Manifestoes Of Surrealism:

Manifestoes of Surrealism André Breton, 1969 Presents the essential ideas of the founder of French surrealism

Manifestoes of Surrealism André Breton, 1972 Manifestoes of Surrealism André Breton, 1969 Manifestoes of surrealism André Breton, 1969 Manifestoes of Surrealism. Translated from the French by Richard Seaver and Helen R. Lane. (Second Printing.) André Robert BRETON, 1974 Mad Muses and the Early Surrealists Justin Vicari, 2011-11-08 The early surrealists attempted to create art directly from the unconscious but the resulting art often reveals the stamp of its age It is generally accepted that a certain macho sensibility prevailed within the movement excluding queer sensibilities and reducing women to object status In startling new readings of Breton Bataille Cocteau Artaud Crevel and others Justin Vicari examines the intersections between surrealism and mental illness deploying an interdisciplinary approach which includes aesthetic theory radical politics and psychoanalysis Of particular interest is the representation of the ideal woman as not only sexually available but mentally ill a hysteric muse representing a kind of authenticity lost in modern life Sacred Surrealism, Dissidence and International Avant-Garde Prose Vivienne Brough-Evans, 2016-05-05 Vivienne Brough Evans proposes a compelling new way of reevaluating aspects of international surrealism by means of the category of divin fou and consequently deploys theories of sacred ecstasy as developed by the Coll ge de Sociologie 1937 39 as a critical tool in shedding new light on the literary oeuvre of non French writers who worked both within and against a surrealist framework The minor surrealist genre of prose literature is considered herein rather than surrealism s mainstay poetry with the intention of fracturing preconceptions regarding the medium of surrealist expression The aim is to explore whether International surrealism can begin to be more fully explained by an occluded strain of dissident surrealist thought that searches outside the self through the affects of ekstasis Bretonian surrealism is widely discussed in the field of surrealist studies and there is a need to consider what is left out of surrealist practice when analysed through this Bretonian lens The Coll ge de Sociologie and Georges Bataille s theories provide a model of such elements of dissident surrealism which is used to analyse surrealist or surrealist influenced prose by Alejo Carpentier Leonora Carrington and Gellu Naum respectively representing postcolonial feminist and Balkan locutions The Coll ge and Bataille s dissident surrealism diverges significantly from the concerns and approach towards the subject explored by surrealism Using the concept of ekstasis to organise Bataille s theoretical ideas of excess and inner experience and the Coll ge s thoughts on the sacred it is possible to propose a new way of reading types of International surrealist literature many of which do not come to the forefront of the surrealist literary oeuvre Surrealism, Occultism and Politics Tessel M. Bauduin, Victoria Ferentinou, Daniel Zamani, 2017-10-16 This volume examines the relationship between occultism and Surrealism specifically exploring the reception and appropriation of occult thought motifs tropes and techniques by Surrealist artists and writers in Europe and the Americas from the 1920s through the 1960s Its central focus is the specific use of occultism as a site of political and social resistance ideological contestation subversion and revolution Additional focus is placed on the ways occultism was implicated in Surrealist discourses on identity gender sexuality utopianism and radicalism No Pasaran Shane Burley,2022-10-25 A collection written by a who's who of antifascist researchers and theorists in the US including Tal Lavin Culture Warlords Kim Kelly Fight Like Hell Hilary Moore No Fascist USA and Daryle Lamont Jenkins One People's Project No Pasaran is an anthology of antifascist writing that takes up the fight against white supremacy and the far right from multiple angles From the history of antifascism to today's movement to identify deplatform and confront the right and the ways an insurgent fascism is growing within capitalist democracies a myriad of voices come together to shape the new face of antifascism in a moment of social and political flux

The Theater and Cinema of Buster Keaton Robert Knopf,2018-06-05 Famous for their stunts gags and images Buster Keaton's silent films have enticed everyone from Hollywood movie fans to the surrealists such as Dalí and Buñuel Here Robert Knopf offers an unprecedented look at the wide ranging appeal of Keaton's genius considering his vaudeville roots and his ability to integrate this aesthetic into the techniques of classical Hollywood cinema in the 1920s When young Buster was being hurled about the stage by his comically irate father in the family's vaudeville act The Three Keatons he was perfecting his acrobatic skills timing visual humor and trademark stone face As Knopf demonstrates such theatrics would serve Keaton well as a film director and star By isolating elements of vaudeville within works that have previously been considered classical Knopf reevaluates Keaton's films and how they function The book combines vivid visual descriptions and illustrations that enable us to see Keaton at work staging his memorable images and gags such as a three story wall collapsing on him Steamboat Bill Jr 1928 and an avalanche of boulders chasing him down a mountainside Seven Chances 1925 Knopf explains how Keaton's stunts and gags served as fanciful departures from his films storylines and how they nonetheless reinforced a strange sense of reality that of a machine like world with a mind of its own In comparison to Chaplin and Lloyd Keaton made more elaborate use of natural locations The scene in The Navigator for example where Buster brandishes a swordfish to fend off another swordfish derives much of its power from actually being shot under water Such hyper literalism was but one element of Keaton's films that inspired the surrealists Exploring Keaton's influence on Salvador Dalí Luis Buñuel Federico García Lorca and Robert Desnos Knopf suggests that Keaton's achievement extends beyond Hollywood into the avant garde The book concludes with an examination of Keaton's late career performances in Gerald Potterton's The Railrodder and Samuel Beckett's Film and locates his legacy in the work of Jackie Chan Blue Man Group and Bill Irwin

André Breton André Breton,2003-10 This is a kind of essence of Breton variously translated by some of our finest writers each of whom highlights different facets of Breton's complex work Mark Polizzotti's useful introduction provides context and a brief analysis of the artist and his times Diane di Prima author of Recollections of My Life as a Woman Mark Polizzotti who is a poet a translator and the author of the definitive biography of André Breton has chosen stellar translations of Breton's dazzling poetry and placed it in its lively context This shapely introduction to the life and work of Andr Breton is smart concise and exciting I cannot imagine a better one Ron Padgett poet and translator of The Complete Poems of Blaise Cendrars The Poets for the Millennium Series generally and Andr Breton s Selected Works specifically offers a workable image of an author and the work and the conjuncture all at once What comes across is a vivid presentation of Andre Breton not just as an art czar a manifesto merchant but a serious haunted inventive and strangely profound poet of the imagination who invented or archeologized new ways of dreaming but insisted on bearing witness with them in the actual world Polizzotti does justice as I think no other writer has to the double burden of Breton s work Robert Kelly A superbly chosen selection of Breton s poetry and prose translated in every case with an elegant intelligence and preceded by an unusually thorough introduction showing quite exactly how the poet s life informed each epoch of his work It proves again the remarkable un boringness of Breton and how important he is now to our own poetry and to us Mary Ann Caws author of The Surrealist Look An Erotics of Encounter and editor of The Surrealist Painters and Poets In the Embrace of the Swan Rüdiger Görner,Angus Nicholls,2010-08-31 Myths determine the way cultures understand themselves The papers in this volume examine culturally specific myths in Britain and the German speaking world and compare approaches to the theory of myth together with the ways in which mythological formations operate in literature aesthetics and politics with a focus on the period around 1800 They enquire into the consequences of myth oriented discourses for the way in which these two cultures understand each other and in this way make a significant contribution to a more profound approach to intercultural research Architecture, Festival and the City Jemma Browne,Christian Frost,Ray Lucas,2018-10-26 Historically the urban festival served as an occasion for affirming shared convictions and identities in the life of the city Whether religious or civic in nature these events provided tangible expressions of social cultural political and religious cohesion often reaffirming a particular shared ethos within diverse urban landscapes Architecture has long served as a key aspect of this process exhibiting continuity in the flux of these representations through the parading of elaborate ceremonial floats the construction of temporary buildings the dressing of existing urban space the alternative occupations of the everyday and the construction of new buildings and spaces which then become a part of the background fabric of the city This book examines how festivals can be used as a lens to examine the relationship between city and citizen and questions whether this is fixed through time or has been transformed as a response to changes in the modern urban condition Architecture Festival and the City looks at the multilayered nature of a diverse selection of festivals and the way they incorporate both orderly authoritative and disorderly subversive components The aim is to reveal how the civic nature of urban space is utilised through festival to represent ideas of belonging and identity Recent political and social gatherings also raise questions about the relationship of these events to ritual and whether traditional practices can serve as meaningful references in the twenty first century Modernism Michael Levenson,2011-01-01 In this wide ranging and original account of Modernism Michael Levenson draws on more than twenty years of research and a career long fascination with the movement its participants and the period during which it thrived Seeking a more subtle understanding of the relations between the period's texts and contexts he provides not only an excellent survey but also a significant reassessment of Modernism itself Spanning many decades illuminating individual achievements and locating them within the intersecting histories of experiment Symbolism to Surrealism Naturalism to Expressionism Futurism to Dadaism the book places the transformations of culture alongside the agitations of modernity war revolution feminism psychoanalysis In this perspective Modernism must be understood more broadly than simply in terms of its provocative works experimental forms and singular careers Rather as Levenson demonstrates Modernism should be viewed as the emergence of an adversary culture of the New that depended on audiences as well as artists enemies as well as supporters Book Description The Science Fiction of Poetics and the Avant-Garde Imagination Michael Golston, 2023-11-19 How the tropes of science fiction infuse and inform avant garde poetics and many other kindred arts This insightful playful monograph from Golston does exactly what it advertises modeling poetics based on how poetry and some parallel artistic endeavors have filtered through a century plus of science fiction This is not a book about science fiction in and of itself but it is a book about the resonances of science fiction tropes and ideas in poetic language The germ of Golston's project is a throwaway line in Robert Smithson's Entropy and the New Monuments about how cinema supplanted nature as inspiration for many of his fellow artists The movies give a ritual pattern to the lives of many artists and this induces a kind of low budget mysticism which keeps them in a perpetual trance Golston charts how the demotic appeal of sci fi much like that of the B movie cross pollinated into poetry and other branches of the avant garde Golston creates what he calls a regular Rube Goldberg machine of a critical apparatus drawing on Walter Benjamin Roman Jakobson and Gilles Deleuze He starts by acknowledging that per the important work of Darko Suvin to situate science fiction critically the genre is premised on cognitive estrangement But he is not interested in the specific nuts and bolts of science fiction as it exists but rather how science fiction has created a model not only for other poets but also for musicians and landscape artists Golston's critical lens moves around quite a bit but he begins with familiar enough subjects Edgar Rice Burroughs Mina Loy William S Burroughs From there he moves into more alien terrain Ed Dorn's long poem Gunslinger the discombobulated work of Clark Coolidge Sun Ra Ornette Coleman and Jimi Hendrix all come under consideration The result of Golston's restless rich scholarship is the first substantial monograph on science fiction and avant garde poetics using Russian Formalism Frankfurt School dialectics and Deleuzian theory to show how the avant garde inherently follows the parameters of sci fi in both theme and form Far Calls Daniel Heller-Roazen, 2025-09-16 An inquiry into the theories and practices of overhearing When words are not heard but overheard when phrases are perceived in bits and pieces and when speakers failing to do as they intend state things that they never meant to say the saying in its unsteady relation to understanding becomes an event That event has long been studied by a disparate company of interpreters prophets priests and rabbis poets and philosophers linguists psychiatrists and psychoanalysts novelists and filmmakers All have suggested that in the contingencies of discourse there are precious indications to be gleaned for which special techniques are required In Far Calls Daniel Heller Roazen reconstructs such arts of detection interweaving ancient medieval and modern examples From the rituals of the ancient Greeks Jews and Romans to Freud and Lacan from Augustine s catching of a salvific scrap of speech to the inspiration that Breton and Yeats Proust and Joyce drew from profane cries and transmissions Far Calls explores the powers of sonorous coincidence and the varieties of reading that it incites

Embattled Avant-Gardes Walter L. Adamson, 2009-08-17 This sweeping work at once a panoramic overview and an ambitious critical reinterpretation of European modernism provides a bold new perspective on a movement that defined the cultural landscape of the early twentieth century Walter L Adamson embarks on a lucid wide ranging exploration of the avant garde practices through which the modernist generations after 1900 resisted the rise of commodity culture as a threat to authentic cultural expression Taking biographical approaches to numerous avant garde leaders Adamson charts the rise and fall of modernist aspirations in movements and individuals as diverse as Ruskin Marinetti Kandinsky Bauhaus Purism and the art critic Herbert Read In conclusion Adamson rises to the defense of the modernists suggesting that their ideas are relevant to current efforts to think through what it might mean to create a vibrant aesthetically satisfying form of cultural democracy

Visualizing Theory Lucien Taylor, 2014-02-04 Visualizing Theory is a lavishly illustrated collection of provocative essays occasional pieces and dialogues that first appeared in Visual Anthropology Review between 1990 and 1994 It contains contributions from anthropologists from cultural literary and film critics and from image makers themselves Reclaiming visual anthropology as a space for the critical representation of visual culture from the naive realist and exoticist inclinations that have beleaguered practitioners efforts to date Visualizing Theory is a major intervention into this growing field

Downcast Eyes Martin Jay, 1993-10-01 Long considered the noblest of the senses vision has increasingly come under critical scrutiny by a wide range of thinkers who question its dominance in Western culture These critics of vision especially prominent in twentieth century France have challenged its allegedly superior capacity to provide access to the world They have also criticized its supposed complicity with political and social oppression through the promulgation of spectacle and surveillance Martin Jay turns to this discourse surrounding vision and explores its often contradictory implications in the work of such influential figures as Jean Paul Sartre Maurice Merleau Ponty Michel Foucault Jacques Lacan Louis Althusser Guy Debord Luce Irigaray Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida Jay begins with a discussion of the theory of vision from Plato to Descartes then considers its role in the French Enlightenment before turning to its status in the culture of modernity From consideration of French Impressionism to analysis of Georges Bataille and the Surrealists Roland Barthes s writings on photography and the film theory of Christian Metz Jay provides lucid and fair minded accounts of thinkers and ideas widely known for their difficulty His book examines the myriad links between the interrogation of vision and the pervasive antihumanist antimodernist and counter enlightenment tenor of much recent French thought Refusing however to defend the dominant visual order he calls instead for a plurality of scopic regimes Certain to generate controversy and discussion throughout the humanities and social sciences Downcast Eyes will consolidate Jay s reputation as one of today s premier cultural and intellectual historians

Rethinking the Political Simonetta Falasca-Zamponi, 2011-12-19 Rethinking the Political demonstrates that the Coll ge de Sociologie s quest to create a new place for the sacred in modern collective life ostensibly entailed avoiding the theorization of both aesthetics and politics While the Coll ge condemned manipulation by totalitarian regimes its understanding of community also led to a rejection of democratic and communist forms of political organization leaving the group open to accusations of flirting with fascism Acknowledging these political ambiguities the author goes beyond a narrow ideological reading to reveal the Coll ge s important contribution to our thinking about the relationships between community formation politics aesthetics and the sacred in the modern world She expands her historical account of the members thought including their relationship to Surrealism beyond the group s dissolution and shows how the work of Claude Lefort extends but also resolves many of the Coll ge s key theoretical insights A fascinating study of some of the twentieth century s most daring thinkers Rethinking the Political offers crucial insights into the contradictions at play in modern notions of community that still resonate today
