Lost civilizations Origins of mankind Why does mankind seem to need religion Why is there so much confusion and mental indigestion manifest among not only rank and file mankind but also actively demonstrated by the academics After all does it really matter who built the pyramids of Egypt Or when they were built Does it matter that there are so many confusing and conflicting claims by the proponents of the many religions So who or what is god Is it Jehovah Allah Krishna or Enlil Or perchance it is a fiction And what does it matter or avail if we understand the true origins of man or not If we cannot correctly understand who and what mankind is how can we ever know and understand what angels demons gods God or aliens are Is it that we are the aliens and this was not our earth

Teotihuacan Matthew Robb, 2017-09-26 Founded in the first century BCE near a set of natural springs in an otherwise dry northeastern corner of the Valley of Mexico the ancient metropolis of Teotihuacan was on a symbolic level a city of elements With a multiethnic population of perhaps one hundred thousand at its peak in 400 CE it was the cultural political economic and religious center of ancient Mesoamerica A devastating fire in the city center led to a rapid decline after the middle of the sixth century but Teotihuacan was never completely abandoned or forgotten the Aztecs revered the city and its monuments giving many of them the names we still use today Teotihuacan City of Water City of Fire examines new discoveries from the three main pyramids at the site the Sun Pyramid the Moon Pyramid and at the center of the Ciudadela complex the Feathered Serpent Pyramid which have fundamentally changed our understanding of the city s history With illustrations of the major objects from Mexico City s Museo Nacional de Antropología and from the museums and storage facilities of the Zona de Monumentos Arqueológicos de Teotihuacan along with selected works from US and European collections the catalogue examines these cultural artifacts to understand the roles that offerings of objects and programs of monumental sculpture and murals throughout the city played in the lives of Teotihuacan s citizens Published in association with the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco Exhibition dates de Young San Francisco September 30 2017 February 11 2018 Los Angeles County Museum of Art LACMA March June 2018 Archaeological Researches at Teotihuacan, Mexico Sigvald Linné, 2003-03-26 The field data and archaeological analysis of the first controlled excavations of the vast City of the Gods in central Mexico In 1932 the Ethnographical Museum of Sweden sent an archaeological expedition to Mexico under the direction of Sigvald Linn to determine the full extent of this ancient Teotihuacan occupation and to collect exhibit quality artifacts Of an estimated 2 000 plus residential compounds at Teotihuacan only 20 apartment like structures were excavated at the time Yet Linn s work revealed residential patterns that have been confirmed later in other locations Some of the curated objects from the Valley of Mexico and the adjacent state of Puebla are among the most rare and unique artifacts yet found Another important aspect of this research was that with the aid of the Museum of Natural History in Washington Linn s team conducted ethnographic interviews with remnant native Mexican peoples whose culture had not been entirely destroyed by the Conquest thereby collecting and preserving valuable information for later research Medical Pickwick ,1922 The Medical Pickwick ,1922 The Historians' History of the World: These eventful years (part II) Henry Smith Williams, 1926 The Teotihuacan Trinity Annabeth Headrick, 2013-03-15 Northeast of modern day Mexico City stand the remnants of one of the world s largest preindustrial cities Teotihuacan Monumental in scale Teotihuacan is organized along a three mile long thoroughfare the Avenue of the Dead that leads up to the massive Pyramid of the Moon Lining the avenue are numerous plazas and temples which indicate that the city once housed a large population that engaged in complex rituals and ceremonies Although scholars have studied Teotihuacan for over a century the precise nature of its religious and political life has remained unclear in part because no one has yet deciphered the glyphs that may explain much about the city's organization and belief systems In this groundbreaking book Annabeth Headrick analyzes Teotihuacan's art and architecture in the light of archaeological data and Mesoamerican ethnography to propose a new model for the city's social and political organization Challenging the view that Teotihuacan was a peaceful city in which disparate groups united in an ideology of solidarity Headrick instead identifies three social groups that competed for political power rulers kin based groups led by influential lineage heads and military orders that each had their own animal insignia Her findings provide the most complete evidence to date that Teotihuacan had powerful rulers who allied with the military to maintain their authority in the face of challenges by the lineage heads Headrick's analysis also underscores the importance of warfare in Teotihuacan society and clarifies significant aspects of its ritual life including shamanism and an annual tree raising ceremony that commemorated the Mesoamerican creation story
