The Economic Development of the Yemen Arab Republic (RLE Economy of Middle East) Ragaei el Mallakh, 2014-10-30 The recent economic development of the Yemen Arab Republic is in stark contrast to the centuries of isolation that had marked the country prior to the 1962 Revolution When economic planning was instituted in the 1970s the nation was confronted by the needs of reconstruction after years of conflict and of development A formidable task was faced in the need to establish basic infrastructure throughout a country with a widely dispersed population and with extremely rugged terrain In addition the economy has been characterized by the high percentage of the workforce attracted overseas as migrant workers This book provides the first comprehensive study of the economic development of this under studied nation First published in 1986

The Transformation of the Gulf David Held, Kristian Ulrichsen, 2013-03-01 This book examines the political economic and social transformation of the six member states of the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC and the ways in which these states are both shaping and being reshaped by the processes of globalisation Adopting a multidisciplinary approach the volume combines thematic chapters focusing on issues such as globalisation nationalism and identity political thinking and economic diversification and redistributive policymaking with empirical chapters studying specific aspects of reform and change the emergence of governing markets the rise of Sovereign Wealth Funds Islamic Finance the relationship between energy and sustainability trends in foreign aid donorship strategic and foreign policy formulation Contributions from experts in the field provide cutting edge snapshots of a region in flux and collectively offer a roadmap of its repositioning in the global order examining the interaction between global processes and internal dynamics of change and resistance that inject new dimensions into debates over the loci of local and global transformations and the manner in which each plays off the other Situating the Gulf States firmly within their global twenty first century context this book will hold particular appeal to theorists of globalisation as well as to scholars of comparative politics international political economy and area studies

A Macroeconomics Model and Stabilisation Policies for the OPEC Countries A. Khalik Salman, 2019-06-26 First published in 1999 this book focuses on the macroeconomics issues which directly affect OPEC countries aiming to set them in the context of the overall development effort The most extant theoretical and empirical aspects in macroeconomics are integrated smoothly with institutional issues and policy questions The analysis is illustrated through examples to show how the theories relate to the real world especially to ongoing debates on developing economies as well as debates that encompass both developing and OPEC and developed countries

Oil and Development in the Arab Gulf States Walid I. Sharif, 2023-10-12 Oil and Development in the Arab Gulf States 1985 brings together in one volume the manifold sources of information on the Arab Gulf region especially the impact of oil revenues on its economic political and social development It provides a balanced core of primary and secondary sources on various aspects of the economics of Arab oil between 1973 and 1983

Administration and Development in the Arab World Jamil Jreisat, Zaki R. Ghosheh, 2016-03-22 This book first published in 1986 examines the literature on administration human resources and development in the Arab world It emphasizes contemporary societies and their internal dynamics the least known and most critical aspects of Arabic studies

Mobilizing Human Resources in the Arab World (RLE Economy of Middle East) R. Paul Shaw, 2015-05-15 R Paul Shaw has travelled widely in the Arab world obtaining data and gathering impressions first hand from national and local planners In this book he identifies population and manpower problems that are likely to become more serious and more difficult to solve if they are neglected at this early stage of Arab development He focuses on five broad areas which are directly or indirectly related to mobilizing human resources and his book will be of special interest to all those who are concerned with such issues as population migration employment inequality the emancipation of women construction and agriculture Dr Shaw proposes policy directives which are sensitive to the problems as they are seen by the Arab governments themselves and sets out practical guidelines which can be used by Arab planners and policy makers An important feature of the book with respect to current literature on Arab development is that it moves away from a preoccupation with growth related investments to a concentration on development related population manpower and employment issues By bringing together such comprehensive empirical and bibliographic information it will also be invaluable as a reference source for some twenty Arab countries First published in 1983 Arab Education in Transition Byron G. Massialas, Samir Ahmad Jarrar, 2016-03-22 The operation of schools in the Arab world is a topic about which very little is known in the West This volume first published in 1991 provides information about the Arab school and thus contributes to an understanding of what is taught by whom and under what conditions It seeks to define the interaction between traditional elements and innovative forces impinging on the Arab school as well as reviewing policies that concern the education of Arab children It is maintained that Arab schools are in a state of transition reproducing society and its norms on one hand while on the other operating as agents seeking to transform society This work examines this claim in detail providing a unique discussion about education in the Arab world Rich And Poor States In The Middle East Malcolm H. Kerr, El Sayed Yassin, Jeswald Salacuse, Ismail Serageldin, 2019-06-04 While oil wealth has enriched some Middle East Arab nations others that lack oil resources have remained poor and are looking now to their oil rich neighbors for development assistance This collection of studies on the economic social and political relationships between the haves and the have nots in the Middle East focuses on Egypt the largest state in the region and on its prospects for change based on financial assistance from other Arab countries The authors have many disagreements about the future of both rich and poor nations in the Middle East and considerable skepticism about the possibility of transforming Egypt but they do agree that the future must be projected in the framework of a new regional order in which oil wealth labor migration and liberalized national economies are fundamental realities

New Approaches to Manpower Planning and Analysis International Labour Office, 1994 This study re examines the role and relevance of manpower planning and analysis in the developing countries of Africa notably Botswana and Asia in the light of the imperatives of structural adjustment programmes and explores the information needs of economies in transition in the context of a shift to market oriented policies Topics covered include methodology the role of government and the types of labour market analysis required The book contains a suggested research agenda Oil Exporters' Economic Development in an Interdependent World Jahangir Amuzegar, 1983-04-06 Not unpredictably there is a complex energy bind as we approach the end of the twentieth century The oil importing industrial countries have anchored their industries their means of transportation their home comfort in short their whole energy dependent lifestyle largely to hydrocarbon fuels
