The Literary Institution in Portugal Since the Thirties Margarida

Rendeiro,2010 Despite the numerous studies of the politics economy culture and society of the Estado Novo the relations established between publishers authors and governmental institutions and their contribution to the making of the literary canon are still marginal subjects of analysis Based on the systems theories developed by Bourdieu Dubois and Even Zohar this study focuses on the cultural production produced during the Estado Novo 1933 1974 and after the Revolution 1974 2004 within their political economic and social framework The chapters on Jos Saramago and Jos Lu s Peixoto show them as examples of literary consecration that confirm the systemic relations in the Portuguese literary field This research makes use of a survey on habits of purchase of Portuguese fiction interviews with publishers original statistical analyses and takes a new approach to the study of Portuguese literature

A Companion to Portuguese Literature Thomas Foster Earle,Stephen Parkinson,Cláudia Pazos Alonso,2013 This companion volume offers an introduction to European Portuguese literature for university level readers It consists of a chronological overview of Portuguese literature from the twelfth century to the present day by some of the most distinguished literary scholars of recent years leading into substantial essays centred on major authors genres or periods and a study of the history of translations It does not attempt an encyclopaedic coverage of Portuguese literature but provides essential chronological and bibliographical information on all major authors and genres with more extensive treatment of key works and literary figures and a particular focus on the modern period It is unashamedly canonical rather than thematic in its examination of central authors and periods without neglecting female writers In this way it provides basic reference materials for students beginning the study of Portuguese literature and for a wider audience looking for general or specific information The editors have made a principled decision to exclude both Brazilian and African literature which demand separate treatment STEPHEN PARKINSON CLAUDIA PAZOS ALONSO and T F EARLE are all members of the Sub Faculty of Portuguese at the University of Oxford CONTRIBUTORS Vanda Anast cio Helena Carvalho Buescu Rip Cohen T F Earle David Frier Lu s Gomes Mariana Gray de Castro Helder Macedo Patricia Odber de Baubeta Hilary Owen Stephen Parkinson Cl udia Pazos Alonso Juliet Perkins Teresa Pinto Coelho Phillip Rothwell Mark Sabine Claire Williams Clive Willis

Portuguese Literature and the Environment Victor K. Mendes, Patrícia Vieira, 2019-06-03 Portuguese Literature and the Environment explores the relationship between Portuguese literature and the environment from Medieval times to the present From the centrality of nature in Medieval poetry through the bucolic verse of the Renaissance all the way to the Romantic and post Romantic nostalgia for a pristine natural or rural landscape under threat in the wake of industrialization Portuguese literature has frequently reflected on the connection between humans and the natural world More recently the postcolonial turn in contemporary literature has highlighted the contrast between the environment of the former colonies and that of Portugal Contributors to the collection examine how Portuguese writers engage with the environment and have incorporated nature in their texts not only to prompt social political or philosophical reflections on human society but also as a way to learn from non humans The book is organized into three sections The first explores the relationship between Portuguese philosophy historiography culture and environmental issues The second section discusses the link between literary texts and the
