The Selected Works of Ambrose Bierce Ambrose

Bierce,1907-01-01 The ancient Americans were a composite people their blood was a blend of all the strains known in their time Their government while they had one being merely a loose and mutable expression of the desires and caprices of the majority that is to say of the ignorant restless and reckless gave the freest rein and play to all the primal instincts and elemental passions of the race In so far and for so long as it had any restraining force it was only the restraint of the present over the power of the past that of a new habit over an old and insistent tendency ever seeking expression in large liberties and indulgences impatient of control In the history of that unhappy people therefore we see unveiled the workings of the human will in its most lawless state without fear of authority or care of consequence Nothing could be more instructive Of the American form of government although itself the greatest of evils afflicting the victims of those that it entailed but little needs to be said here it has perished from the earth a system discredited by an unbroken record of failure in all parts of the world from the earliest historic times to its final extinction Of living students of political history not one professes to see in it anything but a mischievous creation of theorists and visionaries persons whom our gracious sovereign has deigned to brand for the world s contempt as dupes of hope purveying to sons of greed The political philosopher of to day is spared the trouble of pointing out the fallacies of republican government as the mathematician is spared that of demonstrating the absurdity of the convergence of parallel lines yet the ancient Americans not only clung to their error with a blind unquestioning faith even when groaning under its most insupportable burdens but seem to have believed it of divine origin It was thought by them to have been established by the god Washington whose worship with that of such dii minores as Gufferson Jaxon and Lincon identical probably with the Hebru Abrem runs like a shining thread through all the warp and woof of the stuff that garmented their moral nakedness Some stones very curiously inscribed in many tongues were found by the explorer Droyhors in the wilderness bordering the river Bhitt supposed by him to be the ancient Potomac as lately as the reign of Barukam IV These stones appear to be fragments of a monument or temple erected to the glory of Washington in his divine character of Founder and Preserver of republican institutions If this tutelary deity of the ancient Americans really invented representative government they were not the first by many to whom he imparted the malign secret of its inauguration and denied that of its maintenance Although many of the causes which finally in combination brought about the downfall of the great American republic were in operation from the beginning being as has been said inherent in the system it was not until the year 1995 as the ancients for some reason not now known reckoned time that the collapse of the vast formless fabric was complete In that year the defeat and massacre of the last army of law and order in the lava beds of California extinguished the final fires of enlightened patriotism and quenched in blood the monarchical revival Thenceforth armed opposition to anarchy was confined to desultory and insignificant warfare waged by small gangs of mercenaries in the service of wealthy individuals and equally feeble bands of prescripts fighting for their lives In that year too the Three Presidents were driven from their capitals

Cincinnati New Orleans and Duluth their armies dissolving by desertion and themselves meeting death at the hands of the populace The turbulent period between 1920 and 1995 with its incalculable waste of blood and treasure its dreadful conflicts of armies and more dreadful massacres by passionate mobs its kaleidoscopic changes of government and incessant effacement and redrawing of boundaries of states its interminable tale of political assassinations and proscriptions all the horrors incident to intestinal wars of a naturally lawless race had so exhausted and dispirited the surviving protagonists of legitimate government that they could make no further head against the inevitable and were glad indeed and most fortunate to accept life on any terms that they could obtain But the purpose of this sketch is not bald narration of historic fact but examination of antecedent germinal conditions not to recount calamitous events familiar to students of that faulty civilization but to trace as well as the meager record will permit the genesis and development of the causes that brought them about Historians in our time have left little undone in the matter of narration of political and military phenomena In Golpek s Decline and Fall of the American Republics in Soseby s History of Political Fallacies in Holobom s Monarchical Renasence and notably in Gunkux s immortal work The Rise Progress Failure and Extinction of The Connected States of America the fruits of research have been garnered a considerable harvest The events are set forth with such conscientiousness and particularity as to have exhausted the possibilities of narration It remains only to expound causes and point the awful moral

Collected Writings by John Nelson Darby Volume Six John Nelson Darby,2015-01-08 Volume Six contains the following The Irrationalism of Infidelity Inspiration of the Scriptures The Human Element in Inspiration

The Selected Works of Honore de Balzac Honore de Balzac, Servin one of our most distinguished artists was the first to conceive of the idea of opening a studio for young girls who wished to take lessons in painting About forty years of age a man of the purest morals entirely given up to his art he had married from inclination the dowerless daughter of a general At first the mothers of his pupils bought their daughters themselves to the studio then they were satisfied to send them alone after knowing the master's principles and the pains he took to deserve their confidence It was the artist's intention to take no pupils but young ladies belonging to rich families of good position in order to meet with no complaints as to the composition of his classes He even refused to take girls who wished to become artists for to them he would have been obliged to give certain instructions without which no talent could advance in the profession Little by little his prudence and the ability with which he initiated his pupils into his art the certainty each mother felt that her daughter was in company with none but well bred young girls and the fact of the artist's marriage gave him an excellent reputation as a teacher in society When a young girl wished to learn to draw and her mother asked advice of her friends the answer was invariably Send her to Servin's Servin became therefore for feminine art a specialty like Herbault for bonnets Leroy for gowns and Chevet for eatables It was recognized that a young woman who had taken lessons from Servin was capable of judging the paintings of the Musee conclusively of making a striking portrait copying an ancient master or painting a genre picture The artist thus sufficed for the educational needs of the aristocracy But in spite of these relations with the best families in Paris he was independent and patriotic and he maintained among them that easy brilliant half ironical tone and that freedom of judgment which characterize painters He had carried his scrupulous precaution into the arrangements of the locality where his pupils studied The entrance to the attic above his apartments was walled up To reach this retreat as sacred as a harem it was necessary to go up a small spiral staircase made within his own rooms The studio occupying nearly the whole attic floor under the roof presented to the eye those vast proportions which surprise inquirers when after attaining sixty feet above the ground floor they expect to find an artist squeezed into a gutter This gallery so to speak was profusely lighted from above through enormous panes of glass furnished with those green linen shades by means of which all artists arrange the light A quantity of caricatures heads drawn at a stroke either in color or with the point of a knife on walls painted in a dark gray proved that barring a difference in expression the most distinguished young girls have as much fun and folly in their minds as men A small stove with a large pipe which described a fearful zigzag before it reached the upper regions of the roof was the necessary and infallible ornament of the room A shelf ran round the walls on which were models in plaster heterogeneously placed most of them covered with gray dust Here and there above this shelf a head of Niobe hanging to a nail presented her pose of woe a Venus smiled a hand thrust itself forward like that of a pauper asking alms a few ecorches yellowed by smoke looked like limbs snatched over night from a graveyard besides these objects pictures drawings lay figures frames without paintings and paintings without frames gave to this irregular apartment that studio physiognomy which is distinguished for its singular jumble of ornament and bareness poverty and riches care and neglect The vast receptacle of an atelier where all seems small even man has something of the air of an Opera coulisse here lie ancient garments gilded armor fragments of stuffs machinery And yet there is something mysteriously grand like thought in it genius and death are there Diana and Apollo beside a skull or skeleton beauty and destruction poesy and reality colors glowing in the shadows often a whole drama motionless and silent Strange symbol of an artist s head At the moment when this history begins a brilliant July sun was illuminating the studio and two rays striking athwart it lengthwise traced diaphanous gold lines in which the dust was shimmering A dozen easels raised their sharp points like masts in a port Several young girls were animating the scene by the variety of their expressions their attitudes and the differences in their toilets The strong shadows cast by the green serge curtains arranged according to the needs of each easel produced a multitude of contrasts and the piquant effects of light and shade This group was the prettiest of all the pictures in the studio A fair young girl very simply dressed sat at some distance from her companions working bravely and seeming to be in dread of some mishap No one looked at her or spoke to her she was much the prettiest the most modest and apparently the least rich among them Two principal groups distinctly separated from each other showed the presence of two sets or cliques two minds even here in this studio where one might suppose that rank and fortune would be forgotten But however that might be these young girls sitting or standing in the midst of their color boxes playing with their brushes or preparing them handling their dazzling palettes painting laughing talking singing absolutely natural and exhibiting their real selves composed a spectacle unknown to man One of them proud haughty capricious with black hair and beautiful hands was casting the flame of her glance here and there at random another light hearted and gay a smile upon her lips with chestnut hair and delicate white hands was a typical French virgin thoughtless and without hidden thoughts living her natural real life a third was dreamy melancholy pale bending her head like a drooping flower her neighbor on the contrary tall indolent with Asiatic habits long eyes moist and black said but little and reflected glancing covertly at the head of Antinous Among them like the jocosos of a Spanish play full of wit and epigrammatic sallies another girl was watching the rest with a comprehensive glance making them laugh and tossing up her head too lively and arch not to be pretty She appeared to rule the first group of girls who were the daughters of bankers notaries and merchants all rich but aware of the imperceptible though cutting slights which another group belonging to the aristocracy put upon them The latter were led by the daughter of one of the King s ushers a little creature as silly as she was vain proud of being the daughter of a man with an office at court She was a girl who always pretended to understand the remarks of the master at the first word and seemed to do her work as a favor to him She used an eyeglass came very much dressed and always late and entreated her companions to speak low
