Impostors Christopher L. Miller, 2018-12-10 Miller takes us on an exciting tour of postcolonial and world literature guiding us through the literary maze of the real and the pretenders to the real Ngugi wa Thiong'o author of Wizard of the Crow Writing a new page in the surprisingly long history of literary deceit Impostors examines a series of literary hoaxes deceptions that involved flagrant acts of cultural appropriation This book looks at authors who posed as people they were not in order to claim a different ethnic class or other identity These writers were in other words literary usurpers and appropriators who trafficked in what Christopher L. Miller terms the intercultural hoax In the United States such hoaxes are familiar Forrest Carter's The Education of Little Tree and JT LeRoy's Sarah are two infamous examples Miller's contribution is to study hoaxes beyond our borders employing a comparative framework and bringing French and African identity hoaxes into dialogue with some of their better known American counterparts In France multiculturalism is generally eschewed in favor of universalism and there should thus be no identities in the American sense to steal However as Miller demonstrates this too is a ruse French universalism can only go so far and do so much There is plenty of otherness to appropriate This French and Francophone tradition of imposture has never received the study it deserves Taking a novel approach to this understudied tradition Impostors examines hoaxes in both countries finding similar practices of deception and questions of harm In this fascinating study of intercultural literary hoaxes Christopher L. Miller provides a useful brief history of American literary impostures as a backdrop for his investigation of France's literary history of ethnic usurpation Henry Louis Gates Jr New York Times bestselling author

Romain Gary David Bellos, 2010-11-30 Airman war hero immigrant law student diplomat novelist and celebrity spouse Romain Gary had several lives thrust upon him by the history of the twentieth century but he also aspired to lead many more He wrote more than two dozen books and a score of short stories under several different names in two languages English and French neither of which was his mother tongue Gary had a gift for narrative that endeared him to ordinary readers but won him little respect among critics far more intellectual than he could ever be His varied and entertaining writing career tells a different story about the making of modern literary culture from the one we are accustomed to hearing Born Roman Kacew in Vilna now Lithuania in 1914 and raised by only his mother after his father left them Gary rose to become French Consul General in Los Angeles and the only man ever to win the Goncourt Prize twice This biography follows the many threads that lead from Gary's wartime adventures and early literary career to his years in Hollywood and his marriage to the actress Jean Seberg It illuminates his works in all their incarnations and culminates in the tale of his most brilliant deception the fabrication of a complex identity for his most successful nom de plume mile Ajar In his new portrait of Gary David Bellos brings biographical research together with literary and cultural analysis to make sense of the many lives of Romain Gary a hero fit for our times as well as his own

SHELF EDITORS PICK FOR JUNE 2023 When a family is forced to return to the mother's childhood home she seeks meaning in her ancestral roots and the violent beauty of the natural world Fleeing the city at the beginning of the pandemic two families are cramped together in a small century old country house Winter seeps through the walls the wallpaper is peeling and mice make their nest in the piano Without phones or internet they turn to the outdoors where a new language unfolds a language of fireflies and clover The five children explore nature and its treasures while our narrator Ana's turns to the eccentric neighbours and her own family history to find peace and meaning in the middle of her life To the Forest is a field guide to a quieter life a call to return to the places where we can reweave the threads of memory where existence waltzes with death where we can recapture what it means to be alive Propaganda and Persecution Renée Poznanski, 2024-01-23 Renée Poznanski's magisterial history of the French Resistance during World War II offers a comprehensive exploration of the most significant issue in that period's social imaginary the Jewish question With extraordinary nuance she analyzes the discourse around Jews and Judaism that pervaded the Resistance's propaganda and debates while closely examining the fate of Jews under Vichy and after Poznanski argues that Jews in France suffered a double persecution one led by the Vichy government the other imposed by the Nazis Marginalization and exclusion soon led to internment and deportation to terrifying places Meanwhile a propaganda war developed between the Resistance and the official voice of Vichy Poznanski draws on a breathtaking array of sources especially clandestine publications and French language BBC transmissions to show how the Resistance both fought and accommodated the deeply entrenched antisemitism within French society Her close readings of propaganda texts against public opinions probe ambiguities and silences in Resistance writing about the persecution of the Jews and in parallel the numerous and detailed denunciations that could be read in the Jewish clandestine press This extensive synthesis extends to the post Liberation period during which the ongoing persecution of Jews in Europe and North Africa would be portrayed as secondary to the suffering of the nation The winner of the 2009 Henri Hertz Prize by the Chancellerie des Universités de Paris Sorbonne Propaganda and Persecution makes major contributions to the study of the Resistance and of antisemitism Lenn J Schramm's English translation brings Poznanski's dynamic prose to life

European Literary Immigration Into the French Language Tijana Miletić, 2008 The critical emotional and intellectual change which every immigrant is obliged to endure and confront is experienced with singular intensity by immigrant writers who have also adopted another language for their literary expression Concentrating on European authors of the second half of the twentieth century who have chosen French as a language for their literary expression and in particular the novels by Romain Gary Agota Kristof Milan Kundera and Jorge Semprun with reference to many others European Literary Immigration into the French Language explores some of the common elements in these works of fiction which despite the varied personal circumstances and literary aesthetics of the authors follow a similar path in the building of a literary identity and legitimacy in the new language The choice of the French language is inextricably linked with the subsequent literary choices of these writers This study charts a new territory within Francophone and European literary studies in treating the European immigrants as a separate group and in applying linguistic sociological and psychoanalytical ideas in the analysis of the works of fiction and thus represents a relevant contribution to the understanding of European cultural identity This volume is relevant to French and European literature scholars and anyone with interest in immigration European identity or second language adoption

The Films of Jean Seberg Michael Coates-Smith, Garry McGee, 2014-01-10 Here is the first comprehensive examination of the international film career of Iowa born actress Jean Seberg 1938 1979 Bursting onto the scene as star of Otto Preminger's controversial Saint Joan 1957 the 19 year old Seberg encountered great difficulty recovering from the devastating criticism of her performance The turnaround came in 1959 with her brilliant work in Jean Luc Godard's new wave classic A bout de souffle Breathless Though her Hollywood prospects were harmed by subsequent political involvements Seberg continued to work with some of Europe's finest directors Her later films offer a fascinating view of the movie industry in the 1960s and 1970s and of a courageous actress always ready for a new challenge A biographical sketch provides a framework for detailed scrutiny of her 37 films Background information and a critical evaluation is provided for each title

Lesley Blanch Anne Boston, 2014-08-28 Blanch writer artist and adventuress followed her own compass in everything she did She called herself a romantic traveller her appetite for the exotic colours all her books The first The Wilder Shores of Love became a worldwide bestseller and is still in print Emotions she insisted can be transposed to places or countries and in this she was her own best example Her guiding passion for Russia began in childhood later she found the eternal Slav in Romain Gary Franco Slav diplomat and writer and with him embarked on a series of postings from Bulgaria to Los Angeles After their divorce she transferred her obsession to Turkey Persia and the Islamic East where she travelled widely with tremendous baggage She eventually settled on the Cote d Azur in a small pink villa dressed as exotically as herself Lesley Blanch loved mystery vivid yet elusive she hid as much as she revealed and created a legend about her early past In this first biography Anne Boston draws on publishers archives unpublished journals and conversations with those who knew her to piece together the portrait of an escapist for whom character plus opportunity equals fortune

The Némirovsky Question Susan Rubin Suleiman, 2016-11-22 A fascinating look into the life and work of controversial French novelist Ir ne N mirovsky Ir ne N mirovsky succeeded in creating a brilliant career as a novelist in the 1930s only to have her life cut short a foreign Jew in France she was deported in 1942 and died in Auschwitz But her two young daughters survived and as adults they brought their mother back to life In 2004 Suite fran aise N mirovsky's posthumous novel became an international best seller some critics however condemned her as a self hating Jew whose earlier works were rife with anti Semitic stereotypes Informed by personal interviews with N mirovsky s descendants and others as well as by extensive archival research this wide ranging intellectual biography situates N mirovsky in the literary and political climate of interwar France and recounts for the first time the postwar lives of her daughters N mirovsky s Jewish works Suleiman argues should be read as explorations of the conflicted identities that shaped the lives of secular Jews in twentieth century Europe and beyond

In Lieu of Memory Thomas Nolden,2006-01-23 This book provides a wide ranging analysis of French Jewish authors born after the Shoah and traces the development of the rich agenda of jeune littérature juive young Jewish writing from its beginnings in the late 1970s into the 1980s and 1990s when it gained intense momentum Thomas Nolden uses a wealth of biographical information to expound on his central thesis the abrupt interruption of transmission of the Jewish heritage by assimilation migration and near extermination required these writers to reinvent themselves their past and their memories as Jews Nolden provides concise readings of the fiction of more than two dozen writers of both Sephardic and Ashkenazi background living in present day France He demonstrates how contemporary Jewish writing has responded historically culturally politically and aesthetically to developments in French society and in Jewish culture His critical analysis of the major themes concerns and stylistic features of the authors work connects Jewish writing in France to the traditions of Jewish writing both during the Diaspora and in Israel

Representing the "good German" in Literature and Culture After 1945 Pól Ó Dochartaigh,Christiane Schönfeld,2013 Essays analyzing postwar literary cultural and historical representations of good Germans during the Second World War and the Nazi period In the aftermath of the Second World War both the allied occupying powers and the nascent German authorities sought Germans whose record during the war and the Nazi period could serve as a counterpoint to the notion of Germans as evil That search has never really stopped In the past few years we have witnessed a burgeoning of cultural representations of this other kind of Third Reich citizen the good German as opposed to the committed Nazi or genocidal maniac Such representations have highlighted individuals choices in favor of dissenting behavior moral truth or at the very least civil disobedience The good German s counterhegemonic practice cannot negate or contradict the barbaric reality of Hitler s Germany but reflects a value system based on humanity and an other ideal community This volume of new essays explores postwar and recent representations of good Germans during the Third Reich analyzing the logic of moral behavior cultural and moral relativism and social conformity found in them It thus draws together discussions of the function and reception of Good Germans in Germany and abroad Contributors Eoin Bourke Manuel Bragança Maeve Cooke Kevin De Ornellas Sabine Egger Joachim Fischer Coman Hamilton Jon Hughes Karina von Lindeiner Strömsky Alexandra Ludewig Pól Ó Dochartaigh Christiane Schönfeld Matthias Uecker Pól Ó Dochartaigh is Professor of German and Dean of the Faculty of Arts at the University of Ulster Northern Ireland Christiane Schönfeld is Senior Lecturer in German and Head of the Department of German Studies at Mary Immaculate
