Jane Weaver has recovered and assembled over fifty of Hartmann's critical writings from influential though often obscure turn-of-the-century journals. These reviews and theoretical essays not only provide some of the earliest known criticism of important artists and photographers of the period but also make Hartmann's fundamental and uniquely American definition of modernism available to students of art and cultural history. A most useful adjunct to the text is a complete bibliography of Hartmann's writings on art as well as an annotated checklist of all the artists treated by Hartmann in this book. Sadakichi Hartmann 1867-1944 half German half Japanese learned the American cast of mind and heart as a beloved young disciple of the aged Walt Whitman. Reflecting the poet's zealous vision, Hartmann's piercing commentaries on the art centers of Boston and New York offer unparalleled documentation of the years before and after 1900. Brilliant and controversial art critic Sadakichi Hartmann wrote copiously about American and European art and the shaping of American culture during the decades from 1890 to 1910. Jane Weaver has recovered and assembled over fifty of Hartmann's critical Plein Air Painters of California, the North Ruth Lilly Westphal, 1986 American Studies Jack Salzman, 1986-08-29 This is an annotated bibliography of 20th century books through 1983 and is a reworking of American Studies: An Annotated Bibliography of Works on the Civilization of the United States published in 1982. It is organized in 11 sections: anthropology and folklore, art and architecture, history, literature, music, political science, popular culture, psychology, religion, science, technology, medicine, and sociology. Each section contains a preface introducing the reader to basic bibliographic resources in that discipline and paragraph-length, non-evaluative annotations. Includes author title and subject indexes.
