A Sketch of the Life and Paintings of Thomas Gainsborough, etc Philip THICKNESSE, 1788 The Paintings of Thomas Gainsborough Malcolm Cormack, 1991 Examines the works of the English painter and discusses his contributions to the art world by analyzing his personal style Thomas Gainsborough Hugh Belsey, 2002 This new study on Thomas Gainsborough concentrates on the early life and works of the great eighteenth century artist Gainsborough's talent was evident at a young age and before he established himself as one of London's leading portrait artists he was able to indulge himself in his true passion landscapes as well as providing portraits for a provincial clientele Graced with the light and gentle shadows of the English countryside these early works provided the foundation for much of Gainsborough's later work But many of them including the renowned Mr and Mrs Andrews and His Daughters Chasing a Butterfly can be called masterpieces in their own right It was in Suffolk that the artist developed a naturalistic approach to portraiture by abandoning conversation pieces and painting instead a number of straightforward head and shoulder portraits This lively and accessible volume features eighty color and black and white reproductions of Gainsborough's paintings etchings and drawings They not only shed light on the development of one of England's most revered painters but also offer an intimate look at the work of a young painter in the thrall of his subjects and just beginning to realize his full talents (Thomas) Gainsborough, 1901 A sketch of the life and paintings of Thomas Gainsborough Philip Thicknesse, Thomas Gainsborough, 1788 Gainsborough Thomas Gainsborough, John T.
