Manna For The Mandelstams For The Mandelas:

Manna Hélène Cixous, 2000-12-01 A prose poem on two married couples involved in the revolutionary struggle One is Nelson and Willie Mandella of South Africa the other Russian poet Osip Mandelstam and his wife Nadezhda In drawing parallels the author stresses the contribution of the wives Literature, theology and feminism Heather Walton, 2019-01-04 This book offers an authoritative overview of the broad and complex terrain of feminist theorising concerning the relationship between literature and theology as it has developed over the past several decades It provides the first comprehensive evaluation of the significance of women s literature in the development of feminist theology and offers a critique of the variety of reading practices currently employed by religious feminists As well as illuminating current reading strategies the work argues that it is now appropriate for feminists to develop new ways of reading the divine in women s writing Drawing upon the pioneering work of Helene Cixous Julia Kristeva and Luce Irigaray the work sets out a new framework for feminist religious reading that is both creative and challenging and which will be of interest both to scholars and students in this area Through its artful and compelling feminist reconsiderations the book makes a refreshing and significant contribution to the general field known as literature and theology Placenta Wit: Mothers Stories, Rituals and Research Nane Jordan, 2017-07-01 Placenta Wit is an interdisciplinary anthology of stories rituals and research that explores mothers contemporary and traditional uses of the human afterbirth Authors inspire provoke and highlight diverse understandings of the placenta and its role in mothers creative life giving Through medicalization of childbirth many North American mothers do not have access to their babies placentas nor would many think to Placentas are often considered to be medical property and or viewed as the refuse of birth Yet there is now greater understanding of motherand baby centred birth care in which careful treatment of the placenta and cord can play an integral role In reclaiming birth at home and in clinical settings mothers are choosing to keep their placentas There is a revival and survival of family and community rituals with the placenta and umbilical cord including burying art making and consuming for therapeutic use Claiming and honouring the placenta may play a vital role in understanding the sacredness of birth and the gift of life that mothers bring Placenta Wit gathers narrative accounts scholarly essays creative pieces and artwork from this emergence of placental interests and uses This collection includes understandings from birth cultures and communities such as home birth hospital birth midwifery doula Indigenous and feminist perspectives Once lost now found Placenta Wit authors capably handle and care for this wise organ at the roots of motherhood and life itself Hélène Cixous: Live Theory Ian Blyth, 2004-06-08 Hlne Cixous live theory provides a clear and informative introduction to one of the most important and influential European writers working today The book opens with an overview of the key features of Cixous theory of criture fminine feminine writing The various manifestations of criture fminine are then explored in chapters on Cixous fictional and theatrical writing her philosophical essays and her intensely personal approach to literary criticism The book concludes with a new lively and wide ranging interview with Hélène Cixous in which she discusses her influences and inspirations and her thoughts on the nature of writing and the need for an ethical relationship with the world. Also offering a survey of the many English translations of Cixous' work, this book is an indispensable introduction to Cixous' work for students of literature, philosophy, cultural and gender studies.

The Hélène Cixous Reader Susan Sellers, 2003-08-01 This is the first truly representative collection of texts by Hélène Cixous. The substantial pieces range broadly across her entire oeuvre and include essays, works of fiction, lectures and drama. Arranged helpfully in chronological order, the extracts span twenty years of intellectual thought and demonstrate clearly the development of one of the most creative and brilliant minds of the twentieth century. With a foreword by Jacques Derrida, a preface by Cixous herself and first class editorial material by Susan Sellers, The Hélène Cixous Reader is destined to become a key text of feminist writing. "The Political is - (and the) Poetical" Catherine A. F. MacGillivray, 1993 Placeless

Topographies Bernhard Greiner, 2015-02-06 Die Beiträge des Bandes konzentrieren die Auseinandersetzung mit Exilliteratur auf die jüdische Erfahrung von Exil, was dem Thema eine 2500-jährige historische Tiefe und eine entsprechende Vielfalt an literarischen Strategien mit der Exilerfahrung umzugehen zuspielt. Zugleich öffnet diese Perspektive Exilliteratur auch für das Spannungsfeld Exil und Heimkehr. Die Aufsätze behandeln deutsche, französische und hebräische Exilliteratur insbesondere des 20. Jahrhunderts. Helene Cixous Susan Sellers, 2013-06-10 This book is a clear and accessible introduction to the writings of Hélène Cixous, novelist, dramatist and critic, whose work has had a major impact on feminist theory and practice. Susan Sellers, a major scholar on Cixous, provides a lucid account of Cixous's theoretical position and, in particular, her distinctive theory of femininity. She discusses the development of Cixous's literary oeuvre in the context of this theory and analyses a selection of the works in detail to illustrate the different stages in Cixous's writing career. Focusing on the key novels and plays, Sellers explores a range of issues and themes central to her work: the correlation between the death of Cixous's own father and her coming into being as a writer; the psychological process of separation and individuation and the creation of a female authorial self; the discovery of the other and the dramatization of love; the delineation and depiction of an alternative form of relationship between self and other, which would have a significance in a wider sphere than that of the merely personal. This much needed book will be welcomed by students in literature and literary theory, feminism and women's studies, English and French studies and philosophy. The Other Perspective in Gender and Culture Juliet Flower

MacCannell, 1990 From the preeminent writer of Taiwanese nativist fiction and the leading translator of Chinese literature come these poignant accounts of everyday life in rural and small town Taiwan. Huang is frequently cited as one of the most original and gifted storytellers in the Chinese language and these selections reveal his genius. In The Two Sign Painters, TV reporters ambush two young workers from the country taking a break atop a twenty-four story building. His Son's Big Doll introduces the tortured soul inside a walking advertisement and in Xiaoqi's Cap, a dissatisfied pressure cooker salesman is fascinated by a young schoolgirl. Huang's characters, generally the uneducated and disadvantaged who must cope with assaults on their traditionalism hostility from their urban brethren and of course the debilitating effects of poverty come to life in all their human uniqueness free from idealization Joyful Babel Myriam Díaz-Diocaretz, Marta Segarra, 2004

Diocaretz European Centre for Digital Communication Infonomics Maastricht and Segarra women and literature French and Francophone literature and cinema U of Barcelona bring together a collection of critical essays on translation and the writing of Cixous featuring contributions by translators of Cixous texts into various languages and cultures Thirteen essays are organized into sections on translating special discourses Cixous's notebooks and Paris seminars into a written one translation as an experience related to a dialogue with the Other to difference to the foreign and possessing an ethical dimension and practical and theoretical considerations particularly with regard to gender No subject index Annotation 2004 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com

White Woman Speaks with Forked Tongue Nicole Ward Jouve, 2022-09-12 Originally published in 1991 The style of this startlingly original appraisal of a broad range of women's writing suggests a new direction for feminist criticism combining as it does challenging intellectual debate and fresh textual analysis with fictional example and autobiographical detail to make a wholly new invention in the field In addressing the need for the critic to say I and to own judgments and statements instead of attributing these to an apparently impersonal third person the author here points up some of the shortcomings of much prevailing feminist analysis challenging the very foundations of the Anglo American feminist idea Purposely avoiding the totalising effect of much academic criticism the writer critic finds a new format and a new methodology for her insights and observations on a range of writers from Doris Lessing to Hélène Cixous Her unique analysis of the links between criticism and autobiography enable her to highlight the absurdity of attempting to write in the light of recent critical and scientific knowledge as if the self were a stable unified construct introducing instead a new creative understanding of the methods and modes of women's writing This sparkling collection presents an exciting and original new voice in literary criticism It tackles issues fundamental to literary theory feminist criticism psychoanalysis and cultural studies offering new critical insights and providing a significant and wholly original feminist contribution to these key fields

Samyukta, 2004 The Portable Cixous Hélène Cixous, 2010 Hélène Cixous is more than an influential theorist She is also a groundbreaking author and playwright Combining an idiosyncratic mix of autobiographical and fictional narrative with a host of philosophical and poetic observations Cixous's writing matches the kaleidoscopic nature of her thought offering new ways of conceptualizing sex relationships identity and the self among other topics Yet as Jacques Derrida once observed a profound misunderstanding hangs over the accomplishments of Cixous with many believing the intellectual excelled only at theoretical exploration Providing a truly liberal selection of her writings from throughout her career Marta Segarra rediscovers Cixous's acts of invention for a new generation to enjoy Divided into thematic concerns these works fully capture Cixous's genius for merging fiction theory and the experience of living They discuss dreaming in the feminine Algeria and Germany love and the other the animal Derrida and the theater They defy classification locking literature philosophy and psychoanalysis into thrilling new patterns of engagement Whether readers are familiar with Cixous or are approaching her thought for the first time all will find fresh perspectives on gender fiction drama philosophy religion and the postcolonial

A Poetics of Church Jennifer Reek, 2017-09-25 This innovative book aims to create a poetics of Church and a religious imaginary as alternatives to more institutional and conventional ways of thinking and of being Church Structured as a spiritual and literary journey the work moves from models of the institutional Catholic Church into more radical and ambiguous textual spaces which the author creates by bringing together an unorthodox group of thinkers referred to as poet companions the 16th century founder of the Society of Jesus Ignatius of Loyola the French thinkers Gaston Bachelard and Hélène Cixous the French poet Yves Bonnefoy and the English playwright Dennis Potter Inspired especially by the reading and writing practices of Cixous the author attempts to exemplify Cixous notion of critique of feminine writing that suggests new ways of seeing and relating The project's uniting of Ignatian spirituality with postmodern thinking and its concern with creating new theological literary and spiritual spaces for women both coincide and contrast with Pope Francis's pastoral and reformist tendencies which have neglected to adequately address the marginalisation of women in the Church As Francis has called for a theology of women of which there are of course many to draw from this volume will be a timely contribution with a unique interdisciplinary approach
