Rancho San Julian The Story Of A California Ranch And Its People:

Rancho San Julian A. Dibblee Poett,1991 Californio Lancers Tom Prezelski,2015-08-19 More than 16 000 Californians served as soldiers in the Union Army during the Civil War One California unit the 1st Battalion of Native Cavalry consisted largely of Californio Hispanic volunteers from the Cow Counties of Southern California and the Central Coast Out of work vaqueros who enlisted after drought decimated the herds they worked the Native Cavalrymen lent the army their legendary horsemanship and carried lances that evoked both the romance of the Californios and the Spanish military tradition Californio Lancers the first detailed history of the 1st Battalion illuminates their role in the conflict and brings new diversity to Civil War history Author Tom Prezelski notes that the Californios less than a generation removed from the U S Mexican War were ambivalent about serving in the Union Army but poverty trumped their misgivings Based on his extensive research in the service records of individual officers and enlisted men Prezelski describes both the problems and the accomplishments of the 1st Battalion Despite a desertion rate among enlisted men that exceeded 50 percent for some companies and despite the feuds among its officers the Native Cavalry was the face of federal authority in the region and their presence helped retain the West for the Union during the rebellion The battalion pursued bandits fought an Indian insurrection in northern California garrisoned Confederate leaning southern California patrolled desert trails guarded the border and attempted to control the Chiricahua Apaches in southern Arizona Although some ten thousand Spanish surnamed Americans served during the Civil War their support of the Union is almost unknown in the popular imagination Californio Lancers contributes to our understanding of the Civil War in the Far West and how it transformed the Mexican American community Design with Culture Charles A. Birnbaum,Mary V. Hughes,2005 This anthology written by a number of distinguished scholars breaks new ground in focusing on a major yet generally neglected chapter in the legacy of landscape architectural practice in the United States Equally important the content addresses a long overlooked aspect of the historic preservation movement bringing home the importance of knowing that movement s past in the pursuit of high professional standards today For practitioners and historians alike this is an invaluable book This collection of fresh essays is a valuable contribution to an expanding literature about what must be considered the most complex and contested social product our landscape especially that which is deemed historically significant The sweep from colonial origins to Appalachian farms from scenic wilderness and missions of the West to the nation s capital the little known stories behind the origins of our heritage and conservation organizations and many of our first and most meaningful parks will be of interest to laymen students and professionals alike The De La Guerra Family Louise Pubols,2000 The Branding Iron ,1992 The Journal of Arizona History ,1965 California History ,1991 The History of California Agriculture ,1991 Contains citations covering the years 1974 1991 New Arrivals in Californiana ,1984 America, History and Life ,1996 Provides historical coverage of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present Includes information abstracted from over
