Paintings Of Xugu And Qi Baishi:

The Paintings of Xugu and Qi Baishi Jung Ying Tsao, 1993 A comprehensive presentation of the works of two Chinese masters Xugu the Buddhist monk painter and Qi Baishi a man hailed as China's Picasso Modern Ink Britta Erickson, Craig L. Yee, Jung Ying Tsao, 2014 Born into a poor farming family and coming of age during China's century of civil strife Qi Baishi transformed the elite brush art of China's literati scholars into a universal art form appreciated by people of all social backgrounds His distinctly modern art language breaks through class and cultural barriers through use of expressive carved brushwork juxtaposition of vibrant colours against deep and rich ink tones poetic economy in form and composition and choice of emotionally resonant subject matter For these reasons Qi Baishi's art is the ideal gateway through which art lovers of any class or culture can learn about the millennia old tradition of Chinese brush painting A selection of Qi Baishi's seal carving the art of the iron brush links his origins as an artisan carver to his life as China's most celebrated calligrapher poet and painter The scholarly discipline calligraphy then forms the basis for our understanding Qi Baishi's distinctive carved brushwork In painting landscapes and figures are two subjects that appear early in Qi Baishi's career and provide us with an opportunity to appreciate the poetic economy of his brushwork and the universal appeal of his humanist themes Finally birds and flowers form the bulk of Qi Baishi's oeuvre and a chronological selection allows us to explore the development of his unique brush ink and colour language over the span of his productive career Published in association with Marquand Books and the Mozhai Foundation China—Art—Modernity David Clarke, 2019-01-22 China Art Modernity provides a critical introduction to modern and contemporary Chinese art as a whole It illuminates what is distinctive and significant about the rich range of art created during the tumultuous period of Chinese history from the end of Imperial rule to the present day The story of Chinese art in the twentieth and twenty first centuries is shown to be deeply intertwined with that of the country's broader socio political development with art serving both as a tool for the creation of a new national culture and as a means for critiquing the forms that culture has taken The book's approach is inclusive In addition to treating art within the Chinese Mainland itself during the Republican and Communist eras for instance it also looks at the art of colonial Hong Kong Taiwan and the Chinese diaspora Similarly it gives equal prominence to artists employing tools and idioms of indigenous Chinese origin and those who engage with international styles and contemporary media In this way it writes China into the global story of modern art as a whole at a moment in intellectual history when Western centred stories of modern and contemporary culture are finally being recognized as parochial and inadequate Assuming no previous background knowledge of Chinese history and culture this concise yet comprehensive and richly illustrated book will appeal to those who already have an established interest in modern Chinese art and those for whom this is a novel topic It will be of particular value to students of Chinese art or modern art in general but it is also for those in the wider reading public with a curiosity about modern China At a time when that country has become a major actor on the world stage in all sorts of ways accessible sources of information concerning its modern visual culture are nevertheless surprisingly scarce As a consequence a fully nuanced picture of China's place in the modern world remains elusive China Art Modernity is a timely remedy for that situation Here is a book that offers a comprehensive account of the dizzying transformations of Chinese art and society in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Breaking free of conventional dichotomies between traditional and modern Chinese and Western that have hobbled earlier studies Clarke's highly original book is exactly what I would assign my own students Anyone eager to understand developments in China within the global history of modern art should read this book Robert E Harrist Jr Columbia University Clarke's book presents a critically astute mapping of the arts of modern and contemporary China It highlights the significance of urban and industrial contexts migration diasporas and the margins of the mainland while imaginatively seeking to inscribe its subject into the broader story of modern art A timely and reliable intervention and indispensable for the student and non specialist reader Shane McCausland SOAS University of London Newsletter, East Asian Art and Archaeology, 1994

Contemporary Chinese Visual Culture, Acta Orientalia, 1996 Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag, 2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition Robert Kushner Alexandra Anderson-Spivy, Robert Kushner, Holland Cotter, 1997 Robert Kushner's aim as an artist has been to please the eye and thereby satisfy the human soul This magnificent new midcareer survey proves how well he has succeeded during twenty five years that have included flamboyant early performance and fabric pieces a period as a leader of the Pattern and Decoration movement his return to the figure in the 1980s up to his current concentration on flower and other still lifes of unmatched sensuality and opulence These recent works celebrate the cycle of creation and destruction the fruition decay and renewal that compose the eternal rhythm of natural life 96 colour 31 b w illustrations
