Pacific Islands Javier Galván,1998-01-01 Architectural Conservation in Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific Islands John Stubbs,William Chapman,Julia Gatley,Ross King,2023-12-22 The fourth in a series that documents architectural conservation in different parts of the world Architectural Conservation in Australia New Zealand and the Pacific Islands National Experiences and Practice addresses cultural heritage protection in a region which comprises one third of the Earth's surface In response to local needs Australia New Zealand and the Pacific Islands have developed some of the most important and influential techniques legislation doctrine and theories in cultural heritage management in the world The evolution of the heritage protection ethos and contemporary architectural conservation practices in Australia and Oceania are discussed on a national and regional basis using ample illustrations and examples Accomplishments in architectural conservation are discussed in their national and international contexts with an emphasis on original developments solutions and contributions made to the overall field Enriched with essays contributed from fifty nine specialists and thought leaders in the field this book contains an extraordinary breadth and depth of research and synthesis on the why's and how's of cultural heritage conservation Its holistic approach provides an essential resource and reference for students academics researchers policy makers practitioners and all who are interested in conserving the built environment Master Plan for Deep-draft Wharf and Fill Improvements at Apra Harbor, Piti, Guam,2007 Architectural Conservation in Asia John H. Stubbs,Robert G. Thomson,2016-11-10 At a time when organized heritage protection in Asia is developing at a rapid pace Architectural Conservation in Asia provides the first comprehensive overview of architectural conservation practice from Afghanistan to the Philippines The country by country analysis adopted by the book draws out local insights experiences best practice and solutions for effective cultural heritage management that will inform study and practice both in Asia and beyond Whereas architectural conservation in much of the Western world has been extensively documented this book brings together coverage of many regions where architectural conservation has been understudied Following on from the highly influential companion volumes on global architectural conservation and architectural conservation in Europe and the Americas with this book the authors extend their pioneering global examination to the dynamic and evolving field of architectural conservation in Asia Throughout the book the authors and regional experts provide local case studies and profile topics that bring depth and insight to this ambitious study As architectural conservation becomes increasingly global in practice this book will be of considerable assistance to architectural conservation practitioners site managers and students of architecture planning archaeology and heritage studies worldwide Pacific Studies : a Journal Devoted to the Study of the Pacific-its Islands and Adjacent Countries,2002 Spain in the Age of Exploration, 1492-1819 Chiyo Ishikawa,Seattle Art Museum,2004-01-01 This publication accompanies an exhibition of approximately 120 works of art and science loaned mostly from the Royal Collection of Spain Patrimonio Nacional to the Seattle Art Museum Featuring the work of such artists as Bosch Titian El Greco Bernini Velázquez Murillo Zúbarán and Goya this publication includes paintings sculpture tapestries scientific instruments maps armor books and documents Eight essays provide historical context and artistic explication Chronologically organized the book charts the evolution of Spanish attitudes toward knowledge exploration and faith during three dynasties of Spain's golden age when the fervor for scientific and geographical knowledge coexisted with the expansion of empire and promotion of Christianity The four themes of the exhibition are The Image of Empire Spirituality and Worldliness Encounters across Cultures Science and the Court Spain in the Age of Exploration 1492-1819 presents art and science from one of the most ambitious magnificent and complex enterprises in history

Where the Waves Fall K.R. Howe, 2023-05-03 Where the Waves Fall 1984 centres the stories of the Pacific Islanders and how they were affected by European explorers and colonisers in this unique account of human settlement and cultural interchange in the Pacific islands It follows the fortunes of the seafarers who discovered island after island in the world's largest ocean traces the development of their civilisations and examines in depth the interaction between them and the newcomers European explorers traders beachcombers missionaries merchants who from the sixteenth century came in an increasing series of waves The book's framework enables the author to throw new light on hitherto isolated events Novel suggestions are advanced as to why some islands became kingdoms in the earlier years of European contact and why others did not and of how and why missionaries were accepted on some islands but not on others Nor does Professor Howe shrink from provocative and at times controversial arguments concerning the ambitions and strategies of island leaders and indeed the overall nature and extent of the initiatives taken by the islanders

The Pacific Islands Douglas L. Oliver, 1989-04-01 By far the best compendium on Pacific studies available today There have been several attempts to imitate it during the past decade but they are either boiled down histories or else reference works without any cohesive structure H. E. Maude Australian National University

The Oxford History of Twentieth Century Michael Howard, William Roger Louis, 2002-08-08 In this ambitious book some of the most distinguished historians in the world survey the momentous events and the significant themes of recent times with a look forward to what the future might bring Early chapters take a global overview of the century as a whole from a variety of perspectives demographic scientific economic and cultural Further chapters all written by acknowledged experts chart the century's course region by region The Oxford History of the Twentieth Century is an invaluable repository of information and offers unparalleled insights on the twentieth century

Pacific Island Heritage Jolie Liston, Geoffrey Richard Clark, Dwight Alexander, 2011-11-01 This volume emerges from a ground breaking conference held in the Republic of Palau on cultural heritage in the Pacific It includes bold investigations of the role of cultural heritage in identity making and the ways in which community engagement informs heritage management practices This is the first broad and detailed investigation of the unique and irreplaceable cultural heritage of the Pacific from a heritage management perspective It identifies new trends in research and assesses relationships between archaeologists heritage managers and local communities The methods which emerge from these relationships will be critical to the effective management of heritage sites in the 21st century A wonderful book which emerges from an extraordinary conference Essential reading for cultural heritage managers archaeologists and others with an interest in caring for the unique cultural heritage of the Pacific Islands
