Pacific Yesterday And The Day Before That:

A Doctor in the Pacific War Malcolm Hawk, 2020-02-27 In August 1942 Malcolm Henry Hawk left a promising post graduate medical residency in Wisconsin to begin serving his country in the Pacific Theater during World War II In the Pacific he served as an anesthesiologist with the 44th General Army Hospital first in Australia and then in the Philippines The work was essential and often hard the medical staff treated frontline casualties and also kept the support troops healthy Malcolm was fortunate to be seldom in danger although he mentions being uncomfortably close to a few Japanese attacks in the Philippines But the hazards of his military life included the frustrations of trying to obtain the equipment and operating facilities that his unit needed the rigors of tent life searing heat and monsoon rains the loneliness of missing his family endless hours of boredom and worries about what he would do after the war was over and he came home to resume his career His letters home paint a vivid picture of what daily life was actually like for one medical doctor during the war The Pacific War Papers Donald M. Goldstein, 2014-05-27 The Pacific War Papers is an annotated collection of extremely rare Japanese primary source documents translated into English that provides an invaluable resource for historians and students of World War II These naval and diplomatic documents come from the collection of the late Gordon Prange the eminent scholar of Pearl Harbor who obtained them from Japanese naval leaders while working for the Military History Section of the American forces that occupied Japan Donald M Goldstein and Katherine V Dillon have assembled this collection so that these important documents are not lost to history The editors also provide expert commentary to introduce and explain the importance of the materials This book forms the companion volume to The Pearl Harbor Papers Inside the Japanese Plans Brassey's Inc 1993 which Goldstein and Dillon also edited Most of the documents published here are not available anywhere else with many translated for the first time This edited collection covers three main topics the Japanese navy before World War II prewar diplomacy and politics and Japanese naval operations and policy during the war The documents include diary extracts and candid short monographs written by high ranking Japanese officers immediately after the war They shed new light on the vast naval buildup before the war the development of the navy's operational concepts for war with the United States the organization and tactics of aircraft carrier forces and the failure of Japanese submarine operations No World War II library will be complete without this important volume
