The play has evolved through various stages of preparation but does not really begin until we are born. When all the players go on stage, they have been prepared for their parts. Their characters are outlined and the stage is set. Now the curtain is raised, the play itself exists as a potential within characters, the director, the musicians, and the audience. In the same way, the moment of our birth provides that broad outline for our life. Our entire life exists as a potential that has been prepared for. We have ultimate freedom to do with our life as we like, to fulfill its potential completely or to make some smaller version of ourselves. It all depends upon our effort and commitment. We make the decisions to fulfill to whatever extent the potential life that exists within us. That is our choice.
