Poverty Gender And Migration:

Poverty, Gender and Migration Sadhna Arya, Anupama Roy, 2006-03-09 This volume studies the new migratory flows among Asian women focusing particularly on poverty and the attendant issues of powerlessness that mediate women's migration. While gender provides the conceptual tool for mapping differential experiences of social reality by identifying poverty and migration as significant axes around which social relations and processes unfold, the volume unravels the complex layers of needs, networks and choices that come into play in poverty-driven migration. Art, Gender and Migration in the Kurdish Diaspora Özlem Belçim Galip, 2024-08-22 This book focuses on the cultural and intellectual activities of Kurdish migrant women through artistic and aesthetic forms of production in Belgium, France, Germany, Sweden and the UK. Using in-depth interviews with over 40 Kurdish women artists, Özlem Galip examines how artistic, literary and cultural productions incorporating the fields of film, theatre and music are articulated within the structures of nation-states, leading to the interrogation of the impact of western and local knowledge, patriarchy, the nation-state and globalisation. Galip also analyses how European policies affect the development of cultural engagement of Kurdish migrant women and how such engagements help these women to integrate into European society. Examining the gendered experiences of diaspora from all four regions of Kurdistan: Iraq, Iran, Syria and Turkey, this book challenges ideas about gender, migration and art through the lens of women's artistic production with a focus on women-led activism and the changing integration and migration policies of Europe. Migration, Gender and Home Economics in Rural North India Dinesh K. Nauriyal, Nalin Singh Negi, Rahul K.

Gairola, 2019-10-21 This book critically examines the socio-economic impacts of out-migration on households and gender dynamics in rural northern India. The first of its kind, this study unearths through detailed regional and demographical research the ways in which economic and migratory trends of male family members in rural India in general and hilly regions of Garhwal in particular affect the wives, children, extended families and agricultural lands that they have left behind. It offers vital research in how rural India's socio-economic formations and topographic characteristics can today more effectively contribute to the national and global economy with respect to migratory trends, gender dynamics and home life. Furthermore, it investigates the collapse of agricultural and many other traditional economic activities without a corresponding creation of fresh economic opportunities. This book moreover elucidates how male out-migration from rural to urban centres has greatly re-shaped kinship and economic structures at places of origin and has consequently had a serious impact on the socio-psychological well-being of family members. This book will be of great value to scholars and researchers of development economics, agricultural economics, environment studies, sociology, social anthropology, population studies, gender and women's studies, social psychology, migration and diaspora studies, South Asian studies and behavioral studies. Atlas of Gender and Health Inequalities in India Christophe Z. Guilmoto, 2024-01-01 How will the world's largest population approach its inequality challenges? This volume addresses this question by unraveling different strands of India's emerging health and gender geographies It is the first book to offer a comparative study of these disparities in India stressing the deep interaction between health challenges and patriarchal features Most themes explored in this book illustrate the entangled nature of the social and regional determinants of gender and health imbalances in India Through its rich cartography of contemporary India the book represents the first Atlas exploiting district level figures drawn from the latest sociodemographic survey conducted in 2019 21 After an initial methodological synopsis the book is built around twenty chapters illustrated by 75 original maps figures and tables prepared by thirty authors and concludes with a synthesis of India s spatial patterns Chapters engage with major themes of gender and health inequalities and explore an array of innovative indicators such as access to menstrual hygiene cesarean deliveries health insurance son preference in fertility female landownership patrilocal systems hypertension anemia hysterectomy girl only or single child families or traditional contraception Together they provide an often surprising glimpse into the present and future of India s gender and health landscape highlighting the considerable progress accomplished over the last two decades alongside persistent gaps and emerging issues Women, Gender, Remittances and Development in the Global South Ton van Naerssen,Lothar Smith,Marianne H.

Marchand,2016-03-09 This book endeavours to take the conceptualisation of the relationship between transnational remittance exchanges and gender to a new level Thus inevitably it provides a number of case studies of relationships between gender and remittances from around the world highlighting different processes and practises Thereby the authors seek to understand the impact of remittances on gender and gender relations both at the sending as well as at the receiving end For each case study authors ask how remittances affect gender identities and relationships but also vice versa By itself this already adds a wealth of insights to a field that is remarkably understudied despite a volume of studies on gender and the feminization of migration in developing contexts Chapters take an open explorative approach to the relationship between gender and remittance behaviour with the aid of case studies focusing on transnational flows between migrants and countries of origin With the wide variety of cases this book is able to provide conceptual insights to better understand how remittances affect gender identity roles and relations at both the receiving and sending end and give specific attention to the roles of various actors directly and indirectly involved in remittance sending in current collectively organized remittance schemes from around the world Women, Gender and Everyday Social Transformation in India Kenneth Bo Nielsen,Anne

Waldrop,2014-08-01 The pace of socioeconomic transformation in India over the past two and a half decades has been formidable This volume sheds light on how these transformations have played out at the level of everyday life to influence the lives of Indian women and gender relations more broadly Through ethnographically grounded case studies the authors portray the contradictory and contested co existence of discrepant gendered norms values and visions in a society caught up in wider processes of sociopolitical change Women Gender and Everyday Social Transformation in India moves the debate on gender and social transformation into the domain of everyday life to arrive at locally embedded and detailed ethnographically informed analyses of gender relations in real life contexts that foreground both subtle and not so subtle negotiations and contestations

Gender in Modern India Lata Singh, Shashank Shekhar Sinha, 2024-05-23 Gender in Modern India brings together pioneering research on a range of themes including social reforms caste and contestations Adivasis patriarchy and colonialism capitalism political economy and labour masculinity and sexuality health medical care and institution building culture and identity and migration and its new dynamics Commissioned in remembrance of the prolific social historian Biswamoy Pati this volume examines the gender question through a multilayered and multi dimensional frame in which interdisciplinarity and intersectionality play an important role Using case studies on gender from diverse geographies east west north south and northeast community locations Hindu Muslim and Christian and marginalized socio economic or ethnic habitations such as those of Dalits and Adivasis the contributors highlight the complexities and diversities of women s negotiations of patriarchies in varied social ethnic and community contexts Collectively the chapters in this volume focus on three related and overlapping settings colonial colonial and postcolonial continuum and postcolonial They delineate the multiple lives of gender by focusing on its intersections with other markers of difference including race class caste sexuality culture ethnicity region and occupation thereby questioning stereotypes challenging dated notions and interpretations of gender and demonstrating the ubiquity of patriarchy

Feminism and Migration Glenda Tibe Bonifacio, 2012-02-09 Feminism and Migration Cross Cultural Engagements is a rich original and diverse collection on the intersections of feminism and migration in western and non western contexts This book explores the question does migration empower women Through wide ranging topics on theorizing feminism in migration contesting identities and agency resistance and social justice and religion for change well known and emerging scholars provide in depth analysis of how social cultural political and economic forces shape new modalities and perspectives among women upon migration It highlights the centrality of the various meanings and interpretations of feminism s in the lives of immigrant and migrant women in Australia Belgium Brazil Eastern Europe France Greece Japan Italy Mexico Morocco Papua New Guinea Spain and the United States The well researched chapters explore the ways in which feminism and migration across cultures relate to women s experiences in host societies as women wives mothers exiles nuns and workers and the avenues of interactions for change Cross cultural engagements point to the convergence and even disjunctures between im migrant and non immigrant women that remain unrecognized in contemporary mainstream discourses on migration and feminism

Gender Violence Sally Engle Merry, 2011-09-23 Taking an anthropological perspective this comprehensive book offers a highly readable and concise overview of what constitutes gender violence its social context and important directions in intervention and reform Uses stories personal accounts case studies and a global perspective to provide a vivid and engaging portrait of forms of violence in gendered relationships Extensively covers many forms of gender violence including domestic violence rape murder wartime sexual assault prison and police violence female genital cutting dowry murders female infanticide honor killings and sex trafficking Examines major approaches to diminishing gender violence such as criminalization batterer retraining programs and human rights interventions Highlights the role of social movements in defining the problem and mobilizing reforms in the US and internationally

Poverty and Morality William A. Galston, Peter H. Hoffenberg, 2010-09-20 This multi authored book explores the ways that many influential ethical traditions secular and religious Western and non Western wrestle with the moral dimensions of poverty and the needs of the poor These traditions include Buddhism Christianity Confucianism Hinduism Islam and Judaism among the religious perspectives classical liberalism feminism liberal egalitarianism and Marxism among the secular and natural law which might be claimed by both The basic questions addressed by each of these traditions are linked to several overarching themes what poverty is the particular vulnerabilities of high risk groups responsibility for the occurrence of poverty preferred remedies how responsibility for its alleviation is distributed and priorities in the delivery of assistance This volume features an introduction to the types scope and causes of poverty in the modern world and concludes with Michael Walzer s broadly conceived commentary which provides a direct comparison of the presented views and makes suggestions for further study and policy

Migrant Women and Work Anuja Agrawal, 2006-05-10 This volume is focused on Asian women who migrate either globally or across the Asian continent or within their respective countries in order to seek work The contributors cover a broad terrain of issues including the changing gender composition of migration streams the motivations of individual migrants the different outcomes of male and female migration and discernible patterns in the migration of women The distinguishing feature of this collection of original essays and case studies is that it concentrates on solo migrant women The contributors show that even though migration involves moving away from their homes the family both as an institution and an ideology constraints and shapes the choices of migrant women Additionally the case studies demonstrate that gender ideologies remain highly resistant to modification even consequent to a radical alteration in the household division of labour owing to women s migration On the other hand women see migration as a way of achieving greater autonomy as well as fulfilling a role as a responsible adult Overall the volume argues that the structural ramifications of women s migration extend beyond the lives of the migrant women themselves in so far as their labour plays an important role in shaping gender relations in the societies of both the migrants and their hosts An important contribution to the literature on migration this volume will attract the attention of all social scientists but particularly those studying migration gender family labour sociology and anthropology

Gender and Citizenship in Historical and Transnational Perspective Anne Epstein, Rachel Fuchs, 2017-09-16 With gender as its central focus this book offers a transnational multi faceted understanding of citizenship as legislated imagined and exercised since the late eighteenth century Framed around three crosscutting themes agency space and borders leading scholars demonstrate what historians can bring to the study of citizenship and its evolving relationship with the theory and practice of democracy and how we can make the concept of citizenship operational for studying past societies and cultures The essays examine the past interactions of women and men with public authorities their participation in civic life within various kinds of polities and the meanings they attached to their actions In analyzing the way gender operated both to promote and to inhibit civic consciousness action and practice this book advances our knowledge about the history of citizenship and the evolution of the modern state
