The Poetics and Politics of the Desert Catrin

Gersdorf,2009-01-01 This study explores the ways in which the desert as topographical space and cultural presence shaped and reshaped concepts and images of America Once a territory outside the geopolitical and cultural borders of the United States the deserts of the West and Southwest have since emerged as canonical American landscapes Drawing on the critical concepts of American studies and on questions and problems raised in recent debates on ecocriticism The Poetics and Politics of the Desert investigates the spatial rhetoric of America as it developed in view of arid landscapes since the mid nineteenth century Gersdorf argues that the integration of the desert into America catered to the entire spectrum of ideological and political responses to the history and culture of the US maintaining that the Americanization of this landscape was and continues to be staged within the idiomatic parameters and in reaction to the discursive authority of four spatial metaphors garden wilderness Orient and heterotopia

Oriental Forerunners of Byzantine Painting James Henry Breasted, 1924 I'd Rather Be Painting Donald Dean Langford, 2018-09-17 This is a story about one man's forty year struggle to leave what he thought would be a temporary job in Banking to follow his lifelong dream of becoming an artist Away from the bank he took what time he could afford to work toward that goal After some oil painting lessons his skills improved Working in his garage usually at night he started giving away and selling some of his paintings to friends Since Banking and Art are quite opposite he felt as though he was leading a sort of double life After his skills improved he attempted to find ways to leave banking including a wild and crazy decision to open a gallery in Carmel California Still living his double life he hoped the gallery would eventually replace his bank job It did not When a benefactor offered to back him financially he happily left banking only to reluctantly return to banking when his benefactor could not continue funding Back to his double life again he continued painting and sold his work in several galleries This story takes the reader on many rocky paths some of which were dead ends ultimately to one as a full time Artist When Illness and death took his wife and daughter his faith was sorely tested however he never gave up painting After remarrying he and his wife returned to the Monterey Bay where the dream is still alive
