Paddling Through Time A Sea Kayaking Journey In Clayoquot Sound:

Paddling Through Time Joanna Streetly, 2000 Now recognized by the United Nations as a world heritage ecosystem Clayoquot Sound with its spectacular bays and beaches has enthralled everyone privileged to experience it from the First Nations peoples to the first European explorers to the recent wave of whale watching tourists from around the world Joanna Streetly and Adrian Dorst who live in the area bring an insider's knowledge and pride to this account of their week long trip through Clayoquot by kayak They depict in vivid words and breathtaking colour photographs the present day allure of the sound Streetly also delves into the region's colourful past from Native culture and traditions to more recent high profile confrontations between forest companies and environmentalists A new addition to the popular Raincoast Journeys series this is a well rounded portrait of one of the world's finest natural reserves whose hard won preservation is an inspiration to all lovers of the wild

Sea Kayak Barkley and Clayoquot Sounds Mary Ann Snowden, 2005 For the experienced and novice alike this comprehensive guide leads paddlers through some of the best kayaking waters on the west coast of Vancouver Island Twenty trips are outlined covering prime paddling destinations within Barkley and Clayoquot sounds including the Deer Group the Broken Group Islands and Vargas Flores and Meares islands Each trip is headed with important information on tides currents safety considerations and launching Included in each route description is practical information on the different land jurisdictions campsites suitable landings and paddling conditions Sidebars embellish the history of shipwrecks examine the Nuuchah-nulth people and introduce interesting characters like Salal Joe and Fred Tibbs Others detail some of the natural history of the west coast with topics ranging from grey whales to barnacles This edition also provides well researched information on the parks in the area including Pacific Rim National Park and several parks within the BC Parks system

In This Together Danielle Metcalfe-Chenail, 2016-04-12 What is real reconciliation This collection of essays from both Indigenous and non Indigenous contributors from across Canada welcomes readers into a timely healing conversation one we've longed for but before now have had a hard time approaching These reflective and personal pieces come from journalists writers academics visual artists filmmakers city planners and lawyers all of whom share their personal light bulb moments regarding when and how they grappled with the harsh reality of colonization in Canada and its harmful legacy Without flinching they look deeply and honestly at their own experiences and assumptions about race and racial divides in Canada in hopes that the rest of the country will do the same Featuring a candid conversation between CBC radio host Shelagh Rogers and Chief Justice Sinclair this book acts as a call for all Canadians to make reconciliation and decolonization a priority and reminds us that once we know the history we all have the responsibility and ability to make things better
