Susan Mamchak, Steven R. Mamchak, 1979

Letter-writing Manuals and Instruction from Antiquity to the Present Carol Poster, Linda C. Mitchell, 2007 Once nearly as ubiquitous as dictionaries and cookbooks are today letter writing manuals and their predecessors served to instruct individuals not only on the art of letter composition but also in effect on personal conduct Poster and Mitchell contend that the study of letter writing theory which bridges rhetorical theory and grammatical studies represents an emerging discipline in need of definition In this volume they gather the contributions of eleven experts to sketch the contours of epistolary theory and collect the historic and bibliographic materials from Isocrates to email that form the basis for its study How to Say the Right Thing Every Time Robert D. Ramsey, 2002-07-19 Filled with time tested techniques and relevant examples this user friendly guide empowers teachers with the confidence and tools necessary to communicate effectively efficiently and honestly in all situations The author uses clear cut language to the point insights and pertinent advice reflecting the many suggestions found within the book Key features include Specific ways to avoid the 20 most common communication barriers Proven how to s do s and don ts for talking with students erything from giving clear instructions and praise to discussing drugs and death Guidelines for successful parent teacher conferences plus tips for breaking bad news and dealing with angry adults Strategies for effective public speaking and handling performance reviews job interviews media interviews and special ceremonies Tactics for powerful written and other nonverbal communications This engaging resource inspires and instructs practitioners to deliver audience appropriate meaningful messages to promote positive student interaction as well as foster understanding and support from parents peers and the public Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta

Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Art and Science of Making the New Man in Early 20th-Century Russia Yvonne Howell, Nikolai Kremmentsov, 2021-12-02 The idea that morally mentally and physically superior new men might replace the currently existing mankind has periodically seized the imagination of intellectuals leaders and reformers throughout history This volume offers a multidisciplinary investigation into how the new man was made in Russia and the early Soviet Union in the first third of the 20th century The traditional narrative of the Soviet new man as a creature forged by propaganda is challenged by the strikingly new and varied case studies presented here The book focuses on the interplay between the rapidly developing experimental life sciences such as biology medicine and psychology and countless cultural products ranging from film and fiction dolls and museum exhibits to pedagogical projects sculptures and exemplary agricultural fairs With contributions from scholars based in the United States Canada the UK Germany and Russia the picture that emerges is emphatically more complex contradictory and suggestive of strong parallels with other new man visions in Europe and elsewhere In contrast to previous interpretations that focused largely on the apparent disconnect between utopian new man rhetoric and the harsh realities of everyday life in the Soviet Union this volume brings to light the surprising historical trajectories of new man visions their often obscure origins acclaimed and forgotten champions unexpected and complicated results and mutual interrelations In short the volume is a timely examination of a recurring theme in modern history when dramatic advancements in science and technology conjoin with anxieties about the future to fuel dreams of a new and improved mankind
