New Essays On The Crying Of Lot 49:

New Essays on The Crying of Lot 49 Patrick O'Donnell,1991 The Crying of Lot 49 is widely recognized as a significant contemporary work that frames the desire for meaning and the quest for knowledge within the social and political contexts of the 50s and 60s in America In the introduction to this collection of original essays on Thomas Pynchon s important novel Patrick O Donnell discusses the background and critical reception of the novel Further essays by five experts on contemporary literature examine the novel s semiotic regime or the way in which it organizes signs the comparison of postmodernist Pynchon and the influential South American writer Jorge Luis Borges metaphor in the novel the novel s narrative strategies and the novel within the cultural contexts of American Puritanism and the Beat movement Together these essays provide an examination of the novel within its literary historical and scientific contexts

New Essays on The Crying of Lot 49 ANON.,1991

The Self Wired Lisa Yaszek,2013-12-16 First Published in 2002 Advanced technologies challenge conventional understandings of the human subject by transforming the body into a conduit between external forces and the internal psyche This title discusses the intense controversy about how to best understand and represent human subjectivity in a technology intensive era Yaszek provides an overview by linking specific modes of identity and agency to engagement with specific manifestations of technology itself

Thomas Pynchon Harold Bloom,2009 Presents a collection of critical essays on the works of Thomas Pynchon

Approaches to Teaching Pynchon's The Crying of Lot 49 and Other Works Thomas Schaub,2008 As teachers well know the elements that make Thomas Pynchon exciting to read and study the historical references the multilayered prose and the postmodern integration of high and low cultures and science and literature often constitute hurdles to undergraduate and graduate readers alike The essays gathered in this volume turn these classroom challenges into assets showing instructors how to make the narratives frustration of reader expectations not only intellectually rewarding but also part of the joy of reading The Crying of Lot 49 Gravity s Rainbow Mason to use the texts to explore racial and gender politics and legacies of colonialism and to make Pynchon s elaborate prose style accessible to students Teachers will also find sample syllabi for courses solely on Pynchon as well as suggestions for incorporating his work into graduate and undergraduate classrooms at a range of institutions

Thomas Pynchon Niran Bahjat Abbas,2003 This volume is a collection of essays by various academics looking at how identity is shaped gendered and contested throughout Pynchon s work By exploring sociological anthropological literary and political dimensions the contributors revise important ideas in the debate over individualism using political and feminist theory and examine the different ways in which their writings embody engage and critique the official narratives generated by America s culture

Reflecting on the City Through Literature Daan Wesselman,2023-10-11 This book develops and demonstrates an interdisciplinary method that reads literary works as a way of thinking about the city Literary works do not only provide reflections of the city depictions of the city as an aesthetically compelling setting but the literary reflection of the city also offers a critical reflection on the city How can spatial difference be conceived in cities that are changing beyond the form of the classical modern metropolis of the early 20th century How can one think of the relation between individual urban subjects and their urban environment when neither spaces nor discourses of the city provide them with an answer to the question where they might belong How does the human body interact with its urban surroundings and how should technological mediations be thought of This book approaches these questions through analysing literary texts focusing on concepts like heterotopia non place and the posthuman This book will be of interest to interdisciplinary scholars and students of the city particularly in the fields of Urban Studies Literary Studies Geography and Architecture

Fables of Subversion Steven Weisenburger, 1995 Drawing on more than thirty novels by nineteen writers Fables of Subversion is both a survey of mid twentieth century American fiction and a study of how these novels challenged the conventions of satire Steven Weisenburger focuses on the rise of a radically subversive mode of satire from 1930 to 1980 This postmodern satire says Weisenburger stands in crucial opposition to corrective normative satire which has served a legitimizing function by generating through ridicule a consensus on values Weisenburger argues that satire in this generative mode does not participate in the oppositional subversive work of much twentieth century art Chapters focus on theories of satire early subversions of satiric conventions by Nathanael West Flannery O Connor and John Hawkes the flowering of Black Humor fictions of the sixties and the forms of political and encyclopedic satire prominent throughout the period Many of the writers included here such as Vladimir Nabokov William Gaddis Kurt Vonnegut Robert Coover and Thomas Pynchon are acknowledged masters of contemporary humor Others such as Mary McCarthy Chester Himes James Purdy Charles Wright and Ishmael Reed have not previously been considered in this context Posing a seminal challenge to existing theories of satire Fables of Subversion explores the iconoclastic energies of the new satires as a driving force in late modern and post modern novel writing

Satire in Narrative Frank Palmeri, 2014-08-04 Virtually all theories of satire define it as a criticism of contemporary society Some argue that satire criticizes the present in favor of a standard of values that has been superseded and thus that satire is generally backward looking and conservative While this is often true of poetic satire in this study Frank Palmeri asserts that narrative satire performs a different function that it parodies both the established view of the world and that of its opponents offering its own distinctive critical perspective This theory of satire builds on the idea of dialogical parody in the work of Russian theorist Mikhail Bakhtin while revising Bakhtin's estimate of carnival In Palmeri's view the carnivalesque offers only an inverted mirror image of authoritative discourse while parodic narrative satire suggests an alternative to both the official world and its inverted opposite Palmeri applies this theory of narrative satire to five works of world literature each of which has generated sharp controversy about the genre to which it rightly belongs Petronius Satyricon Jonathan Swift's A Tale of a Tub Edward Gibbon's Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire Herman Melville's The Confidence Man and Thomas Pynchon's The

Crying of Lot 49 He analyzes the features that link these works and shows how the changing pairs of alternatives that are parodied in these satires reflect changes in the terms of social and cultural oppositions Satire in Narrative will appeal to comparatists specialists in eighteenth century and American literature and others interested in theories of genre and the relations between literary forms and social history
