Pacific Graveyard:

The Graveyard of the Pacific Anthony Dalton,2011-02-01 On January 22 1906 the passenger ship Valencia lost her way in heavy fog and rain and rammed into the deadly rocks at Pachena Point on the west coast of Vancouver Island As the wreck was shattered by the pounding waves the survivors clung desperately to the rigging Few made it the short distance to shore through the frigid and turbulent waves 117 of the 164 souls aboard perished A year earlier the King David had been wrecked on Bajo Reef near Nootka Sound The fate of her sailors was much more mysterious Today the magnificent Pacific coastline of Vancouver Island draws hikers surfers and storm watchers to marvel at its natural splendour But the ghosts of the Valencia King David Janet Cowan Pacific Soquel and dozens of other lost ships still haunt the rugged shores of the Graveyard of the Pacific Anthony Dalton tells the incredible stories of many of these ships and their courageous crews who often discovered that their nightmares had only begun once they made it ashore These true tales of disaster and daring rescues are a fascinating adventure into British Columbia maritime history

made the crossing before him including his own abusive father a sailor himself who also once dared to cross the bar and reflects on toxic masculinity fatherhood and what drives men to extremes Rich with exhaustive research and propulsive narrative Graveyard of the Pacific follows historical shipwrecks through the moment by moment details that often determined whether sailors would live or die exposing the ways in which boats sailors and navigation have changed over the decades As he makes his way across the bar floating above the wrecks and across the same currents that have taken so many lives Randall Sullivan faces the past both in his own life and on the Columbia River Bar

Representing the South Pacific Rod Edmond, 1997-11-20 This book examines how the South Pacific was represented by explorers missionaries travellers writers and artists between 1767 and 1914 by drawing on history literature art history and anthropology Edmond engages with colonial texts and postcolonial theory criticising both for their failure to acknowledge the historical specificity of colonial discourses and cultural encounters and for continuing to see indigenous cultures in essentially passive or reactive terms The book offers a detailed and grounded reading back of these colonial discourses into the metropolitan centres which gave rise to them while resisting the idea that all representations of other cultures are merely self representations Among its themes are the persistent myth making around the figure of Cook the western obsession with Polynesian sexuality tattooing cannibalism and leprosy and the Pacific as a theatre for adventure and as a setting for Europe's displaced fears of its own cultural extinction
