THE MEMORY OF THE OFFENCE

Primo Levi's If This Is a Man

Memory Of The Offence

German E. Berrios, John R. Hodges

Memory Of The Offence:

The Memory of the Offence Judith Woolf, 2001 In this study of Primo Levi's If This is a Man Se questo un uomo the author tries to give some sense of the historical and cultural context not just of Levi's book but also of the events which gave rise to it since it is to those events that Levi is directing us For the same reason suggestions for further reading mainly concentrate on history While looking at some of the many literary influences on Levi's book particularly that of Dante's Inferno this book also places it in the literature of survivor accounts The author has drawn widely on Levi's other writings both because If This is a Man has to be seen as the beginning of a lifetime's endeavour and because in the absence of a definitive body of criticism Levi remains the best explicator of his own work This book is intended both for the student of Italian and for the general reader All quotations from If This is a Man and all verse quotations are given both in Italian and in English while all other quotations from Italian texts are given in English

Memory and Punishment Emanuela Fronza, 2018-02-27 This book examines the criminalisation of denials of genocide and of other mass atrocities in Europe and discusses the implications of protecting institutional historical memory through criminal law The analysis highlights the tensions with free speech investigating the relationship between criminal law and historical memory The book paves the way for a broader discussion about fake news post truth scenarios and free expression in a digital world The author underscores the need to protect well founded factual records from the dangers of misinformation Historical denialism and the related jurisprudence represent a key step in exploring this complex field The book combines an interdisciplinary approach with criminal law methodology It is primarily aimed at academics practitioners and others who wish to deepen their understanding of historical denialism remembrance laws speech crimes and freedom of expression Emanuela Fronza is Senior Research Fellow in Criminal Law and Lecturer in International and European Criminal Law at the School of Law University of Bologna She is a Principal Investigator within the EU research consortium Memory Laws in European and Comparative Perspectives funded by HERA Humanities in the European Research Area

Offenders' Memories of Violent Crimes Sven A. Christianson, 2007-04-17 Violent offenders often claim amnesia in order to avoid punishment It is important for investigators and juries to ascertain whether such amnesia is genuine or feigned an offender with amnesia is not able to enter a plea and issues of automatism are raised

The Essential Handbook of

Memory Disorders for Clinicians Alan D. Baddeley, Michael Kopelman, Barbara A. Wilson, 2004-07-29 This concise version of the Handbook of Memory Disorders is a selection of chapters from the original volume that have been chosen with the busy practitioner in mind The Essential Handbook provides individual clinicians and students with those parts the editors consider most relevant and useful on a day to day basis as a portable adjunct to the more comprehensive Handbook Handbook of Memory Disorders 047 149819X

Memory Disorders in Psychiatric Practice German E. Berrios, John R. Hodges, 2000-03-16 Memory complaints are a frequent feature of psychiatric disorder even in the absence of organic disease In this practical reference for the clinician first published in 2000 German Berrios and John Hodges lead an international team of eminent psychiatrists behavioural neurologists and clinical psychologists to focus on the psychiatric and organic aspects of memory disorders from the perspective of the multidisciplinary memory clinic These disorders include organic syndromes such as the dementias the amnesic syndrome and transient amnesic states and also psychiatric aspects of memory disorders in the functional psychoses Among the specific topics reviewed are the paramnesias conditions such as d j vu flashbulb and flashback memories and the problems of recovered false and feigned memories Throwing light on established conditions and also introducing two new syndromes this book makes a major contribution to the understanding and clinical management of memory disorders in psychiatry neuropsychology and other disciplines

Political Crime and the Memory of Loss John Borneman, 2011-10-04 Loss is a fundamental human condition that often leads both individuals and groups to seek redress in the form of violence But are there possible modes of redress to reckon with loss that might lead to a departure from the violence of collective and individual revenge This book focuses on the redress of political crime in Germany and Lebanon extending its analysis to questions of accountability and democratization in the United States and elsewhere To understand the proposed modes of redress John Borneman links the way the actors define their injuries to the cultural forms of redress these injuries assume and to the social contexts in which they are open to refiguring Borneman theorizes modes of accountability the meaning of regime change and the American occupation of Iraq and the mechanisms of democratic authority in Europe and North America

Memory, Grief, and Agency Sunder John Boopalan, 2017-09-18 This book argues that an active memory of and grief over structural wrongs yields positive agency Such agency generates rites of moral responsibility that serve as antidotes to violent identities and catalyze hospitable social practices By comparing Indian and U S contexts of caste and race Sunder John Boopalan proposes that wrongs today are better understood as rituals of humiliation which are socially conditioned practices of domination affected by discriminatory logics of the past Grief can be redressive by transforming violent identities and hostile in group out group differences when guided by a liberative political theological imagination This volume facilitates interdisciplinary conversations between theorists and theologians of caste and race and those interested in understanding the relation between religion and power

Intersections of Law and Memory Mirosław Michał Sadowski, 2024-03-12 This book elaborates a new framework for considering and understanding the relationship between law and memory How can law influence collective memory What are the mechanisms law employs to influence social perceptions of the past And how successful is law in its attempts to rewrite narratives about the past As the field of memory studies has grown this book takes a step back from established transitional justice narratives returning to the core sociological philosophical and legal theoretical issues that underpin this field The book then goes on to propose a new approach to the relationship between law and collective memory based on a conception of legal institutions of memory It then elaborates the functioning of such institutions through a range of examples taken from Japan Iraq Brazil Portugal Rwanda and Poland that move from the work of international tribunals and truth commissions to more explicit memory legislation The book concludes with a general assessment of the contemporary intersections of law and memory and their legal institutionalisation This book will be of interest to scholars with relevant interests in the sociology of law legal theory and international law as well as in sociology and politics Memory Laws, Memory Wars Nikolay Koposov, 2018 A major contribution to our understanding of present day historical consciousness through a study of memory laws across Europe
