Manicomio Poems:

Manicomio Ivan Argüelles, 1984 Contemporary Hispanic Poets: Cultural Production in the Global, Digital Age John Burns, 2015-03-15 Poets writing in Spanish by the end of the twentieth century had to contend with globalization as a backdrop for their literary production They could embrace it ignore it or potentially re imagine the role of the poet altogether This book examines some of the efforts of Spanish language poets to cope with the globalizing cultural economy of the late twentieth century This study looks at the similarities and differences in both text and context of poets some major and some minor writing in Chile Mexico the Mexican American community and Spain These poets write in a variety of styles from highly experimental approaches to poetry to more traditional methods of writing Included in this study are Chileans Raúl Zurita and Cecilia Vicuña Spaniards Leopoldo Marañón and Luis García Montero Mexicans Silvia Tomasa Rivera and Guillermo Gómez-Peña and Mexican American Juan Felipe Herrera Some of them embrace and are even embraced by media both old and new whereas others eschew it Some continue their work in the vein of national traditions while others become difficult to situate within any one single national tradition Exploring the varieties of strategies these writers employ this book makes it clear that Spanish language poets have not been exempt from the process of globalization Individually these poets have been studied to varying degrees Globalization has been studied extensively from a variety of disciplinary approaches particularly in the context of the Latin American region and Spain However it is a relative rarity to see poets being studied as they are in this work in terms of their relationship to globalization Taken as a sample or snapshot of writing tendencies in Latin American and Spanish poetry of the late twentieth century this book studies them as part of a greater circuit of cultural production by establishing their literary as well as extra literary genealogies and connections It situates these poets in terms of their writing itself as well as in terms of their literary traditions their methods of contending with neoliberal economic models and global information flows from the television and Internet Although many literary critics attempt to study the connections and relationships between poetry and the world beyond the page few monographs go about it the way this one does It takes a transatlantic approach to contemporary Spanish language poetry focusing on poets from Spain and the American continent emphasizing their connections commonalities and differences across increasingly porous borders in the age of information The relationship between text and context is explored with a cultural studies approach more often associated with media studies than with literary studies Literature is not treated as a privileged object of isolated study but rather as a system of ideas and images that is deeply interwoven with other forms of human expression that have arisen in the last decades of the twentieth century The result is a suggestive analysis of the figure of the poet in the broader globalized marketplace of cultural goods and ideas Contemporary Hispanic Poets Cultural Production in the Global Digital Age is an important book for library collections in Spanish Latin American and Iberian Studies Chicano Studies Literatura Chicana, 1998 American Studies International, 1990 Handbook of Latin American Literature (Routledge Revivals)

David Foster, 2015-06-11 First published in 1987 this second edition in 1992 the Handbook of Latin American Literature offers readers the opportunity to explore this literary history in the English Language and constitutes an ideological approach to Latin American Literature It provides both concise information concerning particular authors works and literary traditions of Latin America as well as comprehensive material about the various national literatures of the area This book will therefore be of interest to Hispanic scholars as well as more general readers and non Hispanists

The Routledge Handbook of International Beat Literature A. Robert Lee, 2018-05-16 Beat literature Have not the great canonical names long grown familiar Ginsberg Kerouac Burroughs Likewise the frontline texts still controversial in some quarters assume their place in modern American literary history On the Road serves as Homeric journey epic Howl amounts to Beat anthem confessional outcry against materialism and war Naked Lunch with its dark satiric laughter envisions a dystopian world of power and word virus But if these are all essentially America centered Beat has also had quite other literary exhalations and which invite far more than mere reception study These are voices from across the Americas of Canada and Mexico the Anglophone world of England Scotland or Australia the Europe of France or Italy and from the Mediterranean of Greece and the Maghreb and from Scandinavia and Russia together with the Asia of Japan and China This anthology of essays maps relevant other kinds of Beat voice names texts The scope is hemispheric Atlantic and Pacific West and East It gives recognition to the Beat inscribed in languages other than English and reflective of different cultural histories Likewise the majority of contributors come from origins or affiliations beyond the US whether in a different English or languages spanning Spanish Danish Turkish Greek or Chinese The aim is to recognize an enlarged Beat literary map its creative internationalism

Poemas de Escombros Y Cenizas Consuelo Hernández,2005 En Poemas de escombros y cenizas Consuelo Hernández su autora nos provee de una palabra urgida y urgente incontenible Se abalanza esta voz por el espacio injusto que descubre en todo lugar y hecha grito recorre en busca de hacerse oír en donde ya sabemos nadie oye No le parece tarea perdida sino necesaria Y va pues a atravesarse en los carriles de lo que vislumbra es nuestra historia un sartal de catstrofes que no nos deja en pie a parar estos versos en alto a hacer visible la alerta con la ilusión de que alguien se detendría Sin duda un libro con estas características es un libro necesario y urgente Elvira Hernández Poeta chilena In Poems of Debris and Ashes Consuelo Hernández the author provides us with critical urgent and irrepressible words This voice balances on the injustice found everywhere and becomes a shout that in search of being heard travels to a place where we know no one hears it Its effort is not wasted but necessary And so it goes down the road of what seems to be our history a string of catastrophes that knock us down to put these verses on high making the warning visible with the hope that someone will pause Without a doubt a book with these characteristics is a much needed and urgent book Elvira Hernández Chilean poet Contemporary Uruguayan

Poetry Ronald Haladyna,2010 The editor of this anthology addresses this literary omission by identifying seventeen Uruguayans deserving of recognition Jorge Arbeleche Nancy Bacelo Washington Benavides Mario Benedetti Amanda Berenguer Luis Bravo Selva Casal Rafael Courtoisie Marosa Di Giorgio Enrique Fierro Alfredo Fressia Saul Ibargoyen Circe Maia Jorge Meretta Eduardo Milan Alvaro Miranda and Salvador Puig The selection of these poets is based on extensive research and personal taste but also because they have a recognized sustained record of published books of poetry especially during the 1990s they have been favorably acknowledged for their work by peers and critics through reviews and interviews in local news media they have received recognition through national or international literary awards and for the most part they are still active as poets in the new millennium Furthermore they comprise a representative cross section of diverse generations perspectives themes and poetics extant in today's poetry in Uruguay Each of the poets is represented by a selection of original poems in Spanish to demonstrate the diversity of their expression and English translations to render them meaningful for both English and Spanish reading publics The extensive bibliographies of primary and secondary sources of each poet is unprecedented hopefully it will serve as a guide to encourage research on this neglected area of Spanish American literature There is currently no canon of contemporary Uruguayan poets but this project is intended to provide a meaningful step toward opening a discussion of such a canon BOOK JACKET The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Latino Literature Nicolás Kanellos,2008-08-30 From East L A to the barrios of New York City and the Cuban neighborhoods of Miami Latino literature or literature written by Hispanic peoples of the United States is the written word of North America's vibrant Latino communities. Emerging from the fusion of Spanish North American and African cultures, it has always been part of the American mosaic. Written for students and general readers, this encyclopedia surveys the vast landscape of Latino literature from the colonial era to the present. Aiming to be as broad and inclusive as possible, the encyclopedia covers all of native North American Latino literature as well as that created by authors originating in virtually every country of Spanish America and Spain. Included are more than 700 alphabetically arranged entries written by roughly 60 expert contributors. While most of the entries are on writers such as Julia Alvarez, Sandra Cisneros, Lorna Dee Cervantes, Oscar Hijuelos, and Piri Thomas, others cover genres, ethnic and national literatures, movements, historical topics and events, themes, concepts, associations, and organizations, and publishers and magazines. Special attention is given to the cultural, political, social, and historical contexts in which Latino literature has developed. Entries cite works for further reading, and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography. The encyclopedia gives special attention to the social, cultural, historical, and political contexts of Latino literature, thus making it an ideal tool to help students use literature to learn about history and cultural diversity.

Nelson, Thomas Walton, 2019-10-31 Make It True meets Medusario brings together poets from divergent languages, cultures, and aesthetics to create a conversation, a fertile meeting place for ongoing ideas about poetry that might trouble the all-too-easy academic labels and the subsequent segregation those aesthetic and political divisions cause within the larger global poetry community. From the book's introduction by Matthew Trease: This collaboration spawned by two previous anthologies includes the Spanish language poets of the Neobarroco school as organized by Jos Kozler, a Cuban Neobarroco poet, together with poets from the Cascadia bioregion arranged by Paul E. Nelson, founder of the Seattle Poetics Lab (SPLAB) and Thomas Walton, editor in chief of Pageboy Magazine. Seattle, WA. NEOBARROCO Medusario poets include Carmen Berenguer, Marosa Di Giorgio,
