Louise Wilson

Pacesetterstranger Son:

Trigger John's Son Thomas Pendleton Robinson, 1949 The story of an orphan being adopted on approval who decides he wants to do a little approving also is delightful Fathers as well as their sons will enjoy this very Tom Sawyerish tale and it is excellent read aloud material for family use Warm human relations and a very realistic picture of boy life in a small Pennsylvania town add to the appeal of the book

The Martian Child David Gerrold, 2002-06 A Novel about a Single Father Adopting a Son Based on a True Story Oh One more thing Dennis thinks he s a Martian Soon to be parents are instructed to expect the unexpected Good advice it turns out Especially for the anxious or apprehensive parent who is considering adoption How can one know about an adopted child All David Gerrold knew for certain was that he wanted to be a parent As a single gay man he thought adoption would be the most direct route to fatherhood But he soon found out to both his joy and dismay that the emotional route to fatherhood was anything but direct In fact it was a roller coaster ride that changed his life forever When he first saw the picture of eight year old Dennis beaming up at him from the photograph in the adoption book David knew this was the boy for him But these were the facts Abandoned as an infant by drug addicted parents Documented abuse Shuffled from one foster home to another Deficit hyperactivity disorder Ritalin to control his violent emotional outbursts For his antisocial behavior Disipramine The conclusion from experts Dennis was hard to place A polite bureaucratic euphemism for unadoptable It was a depressing assessment that David could not would not accept He needed Dennis And he believed Dennis needed him It was that simple Until the reality of single fatherhood set in A searingly honest funny moving and heartfelt portrait of the joys and perils of parenting The Martian Child is David Gerrold s valentine to the redemptive value of love in this case a father s love for his son A son who thinks he s a Martian

A Search for a Son Brian Winder, 2021-08-31 This is an account of a father s attempts to discover what has happened to his son who disappeared in the Darien Gap Jungle in Panama in Central America Just how do you go about finding out what has happened to someone six thousand miles away in a Spanish speaking country At the start the father did not know for definite where how his son had disappeared if he had had a companion or who that companion was or if he had had a guide The significant thing is that the search became a family affair without divorce but then other people became involved some complete strangers very generous and helpful a genuine crook and two largely incompetent detective agencies After 9 months it was resolved free of any ransom demand probably by direct contact with the guerrilla group FARC itself When the two adventurers were released the parents Brian and Anne Winder heard of ransom demands of 2 000 000 each which never reached them and many situations where the two adventurers could easily have died and their fate never be known Brian Winder is a family man with three grown up sons and a long suffering wife who is a French teacher He was born and educated with degrees in Classics and Philosophy with the Jesuits in Ireland In his 20s he travelled in North Africa and most countries in Europe and most interestingly in Russia when it opened its borders He taught in a secondary school in Zambia and also worked in the copper mines in Zambia for 11 years and in London after he specialised in computers and as an accountant After retirement he devoted himself full time over 25 years to volunteering with many roles in charities serving the homeless and addicts His favourite hobby is country dancing Windy McPherson's Son Sherwood Anderson,1917
