Quality Of Life And Older People

Philip McCallion

Quality Of Life And Older People:

Quality Of Life And Older People Bond, John, Corner, Lynne, 2004-09-01 Quality of life and older people reviews the way that older people talk about their quality of life and how this differs from the ways that younger people researchers and scientists policy makers and professionals discuss it The book challenges the traditional approaches to the meaning and measurement of quality of life in older people by placing older people's accounts at the centre It draws on a range of behavioural and social science knowledge to present a new way of thinking and understanding about quality of life and older people

Quality of Life in Old Age Heidrun Mollenkopf, Alan Walker, 2007-06-13 This book started its life during a symposium we organised on Quality of Life in Old Age at the Fifth Conference of the International Society for Quality of Life Studies ISQOLS in Frankfurt in July 2003 We are extremely grateful to Alex Michalos for sponsoring that session encouraging us to use the symposium presentations as the basis for a book and for his support during the commissioning and editing process We are also very grateful to the authors of this volume for the prompt delivery of their manuscripts and responses to our editorial comments Finally our special thanks to Marg Walker for her expert and efficient preparation of the manuscript for publication Heidrun Mollenkopf Alan Walker Heidelberg Sheffield ix

SECTION I UNDERSTANDING QUALITY OF LIFE IN OLD AGE ALAN WALKER AND HEIDRUN MOLLENKOPF

1 INTERNATIONAL AND MULTIDISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVES ON QUALITY OF LIFE IN OLD AGE

Conceptual issues Quality of life QoL is a multidimensional holistic construct assessed from many different perspectives and by many disciplines Moreover the concept of QoL can be applied to practically all important domains of life Thus QoL research has to include social environmental structural and health related aspects and be approached from an interdisciplinary perspective This holds even more when QoL in old age is the focus because ageing itself is a multidimensional process

Active and Healthy Aging and Quality of Life: Interventions and Outlook for the Future Yulan Lin, Waqas Sami, Mila Nu Nu Htay, Sudip Bhattacharya, 2024-04-15 The continuous growth of older adult populations as a consequence of demographic changes is a huge challenge To prevent costly and negative impacts effects on the population as a whole it is crucial that societies increase their knowledge of promoting good health among older adults to promote good health and a better quality of life in their later years Active aging is the process of optimizing opportunities for health participation and security in order to enhance quality of life as people age An active and healthy life has remained one of the most important aspirations for all people both young and older adults alike This ambition has become a genuine possibility for many due to a rising life expectancy among people of diverse attributes across the world While celebrating longer life and with more financial security in later life than ever before we need to challenge how these aspirations can be sustained through our own behavioural responses and through public policy institutional reforms and innovations The challenge is to identify recommend and promote strategies and interventions that stimulate and sustain the activity independence and health of people of all ages especially older adults and in the process promote the well being and
