Postmodern Contentions:

Planning in Postmodern Times Philip Allmendinger, 2002-01-04 Postmodern social theory has provided significant insights into our understanding of society and its components Key thinkers including Foucault Baudrillard and Lyotard have challenged existing ideas about power and rationality in society This book analyses planning from a postmodern perspective and explores alternative conceptions based on a combination of postmodern thinking and other fields of social theory In doing so it exposes some of the limits of postmodern social theory while providing an alternative conception of planning in the twenty first century This title will appeal to anyone interested in how we think and act in relation to cities urban planning and governance

Negotiating Postmodernism Wayne Gabardi, 2001 A comprehensive and interdisciplinary overview of this essential debate Philosophy Critical Theory A comprehensive and interdisciplinary overview of this essential debate No longer is there one postmodernism Joining the modern postmodern debate at a critical juncture Wayne Gabardi suggests that the polarizing polemics of the radical postmodernists have given way to a new critical postmodernism characterized by dialogue accommodation and synthesis Negotiating Postmodernism marks the arrival of a powerful critical presence on the scene one that advances the idea of a late modern postmodern social and cultural transition From the battle lines drawn between neo Marxist writers and postmoderns in the early sixties to the shifting positions staked out in the eighties and nineties Gabardi identifies the salient features of the evolving discussion and searches out common ground for the contending parties Engaging the work of contemporary social and political thinkers from Lyotard and Bauman to Giddens and Habermas from Heidegger and Arendt to Foucault and Wolin Garbardi provides a comprehensive overview and interpretation while offering major theoretical propositions regarding the future of democracy Translation Inquiries University of Minnesota Press

Postmodernism & a Sociology...(c) , In the fifth volume in the Studies in American Sociology Series Stanford M Lyman offers commentaries on and critiques of postmodernism poststructuralism and deconstruction posing questions concerning theoretical and epistemological problems arising from what appears to be a nouvelle vague Postmodernism poststructuralism and deconstructionism are interrelated aspects of the newest theoretical development in sociology and the social sciences This new wave of thought challenges virtually all paradigms currently in use In this his fifth volume in the Studies in American Sociology Series Stanford M Lyman offers commentaries on and critiques of this new perspective posing questions concerning theoretical and epistemological problems arising from what appears to be a nouvelle vague Among the basic themes and issues explored are the allegation that modernity has defaulted on the promise of the Enlightenment the question of whether the rational basis for knowledge and action is still valid the controversy over the place of metanarratives and macrosociological outlooks and newer concerns over race gender sexual preferences the self and the Other Professor Lyman provides empirically based and historically specific analyses of the relation of the race question to the problem of otherness and to the legal construction of racial identity in American court proceedings Focusing on the issues of citizenship affecting European Middle Eastern and Asian immigrants African Americans and the special cases of the Chinese and Native Americans he relates major public problems to the modern as well as the postmodern perspectives on justice The debate over assimilation and multiculturalism the dynamics of gender specific emotions as expressed in six decades of Hollywood films and the postmodern approach to deviance are each examined He also offers proposals for a social science attuned to but critical of postmodernism and poststructuralism Such a sociology might offer a perspective that treats the drama of social relations in the routine as well as the remarkable aspects of everyday life Professor Lyman provides not only a new understanding of postmodernism but also a program of how to proceed with respect to its challenges

Cartographic Strategies of Postmodernity Peta Mitchell, 2013-01-11 The last fifty years have witnessed the growing pervasiveness of the figure of the map in critical theoretical and fictional discourse References to mapping and cartography are endemic in poststructuralist theory and similarly geographically and culturally diverse authors of twentieth century fiction seem fixated upon mapping While the map metaphor has been employed for centuries to highlight issues of textual representation and epistemology the map metaphor itself has undergone a transformation in the postmodern era This metamorphosis draws together poststructuralist conceptualizations of epistemology textuality cartography and metaphor and signals a shift away from modernist preoccupations with temporality and objectivity to a postmodern pragmatics of spatiality and subjectivity Cartographic Strategies of Postmodernity charts this metamorphosis of cartographic metaphor and argues that the ongoing reworking of the map metaphor renders it a formative and performative metaphor of postmodernity

The

Postmodern Mythology of Michel Tournier Melissa Panek, 2012-03-15 Michel Tournier defines the supreme mission of a writer to be the creation of a mythology which allows for interaction with his readers who seem to be losing their critical faculties in our contemporary postmodern world dominated by consumption and dizzying technological advances Our contemporary society has changed due to the end of the modern era with its reigning ideologies Collapsing after the atrocities of the Second World War Modernity and the artistic and literary reactions referred to as modernism have likewise been transformed Myth continues to represent the collectivity of human existence yet in the short stories and novels of Michel Tournier myth represents the collapse of the all encompassing ideologies inherent to the Modern era The grand narratives of Modernity such as Christianity and Man's reason have been deconstructed in the postmodern era The mythology of Michel Tournier expresses these trends towards the dissolution of Modernity and creates individual mini narratives which emphasize the particularity of individual existence Tournier takes established mythical models rooted in Christianity fables and legends of Western Civilization and re contextualizes them Through a semiotic reworking of core binary pairs of a myth Tournier creates a third order level of representation which modifies the mythical model The works of le Roi des Aulnes Gilles et Jeanne and Vendredi are illustrious of this third order level of signification According to Ferdinand de Saussure Roland Barthes and Claude Lévi Strauss the structural make up of myth transforms established meanings according to the dominant cultural code Barthes semiological study of myth reveals the levels of representation through which myth creates meaning Myth builds upon the denotative first order level of language and through a connotative process creates a second order level This connotative process does not end on this second order for in the writings of Tournier this semiological process is continued to a third order which re contextualizes the myth again Tournier adapts myth to the unique traits of the postmodern era including deconstruction and playfulness by allowing the reader to provide the context of the story As such we the reader take the place as author of our own individual mythology

Lost in Space Rob Kitchin, James Kneale, 2005-12-23 Science fiction one of the most popular literary cinematic and televisual genres has received increasing academic attention in recent years For many theorists science fiction opens up a space in which the here and now can be made strange or remade where virtual reality and cyborg are no longer gimmicks or predictions but new spaces and subjects Lost in space brings together an international collection of authors to explore the diverse geographies of spaceexploring imagination nature scale geopolitics modernity time identity the body power relations and the representation of space The essays explore the writings of a broad selection of writers including J G Ballard Frank Herbert Marge Piercy Kim Stanley Robinson Mary Shelley and Neal Stephenson and films from Bladerunner to Dark City The Fly The Invisible Man and Metropolis Movement and Belonging Carol E. Leon,2009 The uncertainties and newness that surround us today prompt radical questions about ourselves and our relationship with the external world How do and can we belong to the places and spaces of today Movement and Belonging Lines Places and Spaces of Travel describes current realities and suggests ways in which you can define yourself in an ever changing world Using the travel writings of V S Naipaul Michael Ondaatje Patrick White and D H Lawrence Movement and Belonging demonstrates that authentic travel embracing changing boundaries and cultures enables you to create sites of belonging where you can find your sense of self Place and the Politics of Identity Michael Keith,Steve Pile,2004-11-23 In the last two decades new political subjects have been created through the actions of the new social movements often by asserting the unfixed and overdetermined character of identity Further in attempting to avoid essentialism people have frequently looked to their territorial roots to establish their constituency A cultural politics of resistance as exemplified by Black politics feminism and gay liberation has developed struggles to turn sites of oppression and discrimination into spaces of resistance This book collects together perspectives which challenge received notions of geography which are in danger of becoming anachronisms without a language to articulate the new space of resistance the new politics of identity

Consumer Research Stephen Brown,Darach Turley,2005-06-23 Consumer Research Postcards from the Edge is a collection of cutting edge essays by leading exponents of postmodern consumer research from Europe and America Topics covered include chronicle composition and fabulation in consumer research postmodern approaches to pluralism in consumer research marketing in cyberspace poststructuralism in marketing semiotics in marketing and consumer research Cities and Consumption Mark Jayne,2006 This text investigates the mutual and dynamic relationship between urban development and consumption It uses case studies and illustrations from North America Europe and Asia Theory, Change and Southern Africa P. Vale,L. Swatuk,B. Oden,2001-06-26 As dramatic changes unfold throughout the world and the new millennium begins many in South Africa have begun to ask what next The scale and pace of change have led to a feeling of powerlessness How to cope with globalization regionalization a depleting ozone layer new diseases rampant militarization let alone unseen structures of influence and oppression like race class and gender While there is no shortage of theoretical models on offer many feel that they are inadequate for the case of Southern Africa In this book scholars of both international relations and Southern Africa present a wide variety of thoughts on the future of the reign and the place of theory in helping us to understand the bewildering array of events characterizing the late modern early twenty first century world This book marks a call to theory if Southern Africans are to overcome the divisive legacy of the past and to move toward a more prosperous and sustainable collective future theory must be placed at the centre of everyday life For it is our understanding of the world that shapes both it and us Development Stuart Corbridge,2017-05-15 The volume brings together twenty five of the most influential articles published in the field of development geography since 1960 The first part looks at the origins of development geography and the debates between modernization theorists and radicals that took shape in the 1970s Thereafter the book is organized thematically Geographers have made key contributions to development studies in four major areas all of which are represented here and include gender and households development alternatives and identities resource conflicts and political ecology and globalization and resistance The book ends with three broad ranging essays by leading figures in the field New Directions in Celtic Studies Amy Hale,Philip Payton,2000 The primary aim of New Directions in Celtic Studies is to focus on contemporary issues and to promote interdisciplinary approaches within the subject Written by international scholars and practitioners in fields such as folklore ethnomusicology art history religious studies tourism and education the book brings together in one volume a wide range of perspectives It responds to the recent questioning of the viability of the notion of Celticity and the idea of Celtic Studies as a discipline and points to a renewed vitality in the subject New Directions in Celtic Studies is divided into four sections popular culture and representation commodities and Celtic lifestyles contemporary Celtic identity and the Celtic diaspora Celtic praxis Market Place Susan Parham,2013-02-21 This book is about designing for food It explores three fast transforming urban sites in London centred on the regenerating spaces of Borough Broadway and Exmouth Markets It suggests that food quarters have emerged in each place modelling new forms of interconnection between physical design and social processes in which food related renewal is at the heart Using case study research informed by design morphological and social science techniques the book explores how the interplay between compact city design and social practices focused on food strongly influences the making of everyday life in these places It demonstrates that the quarters have at once enriched the experience of food and eating and increased urban sustainability and conviviality in and around previously moribund food spaces while paradoxically contributing to gentrification effects The book frames this experience within more spatially dominant approaches to city design which seem to close off convivial food options and choices that would support a more satisfying and resilient urban life The book draws some conclusions about the complexities of designing and planning for food led renewal that might apply more broadly to other places in London and potentially to other cities in future The 'Postmodern Turn' in the Social Sciences Simon Susen,2015-07-23 Simon Susen examines the impact of the postmodern turn on the contemporary social sciences On the basis of an innovative five dimensional approach this study provides a systematic comprehensive and critical account of the legacy of the postmodern turn notably in terms of its continuing relevance in the twenty first century The Politics of Cyberspace Chris Toulouse,Timothy W. Luke,2013-12-16 The Politics of Cyberspace provides an overview of the impact of the world wide web on the political process Chris Toulouse organizes the articles according to their theoretical approach those who take up Habermas's concern with civil society and those who take up the postmodern critique of popular culture. The book covers key issues such as the potential for electronic democracy, the use of the web by mainstream political parties, challenges to the First Amendment, inequalities of access, and new understanding of gender. It also calls for progressive intellectuals to embrace the Internet in their political struggles.

Framing Places Kim Dovey, 2002-01-08. Framing Places investigates how the built forms of architecture and urban design act as mediators of social practices of power. It is an account of how our lives are framed within the clusters of rooms, streets, and cities we inhabit.

Milieus of Creativity Peter Meusburger, Joachim Funke, Edgar Wunder, 2009-03-10. Milieus of Creativity is the second volume in the book series Knowledge and Space. This book deals with spatial disparities of knowledge and the impact of environments, space, and contexts on the production and application of knowledge. The contributions in this volume focus on the role of places, environments, and spatial contexts for the emergence and perpetuation of creativity. Is environment a social or a spatial phenomenon? Are only social factors relevant for the development of creativity, or should one also include material artefacts and resources in its definition? How can we explain spatial disparities of creativity without falling victim to geodeterminism? This book offers insights from various disciplines such as environmental psychology, philosophy, and social geography. It presents the results of a research conference at Heidelberg University in September 2006, which was supported by the Klaus Tschira Foundation.
