history of Christianity lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT or queer people have been condemned as unrepentant sinners who are in dire need of God's saving grace As a result of this condemnation LGBT people have been subjected to great spiritual emotional and physical abuse and violence This issue takes on a particular urgency in light of the ongoing harassment and bullying of LGBT young people by their classmates Cheng argues that people need to be liberated from the traditional legal model of thinking about sin and grace as a violation of divine and natural laws in which grace is understood as the strength to refrain from violating such laws Rather Cheng proposes a Christological model based upon the theologies of Irenaeus Bonaventure and Barth in which sin and grace are defined in terms of what God has done for us in Jesus Christ This book serves as a useful resource for all people who struggle to make sense of the traditional Christian doctrines of sin and grace in the context of the 21st century Five Views on the Gospel Michael Horton, Scot McKnight, David A. deSilva, Julie C Ma, Shively T.J Smith, 2025-06-03 Five Views on the Gospel presents five different perspectives on the question What is the gospel Presenting a variety of contemporary and tradition based perspectives each contributor answers key questions about the nature of the gospel Questions contributors address include What is the gospel What is the context for understanding the New Testament teaching about the gospel What are the primary biblical texts that you believe express the gospel and how do you understand them What are people called to do with the gospel and what are the benefits promised by the gospel How can the definition and proclamation of the gospel be contextualized and made relevant today What example of an inadequate gospel and a false gospel can you offer What does it mean to live a life worthy of the gospel The CounterPoints format provides a unique opportunity for each contributor to set forth their own understanding of the gospel to interact with competing perspectives and for the editors to sum up points of agreement and disagreement and a path forward in the debate Positions and Contributors include The Reformation Gospel Michael Horton The King Jesus Gospel Scot McKnight The Wesleyan Gospel David A deSilva The Pentecostal Gospel Julie C Ma A Liberation Theology Gospel Shively T J Smith The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion Re-Envisioning Transformation David C. Scott, 2018-09-14 In today s church use of the term transformation has become commonplace Various perspectives are offered on what a Christian view of transformation is and on how it may be achieved These often conflicting views suggest an ecclesial landscape characterized by pluralism division fragmentation confusion relativism individualism pragmatism and subjectivism Despite the current interest in transformational theology the absence of a common coherent and integrated vision and the lack of transformation is often accepted and affirmed Re Envisioning Transformation looks at the possibility of moving toward a vision of transformational theology that is cohesive unified broad effectual and distinctly Christian In this book the contributions of two radically different heologians of the Christian life are examined This provides the basis from
