenda be it Indian nationalism Muslim separatism or Iranian Islamic republicanism With its analytical and in depth reading of Iqbal's verse and prose this book opens a fresh perspective on Islam and postcolonialism It will be a fascinating study for general readers and readers with interests in the intellectual and political history of modern South Asia colonialism and postcolonialism Islamic studies and modern South Asian literature especially Urdu and Persian poetry      Autobiography, Travel and Postnational Identity Javed Majeed,2007-01-18 This book examines concepts of travel in the autobiographies of leading Indian nationalists in order to show how nationalism is grounded in notions of individual selfhood and how the writing of autobiography fused with the genre of the travelogue played a key role in formulating the complex tie between interiority and nationality in South Asia

Crystals Out of Chaos Lesley Marx,1997 In this new study of the novels of John Hawkes author Lesley Marx has brought to light insights from the three novels Hawkes has published in the last ten years as well as from his other works According to Marx all three of these new novels continue to attest to the fertility of Hawkes s imagination and the fine crafting of his prose But at least two of the new works Adventures in the Alaskan Skin Trade and Sweet William A Memoir of Old Horse also reveal an expansive and transformative vision that celebrates the shifting and fluid possibilities of authority writing storytelling and gender      Remote David Shields,2003-10-30 In this truly one of a kind book the author narrator a representative in extremis of contemporary American obsession with beauty celebrity transmitted image finds himself suspended fascinated in the remoteness of our wall to wall mediascape It is a remoteness that both perplexes and enthralls him Through dazzling sleight of hand in which the public becomes private and the private becomes public the entire book clicking from confession to family album photograph to family chronicle to sexual fantasy to pseudo scholarly footnote to reportage to personal essay to stand up comedy to cultural criticism to literary criticism to film criticism to prose poem to litany to outtake becomes both an anatomy of American culture and a searing self portrait David Shields reads his own life reads our life as if it were an allegory about remoteness and finds persuasive hilarious heartbreaking evidence wherever he goes Winner of the PEN Revson Award      Fictocritical Strategies Gerrit Haas,2017-02-15 Gerrit Haas re theorises the peculiar textual conduct of ficto critical writing which inextricably intersects fictional with critical discourses as well as aesthetics with poetics and ethics The slash here signals the conjunction between a self reflexive ficto critical insight and a wider discursive ficto critical motivation In its refined form this twofold trope shifts perspective from the prevalent generic between onto the meta generic level of our textual practices Ultimately the ficto critical is thus qualified as an unheard of interventionist aesthetic of deconstruction directed at the ramifications of our textual cultures      Autobiography and

Questions of Gender Shirley Neuman,2015-08-14 Originally published in 1991 Addressing the ways in which the ideology of gender and its social construction determine autobiographical self representations the essays here consider several women s works in the light of the social and historical conditions which enabled their production Some examine diaries as a feminine form and ask about the ways in which thematic content such as childbirth can or cannot be represented in diaries and public discourse at different historical junctures Others show the pressures of gender roles and how they have led to new genres in which self representation is often a refraction of the representation of others With the tools of gender theory the representation of hermaphroditism masculinity and male bodies is analysed and the ways in which gender intersects with racial sexual and class ideologies is also looked at in seeing autobiography as a form of agency in self construction

Altarity Mark C. Taylor, 1987-09-15 Readers familiar with Mark C Taylor's previous writing will immediately recognize Altarity as a remarkable synthetic project This work combines the analytic depth and detail of Taylor's earlier studies of Kierkegaard and Hegel with the philosophical and theological scope of his highly acclaimed Erring In Altarity Taylor develops a genealogy of otherness and difference that is based on the principle of creative juxtaposition Rather than relying on a historical or chronological survey of crucial moments in modern philosophical thinking he explores the complex question of difference through the strategies of contrast resonance and design Taylor brings together the work of thinkers as diverse as Hegel Heidegger Merleau Ponty Lacan Bataille Kristeva Levinas Blanchot Derrida and Kierkegaard to fashion a broad intellectual scheme Situated in an interdisciplinary discourse Altarity signifies a harnessing of continental and American habits of intellectual thought and illustrates the singularity that emerges from such a configuration As such the book functions as a mirror of our intellectual moment and offers the academy a rigorous way of acknowledging the limitations of its own interpretive practices

A Noble Madness James Delbourgo, 2025-08-12 In this fascinating witty and provocative book Delbourgo's collectors range from emperors to scientists from shopaholics to taxonomists from bibliomaniacs to serial killers Give it to the collector in your life and watch the sparks fly Cathy Gere author of The Tomb of Agamemnon A captivating history of obsessive collectors from ancient looters and idolaters to fin de siècle decadents Freudian psychos and hoarders Collectors are often praised for their taste in art or contributions to science and considered great public benefactors But collectors have also been seen as dangerous obsessives who love objects too much Why From looters and idolaters to fin de siècle decadents and Freudian psychos A Noble Madness is a captivating history of obsessive collectors from ancient times to today From Roman emperors lusting after statues to modern day hoarders award winning author James Delbourgo tells the extraordinary story of fanatical collectors throughout history He explains how the idea first emerged that when we look at someone's collection we see a portrait of their soul complex intriguing yet possibly insane What Delbourgo calls the Romantic collecting self has always lurked on the dark side of humanity But this dark side has a silver lining Because obsessive collectors are driven by passion not profit they have been countercultural heroes in the modern imagination defying respectability and taste in the name of truth to self A grand portrait gallery of collectors in all their decadent glory A Noble Madness recounts the saga of the human urge to accumulate from Caligula to Marie Antoinette Balzac to Freud Norman Bates to Andy Warhol Collectors love of objects may be mad even dangerous But we want to believe their love's a noble madness because by expressing that love they are themselves

Failing Desire Karmen MacKendrick, 2017-12-04 Draws on theology and queer theory to argue for the power of humiliating pleasures in a culture oriented very strongly to denying any enjoyment that is not about success Luckily for human diversity we are perfectly capable of desiring impossible things Failing Desire explores a particular set of these impossibilities those connected to humiliation These include the failure of autonomy in submission of inward privacy in confession of visual modesty in exhibition and of dignity in playing various roles Historically those who find pleasure in these failures range from ancient Cynics through early Christian monks to those now drawn by queer or perverse eroticism As Judith Halberstam pointed out in The Queer Art of Failure failure can actually be a mode of resistance to demands for what a culture defines as success Karmen MacKendrick draws on this interest in queer refusals To value desire or seek humiliation undercuts any striving for success but it draws our attention particularly to the failures of knowledge as a form of power whether that knowledge is of one body or of a population How can we understand will that seeks not to govern itself psychology that constructs inwardness by telling all blushing shame that delights in exposure or dignity that refuses its lofty position Failing Desire suggests that the power of these desires and pleasures comes out of the very realization that this question can never quite be answered In Failing Desire Karmen MacKendrick offers her readers something akin to a sequel to Counterpleasures Pursuing the negative affects of failure humiliation and shame across authors that inform much of her work Bataille Blanchot Augustine Foucault Kristeva and Laure MacKendrick effortlessly and breathlessly provides us with provocative new insights about the limitations of language the pleasures of submission and obedience and the wily unruliness of the flesh For her devotees the evocative prose and suggestive analysis will seem familiar without being stale or repetitious for novices her style and acumen will seem assured and electrifying MacKendrick breathes new life into authors texts and topics that have been at the forefront of critical engagements with embodiment desire and affect for the past several decades Kent L Brintnall author of Ecce Homo The Male Body in Pain as Redemptive Figure
