Redefining Latin American Historical Fiction H. Weldt-Basson,2013-06-05 Current scholarship on Latin American historical fiction has failed to take feminism and postcolonialism into account This study uses these important contemporary discourses as a starting point for a new definition of the Latin American historical novel that includes national identity magical realism historical intertextuality and symbolism La sombra del gobernador Micheline Dusseck,2014-03-25 1789 was the beginning of major changes in France and one of its most prized colony Santo Domingo The revolution changed the traditional structures of society but this turbulence brought out the greatness and the perversity of its protagonists Jos phine no exception explosive mixture of races warm hearted woman young maverick live a thousand adventures in search of personal fulfillment both in love and in the society of his time Rebel despite their status as slave accept the authority of one man Toussaint Louverture whose wake follow throughout the island and who live in the shadow of major battles powers subdue traditional prerequisite to building a new society His life is therefore a new witness a new version of what was the path taken by unrepeatable heroes that led to Haiti to freedom and independence Women and the Law Anja Louis,2005 Given the remarkable similarities between Burgos s critical analysis and recent feminist legal theory her writings are still disturbingly relevant today This study also explores the relationship between melodrama as a genre of manichean worldviews and law as a system of binary oppositions and discusses Burgos's subversion of the former as a means to criticise the latter

Jacket Influencers, activistas y los derechos de las mujeres Carmen de Burgos Seguí, 2024-09-16 The newspaper columnist Carmen de Burgos Seguí caused a sensation in 1903 when she called for a public discussion on divorce then illegal in Spain The fierce debate that ensued among Spain's leading thinkers politicians academics feminists journalists and others is collected in El divorcio en España This milestone volume ultimately contributed to Spain's legalizing divorce in the 1930s a victory for women's rights that was subsequently rolled back by the Franco dictatorship and not regained for over fifty years The opinions showcased here illuminate the uniqueness of feminism in early twentieth century Spain because ideas about marriage and the role of women in society were anchored in Catholic teachings feminist arguments focused on rights to education divorce and employment instead of on suffrage

In and Out of Africa Joanna Boampong, 2012-11-30 New areas of intellectual endeavours including postcolonial transatlantic global and cultural studies have facilitated conversations that cut across traditional academic boundaries Indeed aside from precipitating more stimulating intellectual dialogues the advent of multi disciplinarity has also enabled literary and cultural theorists critics students and teachers to connect and to integrate diverse academic disciplines and schools of thought in the pursuit of a common task Of the many areas that have benefited from this trend it is perhaps in the realm of Afro Hispanic Luso Brazilian and Latin American studies that one notices a vibrant conversation that deals with the deep historical social economic and political bonds that have connected and still connect Africa to the Hispanic and Luso Brazilian worlds As these bonds acquire profound meanings in the late 20th and early 21st centuries scholars from diverse academic backgrounds find new ways to explore these connections It is in the spirit of this endeavour that the creative artists scholars of cultural and literary theory and critics whose works are presented in this anthology attempt to examine wide ranging themes from colonization slavery imperialism religion music and literature Most of the essays in this collection address long standing issues related to identity construction linguistic legacies religious and cultural beliefs and practices Others confront questions of migration and immigration configurations of female agency and Hispanic pedagogy in Africa and elsewhere What makes this volume unique and interesting is not only the idea of exploring examining and thinking the old in new ways and the new in old ways but also advancing the conversation of the relationship between Africa and the Afro Hispanic Luso Brazilian and Latin American worlds through different intellectual and artistic prisms

(Re)collecting the Past Victoria Carpenter, 2010 This volume addresses the representation of history and collective memory in Latin American literature The book presents a variety of novel perspectives on the subject linked by the common themes of the subjectivity of time and history literature used as a political tool and the representation of marginalized groups The collection takes an original approach to viewing national histories as represented in literature by adopting a cross disciplinary position While there are other publications addressing some of the issues raised in this collection this book goes beyond literary representations of history The essays collected here examine technological political and social developments as a means of creating restructuring and in some cases potentially destroying nations
