Wise, 2012 William Alexander Percy The Theology of William Porcher DuBose Robert Boak Slocum, 2000 Recognized and appreciated as one of the most original and creative theologians in the Episcopal Church's history William Porcher DuBose 1836-1918 published seven books of theological importance including an autobiographical work and his life is commemorated in a lesser feast of the Episcopal Calendar of the Church Year Despite making significant contributions to Anglicanism DuBose's works are according to Robert Boak Slocum more widely honored than understood or applied to questions facing theologians and lay people today To fill the gap of knowledge and understanding Slocum's study of DuBose draws parallels between essential experiences in his life and major themes in his published theology Baptized in Blood Charles Reagan Wilson, 2009 Southerners may have abandoned their dream of a political nation after Appomattox but they preserved their cultural identity by blending Christian rhetoric and symbols with the rhetoric and imagery of Confederate tradition Out of defeat emerged a civil religion that embodied the Lost Cause As Charles Reagan Wilson writes in his new preface The Lost Cause version of the regional civil religion was a powerful expression and recent scholarship affirms its continuing power in the minds of many white southerners Myth and Southern History: The Old South Patrick Gerster, Nicholas Cords, 1989 Many historical myths are actually false yet psychologically true The contributors to this volume see myth and reality as complementary elements in the historical record Myth and Southern History is as much a commentary on southern historiography as it is on the viability of myth in the historical process Volume 2 The New South offers new perspectives on the North's role in southern mythology the so called Savage South twentieth century black and white southern women and the changes that distinguish the late twentieth century South from that of the Civil War era The Living Church, 1943 The Bishop of the Old South Glenn Robins, 2006 As the owner of more than 200 slaves and a profitable sugar plantation Bishop Polk commanded a unique platform from which he articulated a vision of the Old South that merged Episcopalian values and traditions with the region's more dominant evangelical religious culture Polk displayed virtually no interest in his denomination's theological squabbles Instead his genius rested in his attempts to cultivate a religious solidarity among white Southerners of all classes and to broaden the social and cultural appeal of Episcopalianism in the South Polk's mission for the University of the South illustrated his dedication to denominational purity but it also embodied the fundamental tenets of a religious and culturally based Southern nationalism Forth, 1929
