Pages from a Worker's Life William Z. Foster, 1970 "Women, Workers, and Race in LIFE Magazine" Dolores

Flamiano, 2017-07-05 The tension between social reform photography and photojournalism is examined through this study of the life and work of German gr ansel Mieth 1909 1998 who made an unlikely journey from migrant farm worker to Life photographer She was the second woman in that role after Margaret Bourke White Unlike her colleagues Mieth was a working class reformer with a deep disdain for Life s conservatism and commercialism In fact her work often subverted Life s typical representations of women workers and minorities Some of her most compelling photo essays used skillful visual storytelling to offer fresh views on controversial topics birth control vivisection labor unions and Japanese American internment during the Second World War Her dual role as reformer and photojournalist made her a desirable commodity at Life in the late 1930s and early 40s but this role became untenable in Cold War America when her career was cut short Today Mieth s life and photographs stand as compelling reminders of the vital yet overlooked role of immigrant women in twentieth century photojournalism Women Workers and Race in LIFE Magazine draws upon a rich array of primary sources including Mieth s unpublished memoir oral histories and labor archives The book seeks to unravel and understand the multi layered often contested stories of the photographer s life and work It will be of interest to scholars of photography history women s studies visual culture and media history History from the Bottom Up and the Inside Out James R.

Barrett, 2017-08-04 James R Barrett rethinks the boundaries of American working class history by investigating the ways in which working class people s personal lives intersected with their activism and religious racial ethnic and class identities

Pages from a Worker's Life, 1916-26 Bob Davies, 1961 Forging American Communism Edward P.

Johanningsmeier, 2014-07-14 A major figure in the history of twentieth century American radicalism William Z Foster 1881 1961 fought his way out of the slums of turn of the century Philadelphia to become a professional revolutionary as well as a notorious and feared labor agitator Drawing on private family papers FBI files and recently opened Russian archives this first full scale biography traces Foster s early life as a world traveler railroad worker seaman hobo union activist and radical journalist and also probes the origins and implications of his ill fated career as a top echelon Communist official and three time presidential candidate Even though Foster s long and eventful life ended in Moscow where he was given a state funeral in Red Square he was as portrayed here a thoroughly American radical The book not only reveals the circumstances of Foster s poverty stricken childhood in Philadelphia but also vividly describes his work and travels in the American West Also included are fascinating accounts of his early political career as a Socialist Wobbly and anarcho syndicalist and of his activities as the architect of giant organizing campaigns by the American Federation of Labor involving hundreds of thousands of workers in the meatpacking and steel industries The author views Foster s influence in the American

Communist movement from the perspective of the history of American labor and unionism but he also offers a realistic assessment of Foster's career in light of factional intrigues at the highest levels of the Communist International Originally published in 1994 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Agents of the Revolution Kevin Morgan, 2005 Using Comintern archives oral interviews and a wide range of other sources this collection presents a sample of some of the exciting new work currently being produced in the field of communist biography Geographically the contributions take in North America and New Zealand as well as a range of European countries Some chapters focus on individuals like Clara Zetkin William Z Foster Umberto Terracini William Gallacher or Jozsef Pogány Others adopt a collective approach to explore communist cultures in rural Austria or the Netherlands or the impact of institutions like the International Lenin School There are also chapters on communist institutional biographies the role of general secretaries and the significance of generations and family links

The Communist Review, 1923 Revolution in Seattle Harvey O'Connor, 2009 The Seattle General Strike of 1919 was America's first citywide labor stoppage a defiant example of workers power in the aftermath of World War I Told in gripping detail by one of the era's great labor journalists Revolution in Seattle captures the dramatic dynamics of workers organizing strike committees to take control of their city from below Republished on the tenth anniversary of the 1999 Battle in Seattle against the World Trade Organization Harvey O'Connor's book offers lessons and inspiration to a new generation of rebels Harvey O'Connor was a seminal labor journalist and historian whose work exposed the greed of the depression era robber barons and labor struggles nationwide
