Mans Impossibility Gods Possibility:

Man's Impossibility - God's Possibility Kenneth E. Hagin, Kenneth W. Hagin, Jr., 1982 All Christians have possibility faith This book challenges them to exercise the God kind of faith in their lives Man's Impossibility, God's Possibility Kenneth E. Hagin (Jr.), 1978 God's Possibility to Man's Impossibility Silvestre Guerrido M. Ed, 2014-04-25 If you believe miracles are only for people with faith or for Christians only you are sadly mistaken Based on the Scriptures I intend to demystify the idea that miracles are contingent on your faith only Miracles are not necessarily contingent on your faith although faith definitely helps but in the love and character of God Himself Faith is necessary for a relationship with and to please God And without faith it is impossible to please God Heb 11 6 but not necessarily to see His goodness You ll be pleasantly surprised to find such an encouraging and uplifting message that relieves you of much miss teaching on the part of religion The book s message is quite unique and one of those things that seem so obvious once brought up but really eludes the common person until that moment You will definitely find encouragement and edification in these pages that uplift the soul through correcting this popular and widespread misconception that many churches promote I will use many Bible verses and stories that show the content is not merely something I came up with on my own My premises are based on the Scriptures out of a sincere motive to correct wrong ways of thinking as it relates to God s benevolence The Bible is the only sure and credible foundation that spiritual discussions can stand on I will also use headlines of miracles in America from recent years Miracles that happened not only to Christians but to every day people also With this information I make it very real and relevant to you the reader whether you are a devout Christian or an atheist And if you are an atheist the pages of this book will introduce you to the God that created you and to the great wonders He has preserved for you once you come to know and accept Him Why be content with a morsel when you can own the bakery Or why be content with a glass of milk when you can own the cow And by this I mean Jesus can provide the miracle you need today to live the abundant life He promised The world is so full of people and media that thousands of things happen each year without us being aware If you want to you will find modern day miracles everywhere This information will make the discussion in the book immediate and relevant So come fly with me on the wings of God Put God to the test today and see if He will not open heaven itself to you and will pour out blessings beyond your wildest imagination Man as a Place of God Renée van Riessen, 2007-08-07 This book offers an examination of Levinas s philosophy of religion in light of his ethics and anthropology It provides critical perspectives on Levinas by relating his work to that of Heidegger Ricoeur Rorty Derrida and Vattimo The focus of interpretation is the hermeneutics of kenosis the subject s ability to be open towards the other to the point where man can be seen as a place of God Morning Glory Junior M. Gonzales, 2019-10-17 Morning Glory comprises inspiring and motivational devotionals prayers and thoughts to get your day off to a spiritually enriched and triumphant start Wake up each day to fresh new commentary on the word of God which will give you a feeling of hope and an injection of spiritual strength and determination The book will take you on an exciting journey leading to a more meaningful and lasting Christian experience every single day Hope and Trust in Times of Global Despair and Mistrust Robert Petkovšek, Bojan Jalec, 2023-10-06 Hope and trust are key problems of the present world and should therefore be at the centre of interest of science and society Climate change pandemics dangerous global and social polarization people's distrust of politics and institutions social isolation and the rise of mental problems in developed countries of material prosperity are problems that we will only be able to cope with if we know how to cultivate hope and trust The authors deal with them from various aspects of the humanities philosophy theology religious studies intellectual history cognitive science psychology and psychotherapy This gives the book an interdisciplinary character Church Dogmatics Karl Barth, 2004-05-08 Described by Pope Pius XII as the most important theologian since Thomas Aquinas the Swiss pastor and theologian Karl Barth continues to be a major influence on students scholars and preachers today Barth's theology found its expression mainly through his closely reasoned fourteen part magnum opus Die Kirchliche Dogmatik Having taken over 30 years to write the Church Dogmatics is regarded as one of the most important theological works of all time and represents the pinnacle of Barth's achievement as a theologian The Evangelical Repository, 1857 Righteousness Without Works. [A Religious Tract.], 1855 Merit and Moses Andrew M. Elam, Robert C. Van Kooten, Randall A. Bergquist, 2014-07-10 What did writers in the Reformed tradition mean by suggesting that the Covenant of Works with Adam has been republished in the Mosaic Covenant Not all forms of this doctrine of republication are the same Merit and Moses is a critical evaluation of a particular version of the republication doctrine one formulated by Meredith G Kline and espoused in The Law Is Not of Faith 2009 At the heart of this discussion is the attribute of God's justice and the Reformed view of merit Has classic Augustinian theology been turned on its head Does or can God make a covenant at Sinai with fallen people by which Israel may merit temporal blessings on the basis of works Have merit and justice been redefined in the service of Kline's works merit paradigm The authors of Merit and Moses examine the positions of John Murray and Norman Shepherd with respect to the reactionary development of the Klinean republication doctrine Klinean teachings are shown to swing wide of the Reformed tradition when held up to the plumb line of the Westminster Standards which embody the Reformed consensus on covenant theology and provide a faithful summary of Scripture The Gospel magazine, and theological review. Ser. 5. Vol. 3, no. 1-July 1874, 1854 Saint Augustine's Anti-Pelagian Works Philip Schaff, 2017-10-23 Where traditional Christianity has always affirmed that sin can only be atoned by the sacrifice of Christ the theory that the human will is able to earn salvation of its own accord was the basis of Pelagian thought Augustine in this series of works fought vehemently against such ways of thinking because he wanted to make people realize that Christ is the one and only way to find true salvation Theology of Hope Jürgen Moltmann, 2021-10-08 Causing a considerable stir when it was first published in Germany in 1965 Theology of Hope represents a comprehensive statement of the importance for theology of eschatology and of an eschatological theology which emphasizes the revolutionary effect of Christian hope upon the thought institutions and conditions of life in the here and now Jürgen Moltmann understands Christian faith essentially as hope for the future of humankind and creation as this has been promised by the God of the exodus and the resurrection of the crucified Jesus God's promise is the compulsory force of history awakening hope which keeps human beings unreconciled to present experience sets them in contradistinction to prevailing natural and social powers and makes the church the source of continual new impulses towards in Moltmann's own words the realization of righteousness freedom and humanity in the light of the promised future that is to come This new expanded edition of a theological classic includes his 2020 Charles Gore lecture A Theology of Hope for the 21st Century in which he offers a powerful reflection on the nature of hope in our current times

Nature, Man and God in Medieval Islam Edwin Calverley, James Pollock, 2022-08-22 A contemporary to Thomas Aquinas in Latin Catholic Italy and with a parallel motivation to stabilize each his own civilization in its flux and storm Abd Allah Baydawi of Ilkhan Persia wrote a compact and memorable Arabic Summation of Islamic Natural and Traditional Theology With the same strokes of his pen he presented the Islamic version of the Science of Theological Statement bafflingly called Kalam while familiarly embracing Theology Baydawi's Tawali al Anwar min Matal al Anzar Rays of Dawnlight Outstreaming from Far Horizons of Logical Reasoning with Mahmud Isfahani's commentary is a formidably clear logical and mental vision of mankind's final completion as a spiritual structure in Islam Reality in nature's Possible mode in an apodictic Divine mode and in humanity's heroic Prophetic mode comprises man's Worldview and is the Theme of the Baydawi Isfahani discourse The Edifice of Man and Humanity's evanescent Evidence within it are both hugely arresting and moving The print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9789004121027

Abingdon New Testament Commentaries | Luke Robert C. Tannehill, 1996 The Abingdon New Testament Commentaries series offers compact critical commentaries on the writings of the New Testament These commentaries are written with special attention to the needs and interests of theology students but they will also be useful for students in upper level college or university settings as well as for pastors and other church leaders In addition to providing basic information about the New Testament texts and insights into their meanings these commentaries exemplify the tasks and procedures of careful critical exegesis In this volume Robert C Tannehill focuses on the significance of the Gospel of Luke in its final form for its original audience Drawing on his own extensive previous work on Luke as a literary narrative as well as on recent studies of the ancient Mediterranean social world Tannehill suggests that modern readers will find that certain features of Luke's Gospel only take on significance or deeper significance when matched with an appropriate historical and cultural context in the first century This commentary is designed to meet the needs of sophisticated nonspecialist students of the Bible The evangelist's literary genius frequently displayed in multivalent diction and imagery finds in Robert Tannehill a faithful and sensitive interpreter Social scientific criticism use of cultural anthropology and frequent correction of renderings in the New Revised Standard Version appear without undue intrusiveness This is a work well done Frederick W Danker Christ Seminary Seminex Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago

Wrestling with Angels Rowan William, 2007-10-26 Wrestling with Angels gathers writings by Rowan Williams spanning the years 1980-2000. It focuses on his engagement with a range of modern theologians and philosophers: Hegel, Wittgenstein, Barth, Bonhoeffer, Balthasar, Simone Weil, Marilyn McCord Adams, and more. Key themes explored in this volume include negative theology, postmodernity, violence, innocence, divine action, and the nature of historical development in theology. From publisher's description: Karl Barth: Introduction to Early Theology Thomas F. Torrance, 2004-11-11 A classic study of the development and influence of Barth's theology and an exploration of the period in which the Barthian revolution was shaped.

Dogmatics I Emil Brunner, 2025-04-24 One of the great twentieth-century works of theology, Emil Brunner's Dogmatics series presents a profoundly biblical systematic theology. Finding a path between Barth and Bultmann, Brunner explores key doctrines such as the doctrine of God, creation and redemption, and the doctrine of the church and of faith. These foundational texts from a leading theologian of the 20th century are crucial for scholars and students, illuminating how modern Protestant theology was formed in the last century. The first volume serves as an introduction to Brunner's view of dogmatics, setting out the nature, position, and necessity of dogmatics before exploring the many facets of the doctrine of God. In detailed, vigorous explanation, Brunner considers the nature and will of God, including his name, his holiness, his wisdom, and his glory. Thorough, insightful, and extensive, this first volume is an illuminating beginning to this series. The second volume explores the fundamental concepts of the Protestant doctrine from creation and the creator to man's position within creation, sin, and its consequences, and the saving work of Jesus. Brunner explores all of the possibilities of these fundamentals, and his detailed, thoughtful arguments are designed, as he says, to set us free to have a faith which is based on nothing save the Love of God revealed in Jesus Christ. The third and final volume focusses on the theology of the Church as a reflection of God's self-revelation through the Holy Spirit and an eternal consummation of Divine self-communication. Drawing together the understanding gleaned in the previous two volumes, Brunner addresses the nature of the church and faith to bring his systematic biblical theology into the experiences of his readers. Summulae de Dialectica Jean Buridan, Gyula Klima, 2001

This volume is the first annotated translation in any language of the entire text of the Summulae de dialectica by the Parisian master of arts John Buridan (1300-1358). One of the most influential works in the history of late medieval philosophy, the Summulae is Buridan's systematic exposition of his nominalist philosophy of logic. Buridan's doctrine spread rapidly and for some two hundred years was dominant at many European universities. His work is of increasing interest today not only to historians of medieval philosophy but also to modern philosophers, several of whom find in Buridan's ideas important clues to problems of contemporary philosophy. Gyula Klima provides a substantial introduction to Buridan's life and work and discusses his place in the history of logic. Through extensive notes, Klima assists philosopher and medievalist alike to read Buridan with understanding and insight. Those with a philosophical interest in the relations among the structures of language thought and reality will find much to ponder in the Summulae Salutations from Heaven Evangelist Debra V. Harper, 2019-02-14 Are you one who has difficulty in expressing yourself Has past hurts caused you to build up a wall of defense to protect you from feeling any future hurt pain or emotional anguish Are you numbed to any feeling at all Do you desire to release those feelings and emotions that have been bottled up for so long and have held you captive angry confused and in bondage Then this is the book for you Read how God has blessed me to communicate and release unto him my innermost thoughts and fears by writing personal letters and poetry through the most difficult times in my life Salutations from Heaven Dear Lord My Child contains healing conversations of a once broken and wounded spirit that will hopefully open your mind and heart to the delivering power of heaven's throne transforming your soul to finding God's love joy peace and forgiveness
