The Media in Question Robert Ferguson, 2004 Media studies thrives on debate and criticism and is itself the object of dismissive and frequently ill informed comment This is an introduction to key media studies issues exploring their strengths and weaknesses mapping the main areas of the subject as it is presently constituted and seeking to establish paths through which the subject may develop into the 21st century It has a dual purpose to offer a provocative introduction to the subject for students and to shape and further this popular but controversial field of study

The Impact of the Media Michael Welker, Jurgen von Hagen, John Witte, Stephen Pickard, 2023-05-31 Pluralism has become the defining characteristic of modern societies Individuals with differing values clamor for equality Organizations and groups assert particular interests Social movements flourish and fade Some see in this clash of principles and aims the potential for a more just human community while others fear a cultural erosion Yet beneath this welter stand powerful and pervasive institutions whose distinctive norms profoundly shape our moral commitments and character Specialists on media and communication journalism television theologians economists sociologists philosophers and ethicists discuss the many functions and challenges the media pose to the communication and orientation in late modern pluralistic societies Contributions come from Germany the UK France the USA South Africa and Australia The suitability of social media for headhunters to recruit managers from and for the fashion business Robin Schlesinger,2014-10

Headhunters take on an enormous responsibility with the acceptance of a mandate to search for competent qualified top executives In living up to expectations and identifying eligible appropriate high performing candidates of great personal integrity numerous new and partly unknown tools are available to them thanks to the rapid expansion of social media platforms In times when recruitment tasks are increasingly performed internally by personnel managers it is particularly crucial for headhunters to adapt to such new trends The present study examines whether social media are a suitable medium for the recruitment of executives by headhunters and identifies the new opportunities and challenges they present to recruitment experts By means of a survey the extent to which social media platforms are already being used by headhunters in particular in their search for executives for the German fashion business is investigated Taking into account the results of this survey as well as the latest research concerning headhunters social media and the fashion business the study concludes by putting forward recommendations for the use of social media in headhunting executives Mass Media Advertising Edith Smit,1999 For most consumers advertising is less important than advertisers might think Advertising appears to function as something in the background that is hardly noticed as wallpaper But mass mediated advertising should at least function as a reminder when people are making choices Smit addresses these questions through in depth interviews a nation wide telephone survey with follow up mail and a face to face survey Edith Smit is associate professor at the Department of Communication at the University of Amsterdam and at the Amsterdam School of Communications Research ascor She is also Deputy Director of swocc the Dutch Foundation for Fundamental Research on Commercial Communication
