Science, Politics, and Friendship in the Works of Thomas Lovell Beddoes Ute Berns, 2012 This study reevaluates the work of the scientist and radical poet and dramatist and English exile in Germany Thomas Lovell Beddoes 1803-1849 While his writing has elicited high praise from poets ranging from Robert Browning through Ezra Pound to John Ashbery scholars have frequently neglected it on grounds of its purportedly morbid and opaque eccentricity Countering this scholarly perception this book deftly relocates Beddoes s poetry drama and prose at the centre of Anglo-German debates on aesthetics and life science politics and theatre in an early nineteenth-century European context Aided by his letters from Germany the book re-creates the intercultural discursive universe in which Beddoes easily moves from Shakespeare s plays or the aesthetic experiments of Shelley and his circle to Goethe and to topics debated among Heinrich Heine and the Jungdeutschen from the most advanced contemporary scientific research to the post-Napoleonic politics of the German radical students organisations and from Byron Baillie and London s illegitimate theatre to Schiller s and Tieck s highly charged reflections on male-male friendship The study combines historicist strategies with theories of performance performativity and visibility as it focuses in particular on Beddoes s major and defining work Death s Jest Book first completed in 1829 and published posthumously after much revision in 1850 This study shows how Death s Jest Book as both drama and poetry devises complex perspectives on scientifically inspired notions of life and history how it forges a radical vision for post-Napoleonic Europe and how it links this vision to a daring conception of desiring gendered selves The book pays close attention to the dialogue Beddoes s writing maintains with Early Modern literature and it highlights the proto-modernist features that link his work to that of Bchner Grabbe and a European theatre avant-garde This innovative study of Beddoes s work cutting across current investigations into politics gender and science in intercultural Romantic Studies should be of interest to scholars and students of British Romantic and Victorian studies as well as of German Vormärz studies and to students and scholars of drama and theatre as well as Queer studies

The Poems of Browning: Volume Four John Woolford, Daniel Karlin, Joseph Phelan, 2014-05-12 The Poems of Robert Browning is a multi-volume edition of the poetry of Robert Browning 1812-1889 resulting from a completely fresh appraisal of the canon text and context of his work The poems are presented in the order of their composition and in the text in which they were first published giving a unique insight into the origins and development of Browning s art Annotations and headnotes in keeping with the traditions of Longman Annotated English Poets are full and informative and provide details of composition publication sources and contemporary reception Volumes one 1826-1840 and two 1841-1846 presented the poems from his Browning's early years while volume three 1847-61 covered the period of his marriage to Elizabeth Barrett and residence in Italy. Volume four 1862-71 deals with the decade following Elizabeth's death and Browning's return to England. These years saw the appearance of some of his most significant work and a steady rise in his critical reputation. In Dramatis Personae 1864 Browning uses his characteristic dramatic mode to expose predicaments of thought and feeling in characters ranging from Shakespeare's Caliban to the cheating medium Mr Sludge. Other poems dramatize Browning's complicated feelings about the deceptions and self-deceptions of romantic love. Balaustion's Adventure 1871 is an engaging reworking of Euripides' Alceste whose theme the resurrection of a beloved lost wife has poignant personal resonance for Browning while Prince Hohenstiel-Schwangau published in the same year offers a thinly veiled account of the life and actions of Napoleon III the recently deposed Emperor of France over whom Browning and Elizabeth had quarrelled. In these two long poems Browning can be seen engaged in the dialogue with Elizabeth that was to shape much of his work during the remainder of his writing life.

Bronze Age Europe apotropaic devices in Roman and Medieval Britain the evolution of superstitions and ritual customs from the voodoo doll of Europe and Africa to a Scottish wishing tree and an exploration of spatiality in West African healing practices The objectives of this collection of nine papers are twofold First to provide a platform from which to showcase innovative research and theoretical approaches in a subject which has largely been neglected within archaeology and related disciplines and secondly to redress this neglect The papers were presented at the 2012 Theoretical Archaeology Group TAG conference in Liverpool The Seventh Doctor M.
