Painted Fan:

Painted Fans of Japan Reiko Chiba, 2012-12-11 Noh Fans are an essential element of Japanese theater and this collection of fans is a rare example of this fine Japanese art. The chief purpose of Painted Fans of Japan is to present for Westerners some of the gorgeous paintings found on fans used in the traditional Japanese Noh drama. Painting as limited to conform to the fan shape has been practiced for hundreds of years in Japan even by such immortal artists as Sotatsu and Korin. Until now however there has been no popularly available volume of reproductions to reveal the almost limitless possibilities in color design and perspective within this restricted form of painting. The artists whose works are reproduced in this book are unknown and the time when the works were painted can only be estimated as early 1601 1741 middle 1742 1791 or late 1792 1867 Tokugawa the period of Japanese history that extended from the beginning of the seventeenth century to well past the middle of the nineteenth.

Chinese Fans Gonglin Qian, 2004 History of fans in China Art Worlds Roberta Wue, 2014-12-09 The growth of Shanghai in the late nineteenth century gave rise to an exciting new art world in which a flourishing market in popular art became a highly visible part of the treaty port's commercialized culture. Art Worlds examines the relationship between the city's visual artists and their urban audiences. Through a discussion of images ranging from fashionable painted fans to lithograph illustrated magazines the book explores how popular art intersected with broader cultural trends. It also investigates the multiple roles played by the modern Chinese artist as image maker entrepreneur celebrity and urban sojourner. Focusing on industrially produced images mass advertisements and other hitherto neglected sources the book offers a new interpretation of late Qing visual culture at a watershed moment in the history of modern Chinese art. Art Worlds will be of interest to scholars of art history and to anyone with an interest in the cultural history of modern China. By focusing on objects sites social networks and technologies this elegantly conceived book enriches our understanding of art production and consumption in nineteenth century Shanghai. The author makes masterful use of newspapers guidebooks diaries and advertisements as well as paintings to present readers with the compelling story of a city and its artists. Tobie Meyer Fong author of What Remains Coming to Terms with Civil War in 19th Century China and Building Culture in Early Qing Yangzhou Rich in findings forensic in visual analysis and not least elegantly crafted Wue's book on painting printing and the social worlds of art in late Qing Shanghai is an exemplary contribution. A must read volume. Shane McCausland author of Zhao Mengfu Calligraphy and Painting for Khubilai's China
